

Australian Political Treason, Treachery & Sabotage

by Dick Yardley

Foreword

This Foreword and Overview refer to the Compilation of 442 Pages which were Compiled from research into factual evidence of Treason, Treachery, Sabotage against “the Commonwealth of Australia”, compiled from years of research, proving such matters as, but not limited to:-

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, have deceived us and our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch, by creating under a progressive evolutionary process, Corporations that control all entities inside Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia", with NO Separation of Powers and with purported "Governor-Generals" and "Governors" under their control also.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, have thereby committed Treason, Treachery and Sabotage

– against our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch

who holds Crown authority under the Crown of the United Kingdom

– and against us, the people

“of the Commonwealth of Australia”

which was established and constituted on 1st January 1901

under the "Founding and Primary Law of the Commonwealth of Australia"

i.e. the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901,

as Proclaimed and Gazetted,

and as consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule with the Oath/Affirmation to our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch.

The Parliaments, Governments, Courts and other entities "of Australia" as created by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, do not recognize, nor apply, the Preamble, Clauses 1 to 8 and the Schedule as in our "Founding and Primary Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, have also deceived our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and us, by altering to words used in the common vernacular, the "Constitutional and official definitions" in the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, Act No. 2 given Royal Assent on 12th July 1901, thereby altering the intention and meaning of constitutionally defined words in the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, and thereby committing the crimes of Treason, Treachery and Sabotage against our "Founding and Primary Law of the Commonwealth of Australia" which states that its Preamble and Clauses 1 to 8 may not be altered, particularly Clause 6—Definitions.

Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, may be altered, but only by Referendum of the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia", meaning that the Schedule—Oath/Affirmation, may only be altered by a Referendum asking the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" if they were to agree to no longer live under a Constitutional Monarchy. So far the people have said NO!

OVERVIEW

Pages 1-11, of the 442 paged research document of factual evidence, refer to:-

The Commonwealth of Australia Act which was

Assented to 9th July 1900

Proclaimed 17th September 1900

Gazetted 1st January 1901.

The Royal Proclamation of 17th September 1900, in which
the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, Queen Victoria, after being satisfied that the people of Her six Colonies agreed, declared that:-

"on and after the First day of January
One thousand nine hundred and one,
the people of
New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia, Queensland, Tasmania, and Western Australia, shall be united under the name of the Commonwealth of Australia".

The Letters Patent of 29th October 1900, which were published in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette No. 1 of 1st January 1901 [1901GN01], were granted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, Queen Victoria, under Royal Sign Manual and Signet, and were passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, constituting the Office of Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of the Commonwealth of Australia, and made patent that those Letters Patent may not be revoked, altered, or amended by anyone else other than the holder of the Crown of the United Kingdom, Her Majesty Queen Victoria and Her heirs and successors in the sovereignty of the United Kingdom.

The Commission of 29th October 1900, which was published in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette No. 1 of 1st January 1901 [1901GN01], under Royal Sign Manual and Signet, instructing

the Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief
of the Commonwealth of Australia,
to act on behalf of the holder of the Crown of the United Kingdom.

The people "of the Commonwealth of Australia", having faith in Almighty God, believed that they would live in one indissoluble Federal Commonwealth under the Constitution thereby established on 1st January 1901.

Decimal notes and coins were introduced 14th February 1966, marking the end of British-style currency system based on pounds, shillings and pence, but done contra to our "Founding and Primary Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted. particularly at Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia.

In 1974 the words "Commonwealth of Australia" were changed to "Australia" in the "Legend" on the medium of exchange in the form of paper money.

"Australian Dollars" are NOT Legal Tender "of the Commonwealth of Australia", have NO "Head of Power", have NO Crown and Constitutional authority, and are only a medium of exchange "of Australia" NOT "of the Commonwealth of Australia".

A magnified inspection of an "Australian Dollar" polymer (plastic) note, reveals a watermarked seal, the "Stylised Arms No. 2 (Solid) US Serial No. 89000533", which was registered in 1992 with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO).

Australian Citizenship Act 1973, No. 99 of 17th September 1973 has this seal

William Philip Sidney, Viscount De L'Isle, on 03/08/1961,

Sir Paul Hasluck, on 30/04/1969,

who all published Proclamations under

"my Hand" and the Great Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia", and who all stated that their appointments as Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief
in and over the Commonwealth of Australia,
by Commissions of 18/12/1959, 07/07/1961, 15/09/1965, 01/04/1969, resp.
were under Royal Sign Manual and Royal Great Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia.
i.e. NOT appointed by Commission under "Royal Sign Manual and Signet" as prescribed under Letters Patent of 29th October 1900, as amended on 29th March 1911 and then again on 15th December 1920;

deceived the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia"
and their Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch;

created "Australian Dollars" with NO "Head of Power" on 14th February 1966;

created from 1966 processes to alter Canon Law to change the name
"Church of England in Australia" to "Anglican Church of Australia" and has been known by this name since 24th August 1981.

and after the 1972 election, despite the people of the Commonwealth of Australia being led to believe that their elected representatives would sit as Members of the House of Representatives in the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia, created an "Australian" system of government from approx. 5th December 1972

when Prime Minister Gough Whitlam and Deputy Prime Minister Lance Barnard, being two Members of a Political Party with its own Party's Constitution and policies, were sworn in by Governor-General Sir Paul Hasluck, into 27 Portfolios of a duumvirate government, ("duumvirate" meaning a ministry of two).

Note: The day before 27 ministers were sworn into the "Australian Government", the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights which was opened for signature in New York on 19th December 1966, was signed for "Australia" on 18th December 1972,

Pages 106-165, of the 442 paged document of factual evidence, refer to:-

1984 Letters Patent of 21st August 1984,

Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985, and the

Australia (Request and Consent) Act 1985, No. 143 of 4th December 1985, resulting directly from 24th June 1982, 25th June 1982, and 21st June 1984 Conferences held in Canberra where an unconstitutional Prime Minister and unconstitutional Premiers agreed:-

on the taking of certain measures to bring constitutional arrangements affecting the Commonwealth and the States into conformity with the status of "the Commonwealth" of "Australia" as a sovereign, independent and federal nation"

(i.e. a Republic by stealth and WITHOUT a Referendum of the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” under a Constitutional Monarchy.)

Meanings in the Oxford Dictionary:-

“conformity n. compliance with conventions, rules or laws”

“status n. the official classification given to a person, country, etc.”

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, progressively have created their own "Australian" system of government, enabling them to enforce the policies and Constitutions of the Political Parties "of the day", over the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia", with the use of the members of their police force, as well as members of the Judiciary who are now bound to take judicial notice of only the purported evidence and "laws of Australia" as from 1973, and created for their own benefit, their own private MPs and "Governor-General of Australia" who gave assent to their "laws of Australia" which had NO Royal Assent by our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch. In the Referendum held on 6th November 1999, the people said NO to a Republic, therefore we, the people, are still to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

13. Amendment of Constitution Act of Queensland.

- (1) The Constitution Act 1867-1978
of the State of Queensland
is in this section referred to as the Principal Act.
- (2) Section 11A of the Principal Act is amended in subsection (3)
- (a) by omitting from paragraph (a)
 - (i) “ and Signet ”; and
 - (ii) “ constituted under Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom ”; and
 - (b) by omitting from paragraph (b)
 - (i) “ and Signet ”; and
 - (ii) “ whenever and so long as the office of Governor is vacant
or the Governor is incapable of discharging the duties of administration or has departed from Queensland ”.
- (3) Section 11B of the Principal Act is amended
- (a) by omitting “ Governor to conform to instructions ” and substituting “ Definition of Royal Sign Manual ”; and
 - (b) by omitting subsection (1); and
 - (c) by omitting from subsection (2)
 - (i) “ (2) ”;
 - (ii) “ this section and in ”; and
 - (iii) “ and the expression ‘ Signet ’ means the seal
commonly used for the sign manual of the Sovereign
or the seal
with which documents are sealed
by the Secretary of State in the United Kingdom
on behalf of the Sovereign ”.
- (4) Section 14 of the Principal Act is amended in subsection (2)
by omitting
“ subject to his performing his duty prescribed by section 11B, ”.

Sections 11A, 11B and 14 of Queensland's Constitution Act 1867-1978
are Referendum entrenched, therefore Provision 13 of the Australia Acts 1986 can have NO effect.

Acts Interpretation Act 1954 [3 Eliz. 2 No. 3] of 27th April 1954,
“An Act to assist in the shortening and interpretation of Queensland Acts”

as amended and Current as at 22nd March 2016

(and as similar to provisions in legislation in all other States “of Australia”)

Part 3—General provisions applying to Acts

9A—Declaration of validity of certain laws

Each provision of an Act

enacted, or purporting to have been enacted,
before the commencement of the Australia Acts

has (and always has had) the same effect as it would have had,
and is (and always has been) as valid as it would have been,
if the Australia Acts had been in operation
at the time of its enactment or purported enactment.

Explanation:-

Each provision of an Act enacted

before the commencement of the Australia Acts

or each provision of an Act purporting to have been enacted

before the commencement of the Australia Acts

has the same effect (and always has had the same effect)

if the Australia Acts had been in operation

at the time of enactment or purported enactment

of each of those provisions

enacted or purporting to have been enacted

and each provision of an Act enacted

before the commencement of the Australia Acts

or each provision of an Act purporting to have been enacted

before the commencement of the Australia Acts

is as valid (and always has been as valid)

if the Australia Acts had been in operation

at the time of enactment or purported enactment

of each of those provisions enacted or purporting to have been enacted

Oxford Dictionary: purport v. appear to be or do, especially falsely

Because Section 9A—Declaration of validity of certain laws

infers that some Acts have been enacted falsely and only appear to be Acts, then the Australia Acts have no effect, and never had any effect, on the validity of any provision of any Act enacted, or purporting to have been enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts.

The same applies to Provision 14 (Pages 161 and 162)

as Provision 14—Amendment of Constitution of Western Australia deals with referendum entrenched sections of the Constitution of the people.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, with their objectives to reform the Australian Constitution towards the existence of "Australia" as an independent republic, under a progressive evolutionary process, proceeded from 24th June 1982, 25th June 1982, and 21st June 1984 Conferences held in Canberra, at which a Prime Minister and Premiers agreed:-

"on the taking of certain measures to bring constitutional arrangements affecting the Commonwealth and the States into conformity with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia as a sovereign, independent and federal nation", called "Australia";

to have those purported elected Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, sitting in purported Parliaments of the States, all being paid in "Australian Currency" in "Australian Dollars", to make in each of those States, "laws of the State" under a "Sovereign of Australia", "Queen of Australia", with a "Governor of the State" using a "Public Seal of the State", in order to conform to the objectives of the Constitutions and policies of the Political Parties.

However those "laws of the State", particularly in Queensland are contra to the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, and contra to Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, sitting as elected purported Members of the Legislative Assembly in a unicameral Parliament in Queensland, deceived our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and us, Her subjects, the people of Queensland and "of the Commonwealth of Australia";

by having Sir Walter Campbell, Governor from 22nd July 1985 to 28th July 1992, who was paid in "Australian currency" in "Australian Dollars", "not Pounds", seal the Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985, (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985 with the Royal Coat of Arms "for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the Seal", when that Act consisted of unconstitutional provisions that would NOT pass the Seal;

by having all future Governors in Queensland take Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance and Office to a Statutory Instrument, "Sovereign of Australia", "Queen of Australia";

by altering all "laws of Queensland" as well as reprinting, resealing and copyrighting them to become "laws of the State" in Queensland;

by using words in the "Australian" vernacular to make those changes under an "oligarchy" unicameral purported Parliament of Queensland, then creating their own

"Queensland Government"—"Queensland Parliament"—"Queensland Courts", with NO Separation of Powers as required under the Westminster system of government; contra to Section 53—Certain measures to be supported by referendum, under Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977.

It has been widely reported that Kim Beazley MP, whilst representing a political party in "Australia" as a purported elected member of the Parliament "of Australia" and as a Cabinet Minister of the Government "of Australia" and as the Deputy Prime Minister "of Australia" from 1995 to 1996, said: "The United Nations has given the Federal Government a mandate of ownership for housing, property, farms and businesses to government control once the Republic has been proclaimed".

The above quote of what Kim Beazley has reportedly said, correlates with his political party's "ALP National Constitution" as adopted 26 July 2015, for example at:-

Part B Objectives and Principles Objectives

- 5 To achieve the political and social values of equality, democracy, liberty and social co-operation inherent in this objective, the Australian Labor Party stands for
- (m) reform of the Australian Constitution and other political institutions to ensure that they reflect the will of the majority of Australian citizens and the existence of Australia as an independent republic

However, "Australian citizens" were abstract "entities" created by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, under their private Australian Citizenship Act 1973, No. 99 of 17th September 1973, and have been paid in fiat and counterfeit money, "Australian Dollars" which are only a medium of exchange "of Australia" NOT "of the Commonwealth of Australia", and with NO "Head of Power", have NO Crown and Constitutional authority, and which therefore are NOT Legal Tender "of the Commonwealth of Australia".

Oxford Dictionary: “abstract” adj. theoretical rather than physical or concrete “entity” n. a thing with distinct and independent existence

“Queen of Australia” is a non-living abstract “entity”, Statutory Instrument created by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, and is Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God
 Queen of Australia and Her other Realms and Territories,
 Head of the Commonwealth
as under their private Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973.

Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God of the

as under the Royal Style and Titles Act 1953 (Cth) Act No. 32 of 3rd April 1953.

The Armorial Ensigns, granted to Queensland under Royal Warrant by Her Majesty Queen Victoria on 29th April 1893, had Supporters of a Red Deer and a Brolga granted and assigned to them under Royal Warrant on 9th March 1977 by:-

Elizabeth the Second by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Our other Realms & Territories
Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, have committed Treason, Treachery and Sabotage, by unconstitutionally removing "United Kingdom" and "Defender of the Faith" thereby removing from the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" their access to a Writ of Habeas Corpus.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, and their own private Parliaments, Governments, Courts and all their other entities such as Local Governments and the Council of Australian Governments (COAG).

do NOT recognize the Crown's Seal on lawful Certificates of Title to Land, do NOT recognize our constitutional rights, liberties and privileges.

When land is sold, the buyer is actually in receipt of stolen goods, because Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, with their private three tiers of corporate government, with NO Separation of Powers, have taken ownership of all land "of the Commonwealth of Australia" and have taken control over all the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" by having created their own "Australia" and "the Commonwealth" by Treason, Treachery and Sabotage, and with the Company named and substituting the following paragraph:-

"(a) 'Australia' or 'the Commonwealth' means
the Commonwealth of Australia
and, when used in a geographical sense,
does not include an external Territory;";

No contrary intention, has been shown since, in any "laws of Australia" made by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, to the meaning of their own created "Australia" or "the Commonwealth", as can be seen in Sections 1A, 2B and 15B of their own corporate Acts Interpretation Act 1901, that their private Acts Interpretation Amendment Act 2011, No. 46 of 27th June 2011, repealed Section 17, so there are NO "Constitutional and Official definitions" since,

in any of the "laws of Australia".

at Schedule 1—Meaning of commonly used words and expressions—section 36:- Australia Acts means the Australia Act 1986 (Cwlth) and the Australia Act 1986 (UK),

but these are different Acts with different meanings to words in their definitions.

For example:-

In the Australia Act 1986 (UK) [1986 Ch. 2] of 17th February 1986
“Australian court” means a court
of a State or any other court of Australia or of a Territory
other than the High Court of Australia.

In the Australia Act 1986 (Cwlth) No. 142 of 4th December 1985, Australian court means a court
of a State or any other court of Australia or of a Territory
other than the High Court.

Our Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”,
the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, prescribes at Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws

This Act, and all laws made by the Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Constitution,
shall be binding on the courts, judges, and people
of every State and of every part of the Commonwealth, notwithstanding anything in the laws of any State;, and at

Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia,

Chapter III—The Judicature

Section 71—Judicial Power and Courts

The judicial power of the Commonwealth shall be vested in a Federal Supreme Court,
to be called the High Court of Australia,

The Judiciary Act 1903, Act No. 6 given Royal Assent on 25th August 1903, an Act to make provision for the Exercise of the Judicial Power of the Commonwealth states at Part XI—Supplementary Provisions:-

Application of Laws

Common law to govern

80. So far as the laws of the Commonwealth are not applicable or so far as their provisions are insufficient to carry them into effect, or to provide adequate remedies or punishment,
the common law of England as modified by the Constitution and by the statute law in force in the State in which the Court in which the jurisdiction is exercised is held shall, so far as it is applicable and not inconsistent with the Constitution and the laws of the Commonwealth, govern all Courts exercising federal jurisdiction
in the exercise of their jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters.

‘Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia”’

Constitutional Separation of Powers between Parliament, Executive and Judiciary, NO longer exists in this country called “Australia” or “the Commonwealth” of the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, whose Justices under their High Court “of Australia”:-

are NOT constitutionally appointed,

do NOT make Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance and of Office sit as Justices under definitions of “Australia” and “the Commonwealth” created by Senate and House of Representatives “of Australia”, make decisions bound to the “laws of Australia” from 1973, including the

do NOT apply the “common law of England” but instead “common law in Australia”,

The Australia Act 1986 at Provision 16—Interpretation states:-

court includes a judge, judicial officer or other person acting judicially decision includes determination, judgment, decree, order or sentence.

Page (xvii) of (xxii)—Foreword and Overview with respect to Treason, Treachery, Sabotage as in Pages 1 to 442 in:-
‘Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia”’
whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.’

Members of Political Parties, are bound to the Constitutions and policies of those Political Parties, and as such, do not represent those people who voted for them, and are bound to the “sovereign, independent and federal nation” called “Australia” with its “Australian Constitution”.

It is ironic that when it suits the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, they will refer to sections of their “Australian Constitution”, but in 2017, that “has come back to bite them”, and will continue to do so in 2018, with respect to the “Dual Citizenship” Controversy.

The “Australian Constitution” states at Section 44—Disqualification at Chapter I—The Parliament, Part IV—Both Houses of the Parliament,

44. Any person who:

- (i) is under any acknowledgment of allegiance, obedience, or adherence to a foreign power, or is a subject or a citizen or entitled to the rights or privileges of a subject or a citizen of a foreign power; or

The opinions and decisions of the Justices of the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, in: Sue v Hill [1999] HCA 30;

Gleeson CJ, Gaudron, McHugh, Gummow, Kirby, Hayne and Callinan JJ include the following Extracts from Gleeson CJ, Gummow and Hayne JJ.:-

III FOREIGN POWER

at United Kingdom institutions and the Constitution

59. It may be accepted that the United Kingdom may not answer the description of “a foreign power” in s 44(i) of the Constitution if Australian courts are, as a matter of the fundamental law of this country, immediately bound to recognise and give effect to the exercise of legislative, executive and judicial power by the institutions of government of the United Kingdom.

However, whatever once may have been the situation with respect to the Commonwealth and to the States, since at least the commencement of the Australia Act 1986 (Cth) (“the Australia Act”) this has not been the case.

The provisions of that statute make it largely unnecessary to rehearse what are now the matters of history recounted in the judgments in New South Wales v The Commonwealth[69], Kirmani v Captain Cook Cruises Pty Ltd [No 1][70] and Nolan v Minister for Immigration and Ethnic Affairs[71].”

Page (xviii) of (xxii)—Foreword and Overview with respect to Treason, Treachery, Sabotage as in Pages 1 to 442 in:- ‘Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia” whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.’

at Legislative power

65. It follows that, at least since 1986 with respect to the exercise of legislative power, the United Kingdom is to be classified as a foreign power.

at The meaning of “the Crown” in constitutional theory

96. The point of immediate significance is that the circumstance that the same monarch exercises regal functions under the constitutional arrangements in the United Kingdom and Australia does not deny the proposition that the United Kingdom is a foreign power within the meaning of s 44(i) of the Constitution.

Australia and the United Kingdom have their own laws as to nationality[132]
so that their citizens owe different allegiances.

97. As indicated earlier in these reasons, we would give an affirmative answer to the question in each stated case which asks whether Mrs Hill, at the date of her nomination, was a subject or citizen of a foreign power within the meaning of s 44(i) of the Constitution.

at Citizenship of a foreign power

173. At the very latest, the Commonwealth of Australia was transformed into a sovereign, independent nation with the enactment of the Australia Acts.
The consequence of that transformation is that the United Kingdom is now a foreign power for the purposes of s 44(i) of the Constitution.

The above decisions were correct, particularly when considering the fact that the Company named: COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA CIK#: 0000805157 is registered in Washington D.C. (District of Columbia.).

Any person, who makes an Oath/Affirmation of Allegiance and/or Office to a “Sovereign of Australia” (i.e. a “Queen of Australia”, a Statutory Instrument under the private Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973), and who renounces all other allegiances, also removes himself/herself from any nationality.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, took control over the Governor-Generals in “Australia” from 2nd February 1960, by removing the “Signet” from their Commissions, so a Royal Commission under Crown and Constitutional authority has NOT been able to be held since then in “Australia”.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, have a “Queen of Australia” with NO “United Kingdom” or “Defender of the Faith” in its title, and “Australian Dollars” have NO Crown or Constitutional authority, yet on 30th November 2017 an unconstitutional “Prime Minister” “of Australia” released Draft Terms of Reference for a Royal Commission into Misconduct in the Banking, Superannuation and Financial Services Industry.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, under their created definitions for “Australia” and “the Commonwealth, have incurred major debts for “Australia”, “the Commonwealth”, and for the States “of Australia”.
Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, are liable for those debts, especially those debts in counterfeit “Australian Dollars”.
The people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are NOT liable for those debts.

- (b) specified by proclamation made for the purpose of this definition to be an enemy of and at war with that country.

(5.) A proclamation shall not be made for the purpose of the definition of 'proclaimed country', or for the purpose of the definition of 'proclaimed enemy', in the last preceding sub-section

"An Act to provide for an alteration of the Royal Style and Titles"

WHEREAS it is expedient that the style and titles at present appertaining to the Crown should be altered so as to reflect more clearly the existing constitutional relations of the members of the Commonwealth to one another and their recognition of the Crown as the symbol of their free association and of the Sovereign as the Head of the Commonwealth :

And whereas it was agreed between representatives of Her Majesty's Governments in the United Kingdom, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, Pakistan and Ceylon assembled in London in the month of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-two, that there is a need for an alteration thereof which, whilst permitting of the use in relation to each of those countries of a form suiting its particular circumstances, would retain a substantial element common to all :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

Power to alter the style and titles of the Crown.

1. The assent of the Parliament of the United Kingdom is hereby given to the adoption by Her Majesty, for use in relation in the United Kingdom and all other the territories for whose foreign relations Her Government in the United Kingdom is responsible, of such style and titles as Her Majesty may think fit having regard to the said agreement, in lieu of the style and titles at present appertaining to the Crown, and to the issue by Her for that purpose of Her Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of the Realm.

[Queen's Assent, 3rd April, 1953.]
[Queen's Assent proclaimed, 7th May, 1953.]

Preamble

WHEREAS it was recited in the preamble to the Statute of Westminster, 1931 that it would be in accord with the established constitutional position of all the members of the British Commonwealth of Nations in relation to one another that any alteration in the law touching the Royal Style and Titles should, after the enactment of that Act, " require the assent as well of the Parliaments of all the Dominions as of the Parliament of the United Kingdom " :

AND WHEREAS the Style and Titles appertaining to the Crown at the time of the enactment of the Statute of Westminster, 1931 had been declared by His then Majesty King George V, in a Proclamation in pursuance of the Royal and Parliamentary Titles Act, 1927 of the United Kingdom, and were, in consequence of the establishment of the Republic of India, subsequently altered with the assent as well of the Parliaments of Canada, Australia, New Zealand and the Union of South Africa as of the Parliament of the United Kingdom :

AND WHEREAS it was agreed between the Prime Ministers and other representatives of Her Majesty's Governments in the United Kingdom, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, Pakistan and Ceylon assembled in London in the month of December, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-two, that the Style and Titles at present appertaining to the Crown are not in accord with current constitutional relationships within the British Commonwealth and that there is a need for a new form which would in particular, " reflect the special position of the Sovereign as Head of the Commonwealth " :

AND WHEREAS it was concluded by the Prime Ministers and other representatives that, in the present stage of development of the British Commonwealth relationship, it would be in accord with the established constitutional position that each member country should use for its own purposes a form of the Royal Style and Titles which suits its own particular circumstances but retains a substantial element which is common to all :

AND WHEREAS it was further agreed by the Prime Ministers and other representatives that the various forms of the Royal Style and Titles should, in addition to the appropriate territorial designation, have as their common element the description of the Sovereign as " Queen of Her other Realms and Territories and Head of the Commonwealth " :

AND WHEREAS it was further agreed by the Prime Ministers and other representatives that the procedure of prior consultation between all Governments of the British Commonwealth should be followed in future if occasion arose to propose a change in the form of the Royal Style and Titles used in any country of the British Commonwealth :

Chapter II—The Executive Government,

However, contra to Her Majesty’s Royal Warrant dated 16th February 1954 and Her Majesty’s Royal Warrant dated 19th October 1955, in which there were no statements to remove Her Signet from Commissions or to amend any Letters Patent; Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, sitting inside the Executive Government; by having Her Majesty’s “Signet” displaced with a Public Functionary seal from 2nd February 1960, removed Crown authority from the “Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Commonwealth of Australia”, thereby placing him under their control.

Governor-Generals William Shepherd Viscount Dunrossil, on 02/02/1960
William Philip Sidney, Viscount De L’Isle, on 03/08/1961
Richard Gardiner Casey, on 22/09/1965
Sir Paul Hasluck, on 30/04/1969

all published Proclamations under “my Hand and the Great Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia”; all stated that their appointments as

Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Commonwealth of Australia, by Commissions of 18/12/1959, 07/07/1961, 15/09/1965, 01/04/1969, respectively, were under Royal Sign Manual

[Note: NO Signet] and Royal Great Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia. i.e. NOT appointed by Commission under “Royal Sign Manual and Signet” as prescribed under Letters Patent of 29th October 1900, as amended on 29th March 1911 and then again on 15th December 1920.

Governor-General Sir John Robert Kerr,

Royal Style and Titles Act 1953 (Cth) Act No. 32 of 3rd April 1953, and in the

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second in Her 2nd June 1953 Coronation Oath

by the Archbishop of Canterbury:-

Archbishop. Will you solemnly promise and swear to govern the Peoples

Canada, Australia, New Zealand,
the Union of South Africa, Pakistan, and Ceylon, and of your Possessions and the other Territories
to any of them belonging or pertaining,
according to their respective laws and customs?

Queen. I solemnly promise so to do.

On 14th February 1966, decimal notes and coins were introduced, marking the end of British-style currency system based on pounds, shillings and pence, meaning that from 14th February 1966, "Australian Dollars" which have NO "Head of Power" and which have NO Crown and Constitutional authority, were paid to Governor-Generals, to Members of the Senate and the House of Representatives and to Ministers;

paid contra to the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, particularly at:-
Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth,

Chapter I—The Parliament, Part I—General

Section 1—Legislative power

1. The legislative power of the Commonwealth shall be vested in a Federal Parliament, which shall consist of the Queen, a Senate, and a House of Representatives, and which is hereinafter called "The Parliament", or "The Parliament of the Commonwealth".

Section 2—Governor-General

2. A Governor-General appointed by the Queen shall be Her Majesty's representative in the Commonwealth, and shall have and may exercise in the Commonwealth during the Queen's pleasure, but subject to this Constitution, such powers and functions of the Queen as Her Majesty may be pleased to assign to him.

Section 3—Salary of Governor-General

3. There shall be payable to the Queen out of the Consolidated Revenue fund of the Commonwealth, for the salary of the Governor-General, an annual sum which, until the Parliament otherwise provides, shall be ten thousand pounds.
The salary of a Governor-General shall not be altered during his continuance in office.

Section 66—Salaries of Ministers

66. There shall be payable to the Queen, out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Commonwealth, for the salaries of the Ministers of State, an annual sum which, until the Parliament otherwise provides, shall not exceed twelve thousand pounds a year.

The Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, prescribes at:-

Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth,

Chapter I—The Parliament, Part V—Powers of the Parliament,
Section 51—Legislative powers of the Parliament,

51. The Parliament shall, subject to this Constitution, have power to make laws
for the peace, order and good government of the Commonwealth with respect to 51.(i) to 51.(xxxix)

- (xii) currency, coinage, and legal tender;
- (xiii) banking, other than State banking; also State banking extending beyond the limits of the State concerned, the incorporation of banks,
and the issue of paper money.

For any changes to Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth, the people of the Commonwealth of Australia must first approve by means of a Referendum to be held under the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, as prescribed at:-

Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth,

Chapter VIII—Alteration of the Constitution,

Section 128—Mode of altering the Constitution.

There was NO Referendum held of the people of the Commonwealth of Australia to remove the “Head of Power” from our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch on currency, coinage, and legal tender, and NO Referendum to remove Crown authority as entrenched in the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule.

“Australian Dollars” are NOT Legal Tender “of the Commonwealth of Australia”; have NO “Head of Power” and have NO Crown and Constitutional authority; so are contra to the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule.

Richard Gardiner Casey, Governor-General from 22/09/1965 to 30/04/1969, was appointed on 15th September 1965 by Commission under Royal Sign Manual and the Royal Great Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia i.e. NOT appointed by Commission under “Royal Sign Manual and Signet” as prescribed under Letters Patent of 29th October 1900, as amended on 29th March 1911 and then again on 15th December 1920.

When the Governor-General for the Commonwealth of Australia is to be paid in Pounds, the Legal Tender “of the Commonwealth of Australia”, under what authority did he assent to a Bill to introduce Decimal Currency?

The Currency Act 1965, No. 95 of 10th December 1965, related to Currency, Coinage and Legal Tender, and included:-

the Territory of Christmas Island

Justice Dawson of the High Court “of Australia” on 5th November 1996 in Leask v Commonwealth [1996] HCA 29, referred to “Head of Power”:-

“ As McHugh J said in Re Dingjan; Ex parte Wagner:

In determining whether a law is ‘with respect to’ a head of power in s 51 of the Constitution, two steps must be taken.

First, the character of the law must be determined. That is done by reference to the rights, powers, liabilities, duties and privileges which it creates.

Secondly, a judgment must be made

as to whether the law as so characterised so operates that it can be said to be connected to a head of power conferred by s 51.

In determining whether the connection exists, the practical, as well as the legal, operation of the law must be examined.

If a connection exists between the law and a s 51 head of power, the law will be ‘with respect to’ that head of power unless the connection is, in the words of Dixon J, ‘so insubstantial, tenuous or distant’

that it cannot sensibly be described as a law ‘with respect to’ the head of power.”

Refer: <http://www.austlii.edu.au/au/cases/cth/HCA/1996/29.html>

Section 4 of the Currency Act 1965, No. 95 of 10th December 1965, has a Definition for “Australia” but NOT for “the Commonwealth of Australia” despite its occasional mention, therefore it has “two bob each way” so to speak.

In 1974 the words “Commonwealth of Australia” were changed to “Australia” in the “Legend” on the medium of exchange in the form of paper money.

The intention of the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, to convert “the status of the Commonwealth of Australia as a sovereign, independent and federal nation” called “Australia”, was truly coming into fruition with the introduction of “Australian currency” in “Australian Dollars”.

A magnified inspection of an “Australian Dollar” polymer (plastic) note, will reveal a watermarked seal, as shown next to the Five Dollar Note below, i.e. the “Stylised Arms No. 2 (Solid) US Serial No. 89000533”, which was registered in 1992 with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO).

The Five Dollar Note shown above is NOT Legal Tender “of the Commonwealth of Australia”, has NO “Head of Power” and has NO Crown and Constitutional authority, and is a medium of exchange “of Australia” NOT “of the Commonwealth of Australia”.

Whereas a One Pound Note, as Legal Tender “of the Commonwealth of Australia” has a “Head of Power”, has the authority of the Crown as held by our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch, and has the Constitutional authority, all as under the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia” whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies,
under a progressive evolutionary process,

have changed the meaning of "Australia" and "the Commonwealth"
as well as other Constitutional and official definitions;

have changed the wording in laws and publications;

have changed the names of government departments and the allocation thereof to the port folios of Ministers;

and particularly from on or about 5th December 1972, with their intention to create their own "Queen of Australia" under their own Royal Style and Titles Act 1973 and leading up to and thereafter, to create their own Australia Act 1986, which was

"to bring constitutional arrangements
affecting the Commonwealth and the States
into conformity
with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia as a sovereign, independent and federal nation"
(i.e. a republic by stealth)

despite the people "of the Commonwealth", under Crown and Constitutional authority being entitled to stay living under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia"
whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.
(Page 33 of 442)

On 2nd December 1972, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia”, as prescribed in the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, voted at an election for their elected representatives to sit in the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia, as Members of the House of Representatives (MHRs) in that Constitutional Parliament.
http://www.aph.gov.au/About_Parliament/Parliamentary_Departments/Parliamentary_Library/pubs/rp/rp1415/FedElect

The people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” were led to believe that the Writ for that 1972 election was by Governor-General Sir Paul Hasluck, who they were also led to believe was, from 30th April 1969,

Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief
in and over the Commonwealth of Australia;

who they were also led to believe would act as personal representative of our current Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch holding the Crown of the United Kingdom as prescribed in the Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule of the people’s Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted.

However, Governor-General Sir Paul Meernaa Caedwalla Hasluck was NOT appointed by Commission under “Royal Sign Manual and Signet” as prescribed under Letters Patent of 29th October 1900, as amended on 29th March 1911 and then again on 15th December 1920. Therefore with NO “Signet”, he had NO Crown authority to act as Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Commonwealth of Australia.

The people’s Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which consists of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, prescribes at Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth,

Chapter I—The Parliament, Part III—The House of Representatives,
Section 35—Election of Speaker

35. The House of Representatives shall, before proceeding to the despatch of any other business, choose a member to be the Speaker of the House, and as often as the office of Speaker becomes vacant, the House shall again choose a member to be the Speaker. The Speaker shall cease to hold his office if he ceases to be a member. He may be removed from office by a vote of the House, or he may resign his office or his seat by writing addressed to the Governor-General.

Chapter I—The Parliament, Part IV—Both Houses of Parliament,
Section 42—Oath or affirmation of allegiance

42. Every senator and every member of the House of Representatives shall before taking his seat make and subscribe before the Governor-General, or some person authorised by him, an oath or affirmation of allegiance in the form set forth in the schedule to this Constitution.

After the 1972 election, although the people of the Commonwealth of Australia were led to believe that their elected representatives would sit as Members of the House of Representatives in the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia, Prime Minister Gough Whitlam and Deputy Prime Minister Lance Barnard, being two Members of a Political Party with its own Party's Constitution and policies, were sworn in by Governor-General Sir Paul Hasluck into 27 Portfolios of a duumvirate government, ("duumvirate" meaning a ministry of two).

However, all decisions made on and from 5th December 1972, were made contra to the people's Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, particularly contra to:-

Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth,

Chapter I—The Parliament, Part III—The House of Representatives,

Section 39—Quorum

39. Until the Parliament otherwise provides, the presence of at least one-third of the whole number of the members of the House of Representatives shall be necessary to constitute a meeting of the House for the exercise of its powers.

Chapter II—The Executive Government,

Section 61—Executive power

61. The executive power of the Commonwealth is vested in the Queen and is exercisable by the Governor-General as the Queen's representative, and extends to the execution and maintenance of this Constitution, and of the laws of the Commonwealth.

Section 62—Federal Executive Council

62. There shall be a Federal Executive Council to advise the Governor-General in the government of the Commonwealth, and the members of the Council shall be chosen and summoned by the Governor-General and sworn as Executive Councillors, and shall hold office during his pleasure.

Section 63—Provisions referring to Governor-General

63. The provisions of this Constitution referring to the Governor-General in Council shall be construed as referring to the Governor-General acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council.

Section 64—Ministers of State (Queen's Ministers of State for the Commonwealth)

64. The Governor-General may appoint officers to administer such departments of State of the Commonwealth as the Governor-General in Council may establish. Such officers shall hold office during the pleasure of the Governor-General. They shall be members of the Federal Executive Council, and shall be the Queen's Ministers of State for the Commonwealth.

After the 1972 election, although the people of the Commonwealth of Australia were led to believe that their elected representatives would sit as Members of the House of Representatives in the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia;

Prime Minister Gough Whitlam and Deputy Prime Minister Lance Barnard, being two Members of a Political Party with its own Party's Constitution and policies, were sworn in by Governor-General Sir Paul Hasluck into 27 Portfolios of a duumvirate government, ("duumvirate" meaning a ministry of two);

and being inside a Federal Executive Council with a quorum of three, they made numerous decisions and draft regulations for an "Australian" system of government, with its second Ministry formed some days later, as is reported in the following link to the Australian Government's National Archives:-

"It was a mini-ministry that was unique in Australian political history.

The duumvirate made 40 significant decisions in its brief tenure, including the immediate release of all draft resisters, the removal of troops from Vietnam and the recognition of Communist China.

Although it was a two-man ministry, it was actually a three-man government.

To ensure there was no breach of propriety all decisions were made by the Federal Executive Council which has a quorum of three, including the Governor-General or his/her representative.

Sir Paul Hasluck as Governor-General

attended all meetings of the Federal Executive Council and participated in all decision-making and was thus effectively the third member of the first Whitlam government.

Caucus elected the full Ministry on 18 December and the 27 ministers were sworn in the next day. "

Refer: <http://primeministers.naa.gov.au/primeministers/whitlam/in-office.aspx>

(Note: In that report, there is NO mention of any Speaker of the House)

Governor-General Sir Paul Hasluck, as a Governor-General in Council, should act only with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, so should NOT have been the third member of the Federal Executive Council and should NOT have been part of the "Australian" government formed in 1972 under Prime Minister Gough Whitlam.

The day before the 27 ministers were sworn into the "Australian Government", the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights which was opened for signature in New York on 19th December 1966, was signed for "Australia" on 18th December 1972, entry into force generally (except Article 41) on 23rd March 1976 and for "Australia" (except Article 41) on 13th November 1980; Article 41 came into force generally on 28th March 1979 and for "Australia" on 28th January 1993; and published by the Australian Government Publishing Service in 1998.

Governor-General Sir Paul Hasluck, by using the “Great Seal of Australia” and by referring to the “Constitution of Australia” and “laws of Australia”, acted contra to the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, particularly at:- Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth, Chapter II—The Executive Government, Section 61—Executive power acted contra to the 16th February 1954 and 19th October 1955 Royal Warrants of our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch, prescribing that the Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Commonwealth of Australia “would receive a Great Seal for use by the Government to be used in sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the Great Seal of the Commonwealth or the Seal of the Commonwealth” and to be “used as a Royal Great Seal in sealing all things whatsoever (other than things that pass the said Great Seal) that bear Our Sign Manual and the counter-signature of one of Our Ministers of State for Our Commonwealth of Australia” – NOT prescribing any “Great Seal of Australia”;

61. The executive power of the Commonwealth is vested in the Queen and is exercisable by the Governor-General as the Queen’s representative, and extends to the execution and maintenance of this Constitution, and of the laws of the Commonwealth;

and acted contra to the “Letters Patent constituting the Office of Governor-General, 29th October 1900” (as amended on 29th March 1911 and then again on 15th December 1920), which stated that: the Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Commonwealth of Australia is to be appointed by Commission under Sign Manual and Signet; is to swear an Oath of Allegiance to our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch; is to constitute and appoint, in the name of and on behalf of our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch, all such Judges, Commissioners, Justices of the Peace and other necessary officers and Ministers of the Commonwealth of Australia; is to hold the Authority of the Crown as under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted; and is to keep and use the “Great Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia” “for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the said Great Seal”.

Sir Paul Hasluck, on 30th April 1969, in his Proclamation given under "my Hand and the Great Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia", purported to be the Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Commonwealth of Australia; stated his appointment was by Commission dated 1st April 1969 under Royal Sign Manual and the Royal Great Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia; (NOT by Commission under Sign Manual and Signet as prescribed under Letters Patent of 29th October 1900, as amended in 1911 and 1920) and proclaimed and declared he had taken the prescribed Oaths.

Sir Paul Hasluck had NO Crown and Constitutional authority to swear in a Prime Minister and a Deputy Prime Minister into 27 Portfolios of a duumvirate government, ("duumvirate" meaning a ministry of two) as the word "Prime Minister" does not exist in the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule; to unconstitutionally include himself inside the Federal Executive Council as an unconstitutional quorum of three, i.e. a "three-man government"; to participate in decision-making as third member of the first Whitlam government; to swear in Caucus's full "Australian" Ministry on 18th December 1972; to seal documents with a "Great Seal of Australia"; to refer to "laws of Australia"; to give assent to any Bill passed under an "Australian" system of government, intended from the commencement of 1973 to become a "law of Australia" with the unconstitutional enacting manner and form of:-

The Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, included the following extracts, with respect to

"An Act¹" entitled the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act

" Preamble "

" Whereas² the people³

of New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia, Queensland, and Tasmania, humbly relying on the blessing of Almighty God⁴, have agreed⁵ to unite in one indissoluble Federal Commonwealth⁶ under the Crown⁷ of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland⁸, and under the Constitution⁹ hereby established¹⁰:

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the admission into the Commonwealth of other Australasian Colonies and possessions of the Queen:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty¹¹, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual¹² and Temporal¹³, and Commons¹⁴, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same¹⁵, as follows:— "

¶ 2. "Whereas."

" The proper function of a preamble is to explain and recite certain facts which are necessary to be explained and recited, before the enactments contained in an Act of Parliament can be understood. The preamble has been said to be a good means to find out the intention of a statute, and, as it were, a key to the understanding of it. "

¶ 3. "The People."

" The opening words of the preamble proclaim that the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia is founded on the will of the people whom it is designed to unite and govern. Although it proceeds from the people, it is clothed with the form of law by an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, the Supreme Sovereign Legislature of the British Empire. "

¶ 4. "Humbly Relying on the Blessing of Almighty God."

" This appeal to the Deity was inserted in the Constitution at the suggestion of most of the Colonial Legislative Chambers, and in response to numerous and largely signed petitions received from the people of every colony represented in the Federal Convention."

" This spirit of reverence for the Unseen pervades all the relations of our civil life. It is felt in the forms in our Courts of Justice, in the language of our statutes, in the oath that binds the Sovereign to the observance of our liberties, in the recognition of the Sabbath; in the rubrics of our guilds and social orders, in the anthem, through which on every public occasion we invoke a blessing on our executive head; in our domestic observances, in the offices of courtesy at our meetings and partings, and in the time-honoured motto of the nation."

" These words make distinct and emphatic reference to the consensus of the people, arrived at through the procedure, in its various successive stages, prescribed by the substantially similar Enabling Acts adopted by the Legislatures of the concurring colonies."

¶ 6. "To Unite in One Indissoluble Federal Commonwealth."

" the union, sealed by Imperial Parliamentary sanction, was intended by the contracting parties to be a lasting one, and that no alteration should be suggested or attempted inconsistent with the continuity of the Commonwealth as an integral part of the British Empire."

¶ 7. and 8. "Under the Crown of the United Kingdom."

" It is a concrete and unequivocal acknowledgment of a principle which pervades the whole scheme of Government; harmony with the British Constitution and loyalty to the Queen as the visible central authority uniting the British Empire with its multitudinous peoples"

" the origin of the Commonwealth and its form of government shows:—

1. That it has been established by the concurrence of the Queen.
2. That the Queen is an essential part of the Federal Parliament.
3. That the Queen is the head of the Federal Executive.
4. That the Queen is to be represented in the Commonwealth by a Governor-General."

¶ 9. and 10. "Under the Constitution hereby established."

" The words, " Under the Constitution," imply substantial subjection. The Commonwealth is a political community, carved out of the British empire and endowed through its Constitution with a defined quota of self-governing powers. Those powers are delegated by and derived from the British Parliament, and they are to be held, enjoyed, and exercised by the people of the Commonwealth in the manner prescribed by the grant, subject—

- (1) to the supreme British Sovereignty (under the Crown), and
- (2) to the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

" Not only the Federal Government, but the Governments of the States, will be under the Federal Constitution to the extent to which the Constitution limits their powers, and to the extent to which the power of amendment may be exercised. The Constitution will therefore be the supreme law of the land binding the people of the Commonwealth, the Federal Parliament, and all the governing agencies and instruments of the Commonwealth to the extent expressed."

“The Commonwealth is not established and the Constitution does not take effect until the date specified in the Queen's proclamation issued under Clauses 3 and 4. This proclamation was required to be issued within one year after the passing of the Act of the Imperial Parliament. ”

¶ 11. “By the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.”

“The enacting words, showing the Authority by which the Commonwealth is created, are in the form in which Acts of Parliament have been framed from a remote period of English history. According to the theory of the Constitution the Queen is the source of law, the Queen makes new laws, the Queen alters or repeals old laws, subject only to the condition that this supreme power must be exercised in Parliament and not otherwise. Every Act of Parliament bears on its face the stamp and evidence of its royal authority. It springs from the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty. It is in the Crown, and not in Parliament, that legislative authority is, according to Constitutional theory, directly vested. Parliament is the body assigned by law to advise the Crown in matters of legislation, and the Crown could not legally legislate without the advice and consent of Parliament.”

The Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, also stated that:-

“The Federal Parliament is a legislative body capable only of exercising enumerated powers. Its powers are determined and limited by actual grants to be found within the Constitution. Anything not granted to it is denied to it.”

¶ 32. “This Act.”

“The expression “This Act” occurs in Clauses 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 8. The Act consists of Clauses 1 to 9 inclusive, and Clause 9 enacts the Constitution; so that the Constitution is unquestionably a part of the Act.”

Therefore under the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule,

the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia

may NOT alter the Preamble or Clauses 1 to 8 of “This Act”,

Chapter VIII—Alteration of the Constitution,
Section 128—Mode of altering the Constitution

meaning that the Schedule—Oath/Affirmation, may only be altered by Referendum asking the people of the Commonwealth of Australia, if they were to agree to no longer being under a Constitutional Monarchy. So far the people have said NO!

Constitutional and official definitions

4.(1) Section 17 of the Principal Act is amended—

- (a) by omitting paragraphs (a) and (b) from Section 17,
and substituting the following paragraph:-
“(a) ‘Australia’ or ‘the Commonwealth’ means
the Commonwealth of Australia

No contrary intention, has been shown since, in any “laws of Australia” made by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, to the meaning of their own created “Australia” or “the Commonwealth”, as can be seen in Sections 1A, 2B and 15B of their own corporate Acts Interpretation Act 1901, Compilation 29 Registered 7th March 2016.

Also, its Endnote 4—Amendment history shows that their private Acts Interpretation Amendment Act 2011, No. 46 of 27th June 2011, repealed Section 17, so there are NO “Constitutional and Official definitions” since, in any of the “laws of Australia” made by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies.

The Evidence Act 1973, No. 80 of 19th June 1973,

by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution,
sitting inside their own "Australia" or "the Commonwealth", with their
"Australian Government Gazette" and "Government Printer of Australia"

created for themselves, their own evidence to be presented in Courts with respect to "purported" papers:-

Proof of Gazette

3. Section 8 of the Evidence Act 1905-1964 is repealed and the following section substituted:-

- "8.(1) The mere production of a paper
purporting to be the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette
shall in all Courts be evidence that the paper is the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette
and was published on the day on which it bears date.
" (2) The mere production of a paper
purporting to be the Australian Government Gazette
shall in all Courts be evidence that the paper is the Australian Government Gazette
and was published on the day on which it bears date.".

However, this "law of Australia" had NO Royal Assent, as it omitted the words
"the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty" and
"of the Commonwealth of Australia"

from its unconstitutional enacting manner and form:-

"BE IT ENACTED by the Queen,

by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution,
sitting inside their own "Australia" or "the Commonwealth", with their
"Australian Government Gazette" and "Government Printer of Australia"

created for themselves, their own "Australian Citizens" and their own Oath/Affirmation of Allegiance to a NON-existent "Queen of Australia"

with their numerous amendments to the Citizenship Act 1948-1969
including the repealing of the Second and Third Schedules
and the substituting of new Schedule 2 and Schedule 3 with new Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance, such as in:-

Schedule 2—Oath of Allegiance

" I, A. B. , renouncing all other allegiance, swear by Almighty God that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to
Her Majesty Elizabeth the Second,
Queen of Australia, Her heirs and successors according to law,
and that I will faithfully observe the laws of Australia

The current Australian Citizenship Act 2007, Compilation No. 22, with amendments up to No. 166 of 2015 and Registered on 4 February 2016, i.e. legislation by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, has the same seal as is on the Australian Citizenship Act 1973, and does NOT include the words: “Oath”, “Affirmation”, “Queen”, “Sovereign”, but does include the words: “Pledge”, “Allegiance to Australia” “Australia”, “the Commonwealth”

The words “Australia” and “the Commonwealth” and their “Australian” vernacular use, are the Keys to the deception used by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies.

Research reveals that in the majority of the Constitutions of Political Parties in “Australia”, the objectives include to reform the Australian Constitution and other political institutions, to ensure that they reflect the will of the majority of Australian citizens and the existence of Australia as an independent republic.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, must, at the time of joining or transferring to the branch or sub-branch which has geographical coverage, either be correctly enrolled with the Australian Electoral Commission to vote in a federal election at their stated address or not be so entitled because they are under 18 years of age or not an Australian citizen. The conferral of Australian citizenship is a critical part of encouraging participation by new migrants in the Australian community.

and with their “Australian Citizens” making Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance to a “Queen of Australia”;

was: “To abolish Capital Punishment under the Laws of the Commonwealth and stated at Section 4—Abolition of death penalty

4. A person is not liable to the punishment of death for any offence

“the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty” and
“of the Commonwealth of Australia”
from its unconstitutional enacting manner and form:-
“BE IT ENACTED by the Queen,
the Senate and the House of Representatives of Australia”.

so it was only given assent by a private “Governor-General of Australia”
of the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia”
whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Oxford Dictionary of Law:-

“misprision n. Failure to report an offence. The former crime of misprision of felony has been replaced by the crime of compounding an offence. However the common-law offence of misprision of treason still exists; this occurs if a person knows or reasonably suspects that someone has committed treason but does not inform the proper authorities within a reasonable time. The punishment for this offence is forfeiture by the offender of all his property during his lifetime. ”

Security Legislation Amendment (Terrorism) Act 2002, No. 65 of 5th July 2002

made by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution, sitting inside their own “Australia” or “the Commonwealth”, with their “Australian Government Gazette”, “Government Printer of Australia”, “Land for Australia”, “Australian Citizens” making Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance to a “Queen of Australia”, and with their own private “Governor-General of Australia” using a “Great Seal of Australia”, and their own “Australian Federal Police” and “Australian Courts”, all inside their own “Commonwealth of Australia” to which they gave the status of being a sovereign, independent and federal nation “Australia”,

The Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973,

by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution,
sitting inside their own "Australia" or "the Commonwealth", with their
"Australian Government Gazette" and "Government Printer of Australia"
and with their "Australian Citizens" making Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance to a "Queen of Australia";

was made because the "Government of Australia"

considered it desirable to change the form of the Royal Style and Titles to be used in relation to "Australia" and its Territories, to:-

Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God

Queen of Australia and Her other Realms and Territories,
Head of the Commonwealth;

had NO Royal Assent, with NO enacting manner and form whatsoever, shown in the copy written in text format on the website:-

http://www.austlii.edu.au/au/legis/cth/num_act/rsata1973258/and being a "law of Australia", had NO Royal Assent, as it omitted the words:-

"the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty" and

"of the Commonwealth of Australia"

from its unconstitutional enacting manner and form:-

"BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Queen,

the Senate and the House of Representatives of Australia",

shown in the images and transcripts on the website:-

The "Parliament of Australia" is NOT the same as the Constitutional "Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia" which includes the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Australia.

Therefore, the Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973

was only given assent by a private "Governor-General of Australia"

of the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution.

Governor-General Sir Paul Meernaa Caedwalla Hasluck, published in his Proclamation of 30th April 1969 given under

"my Hand and the Great Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia"

that he was: Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief

in and over the Commonwealth of Australia appointed by Commission dated 1st April 1969 under

Royal Sign Manual and the Royal Great Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia

The Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973

had the same seal as on the Australian Citizenship Act 1973, No. 99 of 17th September 1973, a seal that was registered in 1992 with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) as the "Stylised Arms No. 2 (Solid) US Serial No. 89000533", a seal that is watermarked on current "Australian Dollar" polymer (plastic) notes.

The title created on 19th October 1973 by the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, is for a "Queen of Australia" that has NO United Kingdom and that is NOT a Defender of the Faith.

It is interesting to note that legislation downloaded a few years ago, differs in the printing of the enacting manner and forms as shown in recent digital reprints, particularly with "Parliament of Australia enacts:" being inserted afterwards, with some legislation being extremely difficult to find and download, if at all.

Over the years, in the process of researching in books in university libraries and on the internet from various sources, comparisons can be made which reveal that the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, in their "Australia" or "the Commonwealth", are progressively replacing historical data with edited digital reprints, similar to the predictions in George Orwell's Book "1984".

The people of the Commonwealth of Australia never agreed by any Referendum required under the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, particularly at Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth,
Chapter VIII—Alteration of the Constitution,
Section 128—Mode of altering the Constitution,

to remove our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch,

who, under the Coronation Oath of 2nd June 1953,

is currently the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty:-

Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God
of the United Kingdom, Australia and Her other Realms and Territories
Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith;

and who is, as are Her subjects, inside the Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and Schedule, of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted.

In the Royal Style and Titles Act 1953 (Cth) Act No. 32, given Royal Assent on 3rd April 1953, the Constitutional “Australia” included in the Royal Style and Title, means “the whole of the Commonwealth of Australia” as defined in the:-
Acts Interpretation Act 1901, Act No. 2 given Royal Assent on 12th July 1901

Constitutional and official definitions

17. In any Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

- (a) “The Commonwealth” shall mean the Commonwealth of Australia
- (b) “Australia” includes the whole of the Commonwealth

The unconstitutional and forever changing “Australia” or “the Commonwealth” created under the Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, was in readiness for their “Australian Citizens” and “Queen of Australia” and was in readiness for their future “laws of Australia”.

BY THE QUEEN

A PROCLAMATION

Elizabeth R

An Act of the Parliament of Australia

Royal Style and Titles Act 1973

Our Royal Proclamation

Our Warrant appointed the Great Seal of Australia to be the Seal

under which the said Royal Proclamation shall be issued.

NOW THEREFORE We do hereby appoint and declare that henceforth,

so far as conveniently may be, on all occasions and in all instruments wherein

Our Style and Titles are used in relation to Australia and its Territories, the following Style and Titles shall be used, that is to say:

Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God

Queen of Australia and Her other Realms and Territories,

Head of the Commonwealth.

GIVEN under the Great Seal of Australia

at Our Court at Government House, Canberra, on 19 October 1973.

E. G. WHITLAM Prime Minister

However, the “United Kingdom” and “Defender of the Faith” have been omitted, so how can the “God” above be the same “God” in the Anthem “God save the Queen”, “So Help me God” in Oaths of Allegiance in the Schedule and “Almighty God” in the Preamble of the the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which consists of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule?

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, created for themselves, their own “Australia” or “the Commonwealth” as under their Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, meanings which can change and have changed, depending on the “geographical sense” used when referring to their unconstitutional “Australia” or “the Commonwealth”, such as in the Schedule of the Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973:-

Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God
Queen of Australia and Her other Realms and Territories,
Head of the Commonwealth.

In the Royal Style and Titles Act 1953 (Cth) Act No. 32, given Royal Assent on 3rd April 1953, the Constitutional “Australia” is included in the Royal Style and Title,

Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God
of the United Kingdom, Australia and Her other Realms and Territories
Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith.

The Constitutional “Australia” means
“the whole of the Commonwealth of Australia” as in the:-

Acts Interpretation Act 1901, Act No. 2 given Royal Assent on 12th July 1901

Constitutional and official definitions

17. In any Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

- (a) “The Commonwealth” shall mean the Commonwealth of Australia
- (b) “Australia” includes the whole of the Commonwealth

Under a progressive evolutionary process, the Constitutional Separation of Powers between the Parliament, Executive and Judiciary, NO longer exists in this country, and will be explained more fully further on, as to how the “Australian Government” under its Australia Act 1986, has the status of the “Commonwealth of Australia” as a “sovereign independent federal nation”, and as to the Company named

being registered in Washington D.C. (District of Columbia).

The Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's' Constitution sitting inside their own "Australia" or "the Commonwealth", with their "Australian Government Gazette", "Government Printer of Australia", "Australian Citizens" making Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance to a "Queen of Australia", and with their own private "Governor-General of Australia" using a "Great Seal of Australia" but sitting under false pretences inside the room for the "House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Australia", made the Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973, and created their own "Queen of Australia" as in the Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance created in the Australian Citizenship Act 1973, No. 99 of 17th September 1973, for all "Australian Citizens", which included the private "Governor-General of Australia", Sir Paul Hasluck with a Commission under Royal Sign Manual but NO Signet.

Research was carried out into the seal illustrated below:-

Research Finding No. 1:-

The former Governor-General Ms Quentin Bryce was asked if the seal as shown above was the seal referred to in the Commission given by Queen Elizabeth II to Ms Quentin Bryce, to which an administrative assistant from Government House in Canberra replied that the seal as shown above:-

"is the same seal as the one that is on the Governor-General's Commission"

Research Finding No. 2:-

The Garter King of Arms at the College of Arms in London was asked if the seal as shown above, which has been described as the Great Seal of Australia, is recognized in British law and can be used by the Queen of the United Kingdom, to which The Garter King of Arms of the College of Arms stated:-

*"The devise submitted does not incorporate any Royal Arms.
These are the Armorial Bearings of the Commonwealth of Australia.
Her Majesty is described as Queen of Australia on the seal and not Queen of the United Kingdom."
"I do not have any relevant record in my office."
"There are scores if not hundreds of Letters Patent of Armorial Bearings that have been issued to Australian citizens or Australian corporate bodies of which The Queen is described as Queen of Australia."*

The election held on 2nd December 1972, was the last election in which a person, who was eligible to vote, was able to vote for his/her own representative to sit as an MHR, a Member of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Australia, inside the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia, as constituted under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted.

Refer: <http://whitlamdismissal.com/1974/04/11/hasluck-proclamation-dissolving-parliament.html>

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, sitting inside their own "Australia" or "the Commonwealth", with their

"Australian Government Gazette", "Government Printer of Australia",
"Land for Australia", "Australian Citizens" making Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance to a "Queen of Australia",

had their own private "Governor-General of Australia", Sir Paul Hasluck, dissolve on 11th April 1974 under the "Great Seal of Australia", their "Parliament of Australia", and issue a Writ under a "Great Seal of Australia" for the Double Dissolution Election which was held on 18th May 1974 and which returned Whitlam's Government.

However, a Writ for an Election for Senators and Members of the House of Representatives to sit inside the "Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia" under the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, may only be issued under the "Great Seal of the Commonwealth" by a "Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Commonwealth of Australia"; NOT the "Great Seal of Australia" by a private "Governor-General of Australia" of the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies.

Therefore the people of the Commonwealth of Australia continued to be deceived, as after the Double Dissolution Election held on 18th May 1974, the purportedly elected people made Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance to a "Queen of Australia", sat inside the Parliament building, and under Whitlam's Government made "laws of Australia".

As shown earlier, those people who were elected on 2nd December 1972, deceived the people of the Commonwealth of Australia they were supposed to represent, and instead of enacting "Laws of the Commonwealth", they made "laws of Australia" under an "oligarchy" government, as shown in the lists of "laws of Australia" made by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, under Whitlam's Government in 1973, 1974, 1975:-

From 11th July 1974 to 8th December 1977, Sir John Kerr acted as the private “Governor-General of Australia” of the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, including assenting to their “law of Australia”:-

The Petroleum and Minerals Authority Act 1973, No. 43 of 8th August 1974, made by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution, sitting inside their own “Australia” or “the Commonwealth”, with their “Australian Government Gazette”, “Government Printer of Australia”, “Land for Australia”, “Australian Citizens” making Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance to a “Queen of Australia”, and with their own private “Governor-General of Australia” using a “Great Seal of Australia”

was a “law of Australia” which had NO Royal Assent, as it omitted the words
“the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty” and
“of the Commonwealth of Australia”

from its unconstitutional enacting manner and form:-

“BE IT ENACTED by the Queen,

Justice Gibbs of the High Court “of Australia” said on 30th September 1975 in Victoria v Commonwealth [1975] HCA 39, 30th September 1975:-

“Four States have brought proceedings for a declaration that the Petroleum and Minerals Authority Act 1973 is not a valid law of the Commonwealth. For convenience the Petroleum and Minerals Authority Act 1973 will henceforth be called “the Act”, although to give it that title may appear to beg the question. The proceedings do not require us to decide whether it would be within the power of the Commonwealth to enact a law in the terms of the Act, that may fall to be decided on another occasion. What is contended by the States is that the Act was not passed into law in the manner required by the Constitution. Although the Act commences in what is now the usual form:

it was not in fact so enacted – a proposed law, in the form of the Act, was affirmed by an absolute majority of the total number of the members of the Senate and the House of Representatives at a joint sitting of the members of both Houses, held under the authority of s. 57 of the Constitution. If s. 57 applies to the Act, it will be taken to have been duly passed by both Houses of the Parliament.

However, it is said on behalf of the States that the provisions of s. 57 were not satisfied in relation to the Act, which, not having been duly passed, is not a valid law.”

“35. For the reasons I have given, I would then make a declaration that the Petroleum and Minerals Authority Act 1973 is not a valid law of the Commonwealth of Australia. (at p165)”

On 30th September 1975, in Victoria v Commonwealth [1975] HCA 39, the Justices, were bound to the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, particularly at:-

Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws

5. This Act, and all laws

made by the Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Constitution, shall be binding on the courts, judges, and people of every State and of every part of the Commonwealth, notwithstanding anything in the laws of any State;

but did not admit further that the Petroleum and Minerals Authority Act 1973, was a “law of Australia” and had NO Crown and Constitutional authority; and being paid in the “Australian Currency” in “Australian Dollars”, acted as Justices of the High Court “of Australia”, bound from 1973 to “laws of Australia” created by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, sitting in a Parliament “of Australia” with a “Queen of Australia” and a Senate and House of Representatives “of Australia”.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia” whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

On the subject of “The Common Law and the Protection of Human Rights” in Sydney at a meeting of the Anglo Australasian Lawyers Society on 4th September 2009, the former Chief Justice French of the High Court “of Australia” said:-

“ It provides an opportunity to reflect about the way in which many of the things we think of as basic rights and freedoms come from the common law and how the common law is used to interpret Acts of Parliament and regulations made under them so as to minimise intrusion into those rights and freedoms. We do so against the backdrop of the supremacy of Parliament which can, by using clear words for which it can be held politically accountable, qualify or extinguish those rights and freedoms except to the extent that they may be protected by the Constitution. For, subject to the Constitution, the Commonwealth Parliament can legislate to change the common law just as it can legislate to change its own statute law. ”

Justice Dawson of the High Court “of Australia” said on 12th September 1996, in Kable v Director of Public Prosecutions (NSW) [1996] HCA 24:-

“ Judicial pronouncements confirming the supremacy of parliament are rare but their scarcity is testimony to the complete acceptance by the courts that an Act of Parliament is binding upon them and cannot be questioned by reference to principles of a more fundamental kind. Indeed, it is a principle of the common law itself that a court may not question the validity of a statute but, once having construed it, must give effect to it according to its tenor. There is more academic writing on the subject but it tends to dwell upon the apparent riddle posed by the question whether parliament can relinquish its powers by exercising them in order to do so. The answer to that riddle appears to lie in that area where law and political reality coincide. The same may be said of examples of extreme laws which would offend the fundamental values of our society which are sometimes suggested in disproof of parliamentary supremacy. It may be observed that a legislature wishing to enact a statute ordering that all blue-eyed babies be killed would hardly be perturbed by a principle of law which purported to deny it that power. Whether one speaks as Salmond does of “ultimate legal principles”, or as Kelsen does of a grundnorm, or as Hart does of the “ultimate rule of recognition”, there can be no doubt that parliamentary supremacy is a basic principle of the legal system which has been inherited in this country from the United Kingdom. ”

Justice Dawson of the High Court “of Australia” said on 31st July 1997, in Kruger v Commonwealth (“Stolen Generations case”) [1997] HCA 27

“ In a number of recent cases it has been pointed out that the Australian Constitution, with few exceptions and in contrast with its American model, does not seek to establish personal liberty by placing restrictions upon the exercise of governmental power. Those who framed the Australian Constitution accepted the view that individual rights were on the whole best left to the protection of the common law and the supremacy of parliament. Thus the Constitution deals, almost without exception, with the structure and relationship of government rather than with individual rights. The fetters which are placed upon legislative action are, for the most part, for the purpose of distributing power between the federal government on the one hand and State governments on the other, rather than for the purpose of placing certain matters beyond the reach of any parliament. ”

Refer: <http://www.austlii.edu.au/au/cases/cth/HCA/1997/38.html>

Justice Kirby of the High Court “of Australia” said on 14th August 1997, in Newcrest Mining (WA) Ltd v Commonwealth [1997] HCA 38:-

“ One highly influential international statement on the understanding of universal and fundamental rights is the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. That document is not a treaty to which Australia is a party. Indeed it is not a treaty at all. It is not part of Australia’s domestic law, still less of its Constitution. ”

Justice Kirby of the High Court “of Australia” said on 17th June 1999, in Re Wakim [1999] HCA 27:-

“ A legislature cannot, by preambular assertions, recite itself into constitutional power where none exists. ”

Refer: <http://www.austlii.edu.au/au/cases/cth/HCA/2002/27.html>

Chief Justice Gleeson of the High Court “of Australia” said on 26th June 2002, in Mobil Oil Australia Pty Ltd v Victoria [2002] HCA 27:-

*“ In Laurie v Carroll, Dixon CJ, Williams and Webb JJ quoted the statement of Viscount Haldane that ‘ [t]he root principle of the English law about jurisdiction is that the judges stand in the place of the Sovereign in whose name they administer justice, and that therefore whoever is served with the King’s writ, and can be compelled consequently to submit to the decree made, is a person over whom the Courts have jurisdiction. ’ ”*

Justices of the High Court “of Australia” refer to the “supremacy of parliament” but also refer to the “common law in Australia” and the “common law of Australia” so they are actually enforcing in all of the “Australian Courts”, the “laws of Australia” made by those purported elected Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, who are sitting in the “Parliament of Australia”, and acting as if “Australia” is a “Republican Dictatorship”;

all done without the consent of the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” as established and constituted under the Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted;

and have subtly been explaining that they are NOT operating under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted and are NOT applying the “Common Law of England”.

The Judiciary Act 1903, Act No. 6 given Royal Assent on 25th August 1903, an Act to make provision for the Exercise of the Judicial Power of the Commonwealth states at Part XI—Supplementary Provisions:-

Application of Laws

Common law to govern

80. So far as the laws of the Commonwealth are not applicable or so far as their provisions are insufficient to carry them into effect, or to provide adequate remedies or punishment, the common law of England as modified by the Constitution and by the statute law in force in the State in which the Court in which the jurisdiction is exercised is held shall, so far as it is applicable and not inconsistent with the Constitution and the laws of the Commonwealth, govern all Courts exercising federal jurisdiction in the exercise of their jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters.

On the subject of “The Common Law and the Protection of Human Rights” in Sydney at a meeting of the Anglo Australasian Lawyers Society on 4th September 2009, the current Chief Justice French of the High Court “of Australia” said:-

“ Native title, which was not recognised by the common law of Australia until 1992, is taken not to have been extinguished by legislation unless the legislation reveals a plain and clear intent to have that effect. This presumption applies to legislation which may have predated the decision in Mabo (No 2) by many decades and in some cases by more than 100 years. ”

On the subject of "The Judicial Function in an Age of Statutes", at the 2011 Goldring Memorial Lecture in Wollongong on 18th November 2011, the former Chief Justice French of the High Court "of Australia" said:-

"As with the common law,
there are statutes in which broad terms are used
which are capable of application to a wide range of fact situations.
Where that is so,
it means that Parliament has left the courts to work out the appropriate application of the statute on a case-by-case basis.
A new kind of common law evolves derived from many decisions applying the same broad statutory language. "

"Common Law Aboriginal Title" "Common Law Native Title".

In the Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, the phrase "Common Law of Australia" does NOT appear at all, but the phrase "Common Law of England" does appear frequently.

The following Extracts are from Quick and Garran's Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, with respect to the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, particularly at:- Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, Chapter III—The Judicature, Judicial Power and Courts,

The Judicature.
Judicial Power and Courts.

71. The judicial power²⁸⁶ of the Commonwealth shall be vested²⁸⁷ in a Federal Supreme Court, to be called the High Court of Australia²⁸⁸, and in such other federal courts as the Parliament creates²⁸⁹, and in such other courts as it invests with federal jurisdiction²⁹⁰. The High Court shall consist of a Chief Justice, and so many other Justices²⁹¹, not less than two, as the Parliament prescribes.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia" whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Extracts continued from Quick and Garran's
Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia:-

" SEPARATION OF POWERS.—The judicial power is the power appropriate to the third great department of government, and is distinct from both the legislative and the executive powers. The judicial function is that of hearing and determining questions which arise as to the interpretation of the law, and its application to particular cases. "The distinction between the departments undoubtedly is, that the legislature makes, the executive executes, and the judiciary construes, the law."

¶ 287. "Shall be Vested."

" MANDATORY WORDS.—These words are imperative, at least so far as the High Court is concerned; and are mandatory on the Parliament to carry the vesting into effect by prescribing the number of Justices of which the Court is to consist, to fix their salaries, and to make provision for their appointment."

¶ 288. "The High Court of Australia."

" The High Court is the crown and apex, not only of the judicial system of the Commonwealth, but of the judicial systems of the States as well. It is in the first place a court of original jurisdiction in certain enumerated matters of specially federal concern (sec. 75), and this jurisdiction may be extended by federal legislation to cover certain other enumerated matters of specially federal concern (sec. 76). In the next place, it is a court of appeal from federal courts and courts exercising federal jurisdiction (sec. 73); and this appellate power is of course confined within the same limits as the original jurisdiction in respect of which it exists—that is to say, within the matters enumerated in secs. 75 and 76. But in the third place, the High Court is a court of appeal from all decisions of the Supreme Courts of the States, utterly irrespective of the subject-matter of the suit or the character of the parties."

" GUARDIAN OF THE CONSTITUTIONS.—The High Court, like the Supreme Court of the United States, is the "guardian of the Federal Constitution"; that is to say, it has the duty of interpreting the Constitution, in cases which come before it, and of preventing its violation. But the High Court is also—unlike the Supreme Court of the United States—the guardian of the Constitutions of the several States; it is as much concerned to prevent encroachments by the Federal Government upon the domain of the States as to prevent encroachments by the State Governments upon the domain of the Federal Government. (See Notes on "Interpretation," ¶ 330, infra.)"

" These words impliedly give the Federal Parliament a power to create other federal courts besides the High Court. The words, however, are not mandatory, as in the case of the High Court; they leave it to the Parliament to decide whether any other federal courts are necessary."

Extracts continued from Quick and Garran's

¶ 330. "Its Interpretation."

" This sub-section empowers the Federal Parliament to give the High Court original jurisdiction in any matter arising under this Constitution, or involving its interpretation. But apart altogether from this sub-section, both State and Federal Courts have the duty of interpreting the Constitution, which is the supreme law of the Commonwealth, in every case in which they have jurisdiction and in which rights or obligations arising under the Constitution are involved; and the High Court, as the general appellate tribunal, has the duty of reviewing the interpretations of State Courts. It is necessary to discuss the questions (1) who are the interpreters of the Constitution? (2) what are the leading principles on which its interpretation should be based?"

" THE INTERPRETERS OF THE CONSTITUTION.—The Constitution, like every other law, is directly binding on every individual and every governmental agency within the Commonwealth. Every person, every officer, every political organ, has the duty of complying with its provisions and must in the exercise of that duty interpret its provisions, in the first instance, to the best of his ability and on his own responsibility. Every citizen is entitled to the protection of the Constitution and is bound not to infringe it; every officer and department of every Government—State or Federal—has similar rights and obligations; and the Federal Parliament and the State Parliaments alike are bound not to exceed the authority conferred or reserved by the Constitution. But the provisions of the Constitution may, wittingly or unwittingly, be transgressed; rights arising under it may be denied; obligations may be evaded. Every person under these circumstances has recourse to the appropriate courts to defend his own rights and to enforce the obligations of others; and thus, without any express provision, the courts of the States, and the Federal Courts, whenever they have jurisdiction over a case, have the duty of interpreting the Constitution so far as it affects the rights of the parties. From the Supreme Courts of the States, as well as from inferior federal courts, an appeal lies to the High Court, whose decisions are "final and conclusive," unless special leave to appeal to the Privy Council is obtained either from the Privy Council or from the High Court itself, as the case may be. It may therefore be said that every court of competent jurisdiction is an interpreter of the Constitution; and that the High Court — subject to exceptional review by the Privy Council—is the authoritative and final interpreter of the Constitution."

" In the exercise of the duty of interpretation and adjudication not only the High Court, but every court of competent jurisdiction, has the right to declare that a law of the Commonwealth or of a State is void by reason of transgressing the Constitution. This is a duty cast upon the courts by the very nature of the judicial function."

" The Federal Parliament and the State Parliaments are not sovereign bodies; they are legislatures with limited powers, and any law which they attempt to pass in excess of those powers is no law at all it is simply a nullity, entitled to no obedience."

Extracts continued from Quick and Garran's
Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia:-

¶ 341. "Any Offence Against any Law of the Commonwealth."

"ANY LAW OF THE COMMONWEALTH.—The phrase "any law of the Commonwealth" includes, in the first place, the Constitution itself; which is not only a law of the Commonwealth, but in a sense, and with the reservation of the supremacy of the British Parliament, may be called the supreme law of the Commonwealth. It includes, in the next place, the laws of the Federal Parliament; which, together with the Constitution, are "binding on the courts, judges, and people of every State, and of every part of the Commonwealth." (Constitution Act, clause v.)"

The Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, includes:-

Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws

5. This Act, and all laws made by the Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Constitution, shall be binding on the courts, judges, and people of every State and of every part of the Commonwealth, notwithstanding anything in the laws of any State;

in which Section 39 gave power to a "Governor-General of Australia" to make regulations relating to matters of "Australian property" as defined at a new Section 39(8) which states:-

'Australian currency' includes notes, coins, postal notes, money orders, bills of exchange, promissory notes, drafts, letters of credit and travellers' cheques payable or expressed in Australian money, and also includes rights, and instruments of title, to Australian money;

'Australian securities' means securities or other property included in a class of securities or property specified in the regulations as Australian securities;

'property' includes securities and rights under securities;

'resident' means—

- (a) a person, not being a body corporate, who is ordinarily resident in Australia; and
- (b) a body corporate which is incorporated in Australia;

'securities' include shares, stock, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, treasury bills and notes, and units or sub-units of a unit trust, and also includes deposit receipts in respect of the deposit of securities and documents of title to securities.

and stated a new Section 39(9) was to be inserted before Part IV—Gold:- Nothing in Part IV shall be taken as limiting the power of the Governor-General to make regulations under this section for or in relation to the control or prohibition of the importation or exportation of gold, or otherwise with respect to gold.

The Parliament Act 1974, No. 165 of 17th December 1974, by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution, sitting inside their own "Australia" or "the Commonwealth", with their "Australian Government Gazette", "Government Printer of Australia", "Land for Australia", "Australian Citizens" making Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance to a "Queen of Australia", and with their own private "Governor-General of Australia" using a "Great Seal of Australia"

"the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty" and
"of the Commonwealth of Australia"
from its unconstitutional enacting manner and form:-
"BE IT ENACTED by the Queen,

therefore was only given assent by a private "Governor-General of Australia" of the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia”
whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

The Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which consists of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, prescribes at Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth,

Chapter III—The Judicature,

Section 74—Appeal to Queen in Council

74. No appeal shall be permitted to the Queen in Council from a decision of the High Court upon any question, howsoever arising, as to the limits inter se of the Constitutional powers of the Commonwealth and those of any State or States, or as to the limits inter se of the Constitutional powers of any two or more States, unless the High Court shall certify that the question is one which ought to be determined by Her Majesty in Council.

The High Court may so certify if satisfied that for any special reason the certificate should be granted, and thereupon an appeal shall lie to Her Majesty in Council on the question without further leave.

Except as provided in this section, this Constitution shall not impair any right which the Queen may be pleased to exercise by virtue of Her Royal prerogative to grant special leave of appeal from the High Court to Her Majesty in Council. The Parliament may make laws limiting the matters in which such leave may be asked, but proposed laws containing any such limitation shall be reserved by the Governor-General for Her Majesty's pleasure.

However, on the website: <https://www.legislation.gov.au/Details/C2005Q00193> of the “Federal Register of Legislation” of the “Australian Government”, “The Constitution” as printed on 1st January 2012 shows:-

regarding superscript notation ¹⁷ in Section 74—Appeal to Queen in Council, i.e. “The Parliament may make laws limiting the matters in which such leave may be asked ¹⁷ ”

Notes show:-

17. Section 74 – See Privy Council (Limitation of Appeals) Act 1968, Privy Council (Appeals from the High Court) Act 1975 and Kirmani v Captain Cook Cruises Pty Ltd (No. 2); Ex parte Attorney-General (QLD) (1985) 159 CLR 451.

Privy Council (Appeals from the High Court) Act 1975, No.33 of 30th April 1975, a “law of Australia” made by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, was with respect to a “Privy Council” consisting of a “Queen of Australia”, and NOT to our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch as referred to in the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, at Section 74—Appeal to Queen in Council.

On 17th April, in Kirmani v Captain Cook Cruises Pty Ltd (No 2) [1985] HCA 27, Gibbs C.J., Mason, Wilson, Brennan, Deane and Dawson JJ. of the High Court “of Australia”, discussed the:-

Privy Council (Limitation of Appeals) Act 1968

Privy Council (Appeals from the High Court) Act 1975

The Constitution, Section 74

“ This Court's power to grant a certificate under s.74 of the Constitution is the vestigial remnant of the hierarchical connection which formerly existed between Australian courts exercising federal jurisdiction and the Privy Council. ”

“ With the subsequent enactment of the Privy Council (Appeals from the High Court) Act 1975 (Cth) the hierarchical relationship between this Court and the Judicial Committee has effectively disappeared. ”

“ Although the jurisdiction to grant a certificate stands in the Constitution, such limited purpose as it had has long since been spent. The march of events and the legislative changes that have been effected - to say nothing of national sentiment - have made the jurisdiction obsolete. ”

How can the Justices of the High Court “of Australia” state that the jurisdiction under Section 74—Appeal to Queen in Council, is long since spent and obsolete and that the relationship between their Court and the Privy Council in the United Kingdom has effectively disappeared, when the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act [63 & 64 Vict.] [Ch. 12], still exists in the United Kingdom Legislation, and confirms that the people agreed to unite in one indissoluble Federal Commonwealth under the Crown of the United Kingdom and under the Constitution thereby established?

“Australian” Parliaments, Governments and Courts, DO NOT operate according to the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, particularly at:-

Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws

5. This Act, and all laws

made by the Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Constitution, shall be binding on the courts, judges, and people of every State and of every part of the Commonwealth, notwithstanding anything in the laws of any State.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia” whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

From 11th July 1974 to 8th December 1977, Sir John Kerr acted as the private "Governor-General of Australia" of the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, including reserving on 13th March 1975 for Her Majesty's Pleasure, the Privy Council (Appeals from the High Court) Bill 1975 which was to limit further the matters in which Special Leave of Appeal from the High Court "of Australia" to Her Majesty in Council may be asked, and he would have made that reservation in full knowledge that the "Laws of the Commonwealth" are

NOT to be enacted by: the Queen
the Senate and the House of Representatives of Australia.

Therefore Governor-General Sir John Kerr deceived our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and Her subjects, by acting contra to the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, particularly at:-

Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws

5. This Act, and all laws
made by the Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Constitution,
shall be binding on the courts, judges, and people
of every State and of every part of the Commonwealth,
notwithstanding anything in the laws of any State

As mentioned previously, after the 2nd December 1972 Election, the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, with their Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, defined words such as “Australia” and “the Commonwealth”, and with the “Australian” vernacular use in their “Australian” system of government and all of their “laws of Australia”:

removed themselves, their entities and their “laws of Australia” outside of the:-

“Laws of Commonwealth”

enacted inside “The Commonwealth” and Constitutional “Australia” as in Section 17—Constitutional and official definitions

Acts Interpretation Act 1901, Act No. 2, Royal Assent 12th July 1901; Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901,

as Proclaimed and Gazetted,

consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule;

which includes its Preamble,

Part 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws

This Act, and all laws

made by the Parliame

shall be binding on the courts, judges, and people
of every State and of every part of the Commonwealth,
notwithstanding anything in the laws of any State.

and removed Crown and Constitutional authority from “Australia” judges and courts.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia" whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

At this point, it must be pointed out again, that Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, made purported "laws of Australia" which had NO Crown and Constitutional authority, were NOT "Laws of the Commonwealth", and were NOT made under the Constitutional enacting manner and form of:-

BE IT ENACTED by
the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty
the Senate and the House of Representatives
of the Commonwealth of Australia

purported "laws of Australia"

which were NOT made under the Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, and particularly NOT made under Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws

5. This Act, and all laws made by the Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Constitution, shall be binding on the courts, judges, and people of every State and of every part of the Commonwealth, notwithstanding anything in the laws of any State

which included, but are not limited to, the following in 1973, 1974 and 1975:-

purported "laws of Australia", some retrospectively like No. 20 of 25th July 1974, with Sir Paul Hasluck, Governor-General from 30th April 1969 to 11th July 1974 and Sir John Kerr, Governor-General from 11th July 1974 to 8th December 1977.

After receiving legal advice on 10th November 1975 from Sir Garfield Barwick, who was "Chief Justice of Australia" and of the High Court "of Australia", the private "Governor-General of Australia", Sir John Kerr, on 11th November 1975, dismissed Prime Minister Whitlam and on the same day, by Proclamation under the "Great Seal of Australia", dissolved both Houses of the "Parliament of Australia", resulting in a Double Dissolution Election held on 13th December 1975, as evidenced in the "National Archives of Australia" of the "Australian Government" and in the "Museum of Australian Democracy" occupying the "Old Parliament House".

The website

<http://whitlamdismissal.com/1975/11/17/letter-from-queens-private-secretary.html> displays that, following "Whitlam's Dismissal",

Mr Gordon Scholes, Speaker of the House of Representatives "of Australia", wrote to the Queen on 12th November 1975, expressing concern about the Governor-General's actions, and that the Queen's Private Secretary forwarded a response, extracts from which included:-

*" I am commanded by The Queen to acknowledge your letter of 12th November about the recent political events in Australia.
You ask that The Queen should act to restore Mr. Whitlam to office as Prime Minister.
As we understand the situation here,
the Australian Constitution firmly places the prerogative powers of the Crown in the hands of the Governor-General as the representative of the Queen of Australia.
The only person competent to commission an Australian Prime Minister is the Governor-General, and The Queen has no part in the decisions which the Governor-General must take in accordance with the Constitution.
I understand that you have been good enough to send a copy of your letter to the Governor-General so I am writing to His Excellency to say that the text of your letter has been received here in London and has been laid before The Queen.
I am sending a copy of this letter to the Governor-General. "*

confirming that a "Queen of Australia" has absolutely no prerogative powers of the Crown of the United Kingdom, in "Australia" or "the Commonwealth" as defined in the Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, created by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia" whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Sir John Kerr, as a private “Governor-General of Australia”, a position as created by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, issued, under a “Great Seal of Australia”, a Writ for the Double Dissolution Election held on 13th December 1975 which resulted in the Fraser’s Coalition Government, consisting of Members of Political Parties with different Constitutions and policies to Whitlam’s Government, but continuing under an “Australian” system of government, to make purported “laws of Australia”, with a private “Governor-General of Australia” using a “Great Seal of Australia”, and under a “Queen of Australia”, and introducing the new but still unconstitutional enacting manner and form of:-

“ BE IT ENACTED by the Queen,
the Senate and the House of Representatives
of the Commonwealth of Australia ”

which still omitted the words “the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty” and included the words “the Commonwealth” and “Australia” as were unconstitutionally defined in the Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, thereby still deceiving the people of the Commonwealth of Australia by having purported elected people sitting in a “Parliament of Australia” making further purported “laws of Australia”, such as:-

The Federal Court of Australia Act 1976, No. 156 of 9th December 1976, by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution,
sitting inside their own “Australia” or “the Commonwealth”, with their “Land for Australia”, “Australian Citizens” making Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance to a “Queen of Australia”, and with their own private “Governor-General of Australia” using a “Great Seal of Australia”

was made: to create a Federal Court “of Australia” and to make provision with respect to the Jurisdiction of that Court.

However, this “law of Australia” had NO Royal Assent, as it omitted the words
“the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty” from the unconstitutional enacting manner and form of Fraser’s Coalition Government “ BE IT ENACTED by the Queen,

the Senate and the House of Representatives
of the Commonwealth of Australia ”

which included the words “the Commonwealth” “Australia” unconstitutionally defined in the Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, therefore was only given assent by a private “Governor-General of Australia” of the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution.

The Hansard of the House of Representatives of the “Parliament of Australia”, on 27th October 1977 from Page 2476, shows that Prime Minister Malcolm Fraser informed the House that on behalf of the Government, he recommended to Governor-General Sir John Kerr, that the House of Representatives be dissolved on 10 November 1977 and that a general election be held on 10th December 1977 for a general election for the members of the House of Representatives, and at the same time, for half of the Senate, a recommendation which was accepted by Sir John Kerr, “Governor-General of Australia” from 11th July 1974 to 8th December 1977.

The 10th December 1977 election for the half-Senate and House of Representatives, resulted in the return of Fraser's Coalition Government, consisting of Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, continuing deceiving the people of the Commonwealth of Australia, by having purported elected people sitting in a “Parliament of Australia”, continuing under an “Australian” system of government to make purported “laws of Australia” under a “Queen of Australia” and their private “Governor-General” using a “Great Seal of Australia”;

purported “laws of Australia” which had NO Royal Assent, as they omitted the words
“the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty” from the

NO Referendum of the people of Queensland and of the Commonwealth of Australia as established under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and Schedule, has ever been held, to remove from the people and to remove from this country, our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch, Defender of the Faith and the Supreme Governor of the Church of England, NOR to rename the Church of England.

The website <http://www.anglican.org.au/Pages/welcome.aspx> of the General Synod of the Anglican Church of Australia, states:-

that when its existing Constitution came into force in 1962, it contained the provisions for a change of name (Sections 66 and 67);

in 1966, the 2nd General Synod passed Canon 16 which provided for a change of name in stages, namely:-

1. the required number of dioceses had to give their assent to the change to the Constitution; and
2. following this, the various Acts of Parliament in the "Territories under the control of the Commonwealth of Australia" were required to be amended.
3. following this, the Primate, would declare a date for the Canon to come into effect;

it took all the necessary state and federal parliaments fifteen years to pass the required legislative amendments and the church has been known by this name since 24th August 1981.

In Queensland, the Anglican Church of Australia 1977, [No. ??] of 5th April 1977, was "to change to "Anglican Church of Australia"

the name of the Church of England in Australia", but: was NOT allocated an enactment number and did NOT commence until 24th August 1981.

The Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, is an Act whereby the people of New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia, Queensland, Tasmania, and Western Australia, are united in an indissoluble Federal Commonwealth under the Crown of the United Kingdom, and as thereby established, under the Constitution and under the name of the Commonwealth of Australia from 1st January 1901.

The Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, prescribes that the Preamble and Clauses 1 to 8 may NOT be altered, whereas the provisions in Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth may be altered but only as according to Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth, particularly Chapter VIII—Alteration of the Constitution,
Section 128—Mode of altering the Constitution.

However, after the Federal Election held on 2nd December 1972, those persons who were elected to sit inside the "Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia" as representatives of the people of the Commonwealth of Australia; deceived our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and Her subjects, by acting as Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies.

With NO Crown and Constitutional authority, those persons, under a progressive evolutionary process, created their own private "Parliament of Australia" and their own "Australian" system of government and used "Australian" vernacular to change "Laws of the Commonwealth", and to convert them to "laws of Australia" with their own private "Governor-General" using a "Great Seal of Australia".

In the majority of the Constitutions of Political Parties in "Australia", the objectives include to reform the Australian Constitution towards the existence of Australia as an independent republic.

In the Referendum held on 6th November 1999, the people said NO to a Republic, therefore we, the people, are still to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia" whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, with their objectives including to reform the Australian Constitution towards the existence of Australia as an independent republic; resulted in certain of their members sitting inside their own "Parliament of Australia", with their own:-

"Australia" or "the Commonwealth",
"Australian Government Gazette", "Government Printer of Australia",
"Land for Australia", "Australian Citizens" making Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance to a "Queen of Australia",

and along with their own private

“on the taking of certain measures to bring constitutional arrangements affecting the Commonwealth and the States into conformity with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia as a sovereign, independent and federal nation”.

when used in a geographical sense, does not include an external Territory” which are meanings made by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, by amending the Acts Interpretation Act 1901-1966 to create their own unconstitutional “Australia” or “the Commonwealth”.

- (b) “Australia” includes the whole of the Commonwealth

The words “Prime Minister” and “Premier” DO NOT APPEAR anywhere in the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, nor Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No. 38] as amended to 5th April 1977.

However, under Bob Hawke's Labor Government, with Sir Ninian Stephen as a private “Governor-General”, used the Letters Patent of 21st August 1984 to revoke the “Letters Patent constituting the office of Governor-General, 29th October 1900”, under which the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, Queen Victoria, had appointed a Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief for the Commonwealth of Australia, appointed by Commission under Her Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet.

Extracts from the show that the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, Queen Victoria, appointed a Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief for the Commonwealth of Australia by Commission under Her Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet; made effectual and permanent provision for that office, without new Letters Patent having to be made on each demise of our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch, and according to such Instructions as may from time to time be given to him under Her or His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet; and reserved to Her Majesty and Her Majesty's heirs and successors, full power and authority from time to time, to revoke, alter, or amend these Letters Patent, and that these Letters Patent are to be made Patent.

Throughout the Letters Patent of 21st August 1984,

any reference to "the Commonwealth" of "Australia"

is to an unconstitutional "Australia" or "the Commonwealth" created by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution, with their Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973

" 'Australia' or 'the Commonwealth' means:-

the Commonwealth of Australia and,

when used in a geographical sense,

does not include an external Territory,

NOT to the Constitutional "Australia" and "The Commonwealth" in the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, Act No. 2, Royal Assent on 12th July 1901:-

Constitutional and official definitions

17. In any Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

(a) "The Commonwealth" shall mean the Commonwealth of Australia

(b) "Australia" includes the whole of the Commonwealth

NOT the same as "the Commonwealth of Australia" as established under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule.

any reference to "the Queen"

is to an unconstitutional "Queen of Australia" created by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution, with Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance and/or of Office created under their Australian Citizenship Act 1973, No. 99 of 17th September 1973

and is to an unconstitutional "Queen of Australia" created by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution, with Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973

because the "Government of Australia" considered it desirable to change the form of the Royal Style and Titles to be used in relation to "Australia" and its Territories, to:-

Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God

Queen of Australia and Her other Realms and Territories,
Head of the Commonwealth,

NOT the same as our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch,

the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty,

Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God

of the United Kingdom, Australia and Her other Realms and Territories

Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith.

as under the

Throughout the Letters Patent of 21st August 1984, any reference to "Constitution" would no doubt be to any Constitution belonging to the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, which leading up to and including 21st August 1984, would have been that of the Australian Labor Party under Prime Minister "Bob" Hawke NOT to Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule.

there is NO reference to any "Act", therefore NO reference to Clause 1 of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule

Clause 1—Short title

This Act may be cited as

the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act

and therefore NO reference to the Constitutional and official definitions in the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, Act No. 2 given Royal Assent on 12th July 1901

17. In any Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

(d) "The Constitution Act" shall mean

The Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act

In the Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, [<http://adc.library.usyd.edu.au/data-2/fed0014.pdf>], it is stated that:-

¶ 32. "This Act."

"*The expression "This Act" occurs in Clauses 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 8. The Act

“ Notes to the Letters Patent Relating to the Office of Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia
Published in the Commonwealth of Australia Special Gazette S334, 24 August 1984 ”

The word “Constitution” referred to in the Letters Patent of 21st August 1984, is of:-

“Australia” or “the Commonwealth”,
created by the Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973;

a “sovereign independent federal nation”,
created by the “Australia Acts” from 3rd March 1986;

COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA CIK#: 0000805157
registered in Washington D.C. (District of Columbia);

and is “Australia’s Constitution” as in force and published in booklet format from May 1995;

and is the “Australian Constitution” and “The Constitution”, as in force and published on the Federal Register of Legislation (latest version—dated 1st January 2012 [150 pages]:- <https://www.legislation.gov.au/Details/C2005Q00193>) (with previous versions as in force and published on 1st July 1999 [124 pages] and on 1st June 2003 [122 pages], but no longer available on the Federal Register of Legislation);

but is NOT of:-

“the Commonwealth of Australia”
as established and constituted on 1st January 1901,
under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901,
as Proclaimed and Gazetted,
consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule;

and is NOT the same as:-

Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia
under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901,
as Proclaimed and Gazetted,
consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule,

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, to reform the “Australian Constitution” towards the existence of “Australia” as an “independent republic”, deceived the people of the Commonwealth of Australia; had those of their members who were purportedly elected into the Parliament use words in the “Australian” vernacular to make changes to “Laws of the Commonwealth” then convert them to “laws of Australia” under an “oligarchy” government; changes such as totally changing the meanings of Constitutional and Official Definitions; changing our lawful access to our current Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch; changing the Separation of Powers under the Westminster system of government; etc., all without Referendums required under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted; therefore deceived our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch as well as us, Her subjects.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia”
whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.
(Page 116 of 442)

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, deceived the people of the Commonwealth of Australia by creating for themselves:-

their own definitions for "Australia" of "the Commonwealth" under their Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973;

their own Statutory Instrument named "Queen of Australia" under their Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973;

their own "Australian Citizens" under their Australian Citizenship Act 1973, No. 99 of 17th September 1973; making Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance to a "Queen of Australia";

their own "Land for Australia" under their Lands Acquisition Act 1973, No. 208 of 19th December 1973;

their own "entities", including their own private "Governor-General of Australia" using a "Great Seal of Australia", all receiving "Australian currency" from 1966 in "Australian Dollars", (as well as the Governors in all States receiving same);

in addition to, but not limited to, creating for themselves their own:-

1984 Letters Patent of 21st August 1984 and the

Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985,

Australia Act 1986

From Conferences on 24th June 1982, 25th June 1982, and 21st June 1984, in addition to the unconstitutional Letters Patent of 21st August 1984 created by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies,

“Australia’s” Prime Minister “Bob” Hawke and his counterpart Premiers in the States, agreed to have their respective “Australian Parliaments” draft legislation

“on the taking of certain measures
to bring constitutional arrangements
affecting the Commonwealth and the States
into conformity with
the status of the Commonwealth of Australia
as a sovereign, independent and federal nation”.

Oxford Dictionary:-

“conformity n. compliance with conventions, rules or laws ”
“status n. the official classification given to a person, country, etc. ”

resulting first of all in the making of an Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985,
in each of the six States,

“to enable the constitutional arrangements
affecting the Commonwealth and the States
to be brought into conformity with
the status of the Commonwealth of Australia
as a sovereign, independent and federal nation”

However, an Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985 in each of the six States, did NOT have the consent of the people in any “State of the Commonwealth of Australia” as established under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted; and could NOT have been given Royal Assent by any Governor of “a State” “of the Commonwealth of Australia”, because from 1966, each Governor of “a State”, did NOT receive in Pounds, the legal tender “of the Commonwealth of Australia” as established and constituted on 1st January 1901.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia” whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, acting as a Prime Minister "of Australia" and Premiers in the States "of Australia", agreed at Conferences on 24th June 1982, 25th June 1982, and 21st June 1984,

“on the taking of certain measures to bring constitutional arrangements
affecting the Commonwealth and the States
into conformity
with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia
as a sovereign, independent and federal nation”,

and consequently took certain measures to have those Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, who were purportedly elected into each of the Parliaments of the States, to make constitutional arrangements to have laws "of the State" conform to the constitutions of the Political Parties, including to reform the Australian Constitution and the Constitutions of the States, towards the existence of Australia as an independent republic.

Oxford Dictionary:-

- “conformity n. compliance with conventions, rules or laws ”
- “status n. the official classification given to a person, country, etc. ”
- “constitutional adj. relating to or in accordance with a constitution ”
- “arrangement n. a plan for a future event ”
- “sovereign adj. possessing supreme or ultimate power ”
- “independent adj. free from outside control; not subject to another's authority ”

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, under a systematic progressive evolution after the Elections in December 1972, and sitting inside their own created “Australia” or “the Commonwealth”, created their own “Australian Government Gazette”, “Government Printer of Australia”, “Land for Australia”, “Australian Citizens” making Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance to a “Queen of Australia”, and with their own private “Governor-General of Australia” using a “Great Seal of Australia”, and with their “Federal Court of Australia”, “Australian Federal Police”, “High Court of Australia”, “Letters Patent of 21st August 1984”, and receiving from 1966 “Australian currency” in “Australian Dollars”, (as well as the Governors in all States receiving same);

deceived our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and Her subjects, with creations contra to the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule;

and deceived our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and Her subjects with their constitutional arrangements to have each of the States conform to the “laws of Australia”, contra to the Constitutions of each State, i.e. each being “a State” “of the Commonwealth of Australia” as established on 1st January 1901, and with their constitutional arrangements to particularly have Queensland conform, with their Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985 No. 69 of 16th October 1985, and Letters Patent of 14th February 1986, Proclaimed and Gazetted 6th and 8th March 1986, contra to Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No. 38] as amended to 5th April 1977.

When detailed comparisons are made between the “Australia Acts”:-

the Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985, in each of the six States
the Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985 of “Australia” and its
Australia (Request and Consent) Act 1985, No. 143 of 4th December 1985
and the UK Australia Act 1986 (UK) [1986 Ch. 2] of 17th February 1986

many differences between them can be seen, as well as 17 Provisions which are contra to the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, and contra to Queensland’s Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977.

First of all, the words “Prime Minister” and “Premier” DO NOT APPEAR in the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, nor in Queensland’s Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977;

so our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and Her subjects, the people of the Commonwealth of Australia, have been deceived

by a Prime Minister and six Premiers who did not have the Crown and Constitutional authority on 24th June 1982, 25th June 1982, and 21st June 1984, to agree:-

“on the taking of certain measures
to bring constitutional arrangements
affecting the Commonwealth and the States
into conformity with
the status of the Commonwealth of Australia
as a sovereign, independent and federal nation”

culminating with the commencement on 3rd March 1986, of the Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985, creating for the Members of Political Parties,

each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies,
their own “sovereign, independent and federal nation”.

Note: Oxford Dictionary:-

“conformity n. compliance with conventions, rules or laws ”
“status n. the official classification given to a person, country, etc.”

Secondly, detailed comparisons made between:-

the Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985, in each of the six States
the Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985 of “Australia” and its

tend to confuse any reader, as there are so many Schedules referred to, especially as there are even Schedules within Schedules.

Even though the Australia Act 1986 (UK) [1986 Ch. 2] of 17th February 1986 is more straightforward with Arrangement of Sections, Preamble and 17 Provisions, it too is contra to the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, and contra to Queensland’s Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia” whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Britain converted to decimal currency on 15th February 1971, joined the European Economic Market (EEC) on 1st January 1973, and without going into too much detail into British History, it appears that in Britain, the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, created unwritten separation between the Commonwealth of Nations, eventually culminating with the severing of constitutional ties between "Australia" and the "United Kingdom" with their written Australia Act 1986 (UK) [1986 Ch. 2] of 17th February 1986.

The Australia Act 1986 (UK) [1986 Ch. 2] of 17th February 1986, was

"to give effect to a request
by the Parliament and Government of the Commonwealth of Australia"

is sealed with the purported Royal Coat of Arms of the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II:-

and lists the following 17 Provisions at its Arrangement of Sections:-

1. Termination of power of Parliament of United Kingdom to legislate for Australia.
2. Legislative powers of Parliaments of States.
3. Termination of restrictions on legislative powers of Parliaments of States.
4. Powers of State Parliaments in relation to merchant shipping.
5. Commonwealth Constitution, Constitution Act and Statute of Westminster not affected.
6. Manner and form of making certain State laws.
7. Powers and functions of her Majesty and Governors in respect of States.
8. State laws not subject to disallowance or suspension of operation.
9. State laws not subject to withholding of assent or reservation.
10. Termination of responsibility of United Kingdom Government in relation to State matters.
11. Termination of appeals to Her Majesty in Council.
12. Amendment of Statute of Westminster.
13. Amendment of Constitution Act of Queensland.
14. Amendment of Constitution Act of Western Australia.
15. Method of repeal or amendment of the Act or Statute of Westminster.
16. Interpretation.
17. Citation and commencement.

Although the Australia Act 1986 (UK) [1986 Ch. 2] of 17th February 1986, was

“to give effect to a request”

by the Parliament and Government of the Commonwealth of Australia”, it must be remembered that the above-mentioned “request” was actually NOT made by any Parliament and Government “of the Commonwealth of Australia” established under the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia” under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule;

but was made by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, sitting inside their own, but unconstitutional, “Australia” or “the Commonwealth” as created under their own Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, which particularly amended Section 17—Constitutional and official definitions, Acts Interpretation Act 1901-1966, and a “request” which was made under legislation purportedly given Royal Assent, which could not be so, as Governors and Governor-Generals received from 1966, “Australian currency” in “Australian Dollars”, NOT in pounds which is the legal tender “of the Commonwealth of Australia” as established and constituted 1st January 1901

The Australia Act 1986 (UK) [1986 Ch. 2] of 17th February 1986, refers in its Preamble, to “the concurrence of the States of Australia”

However, the States of “Australia” — are NOT the same as the Constitutional “States of the Commonwealth of Australia” that were established under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, with a Governor-General to be paid in Pounds as prescribed at Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth, Chapter I—The Parliament, Part I—General, Section 3—Salary of Governor-General

There are 17 Provisions within the:-

Our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and the people, Her subjects, who are inside the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule; and are inside Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977, have been deceived; as has Her Majesty's Parliament of the United Kingdom; by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, sitting in Parliaments of "Australia" and of "States of Australia", having created their own private definitions of "Australia" and "the Commonwealth" (Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973); their own "Australian Citizens" with no status as a British subject, to make an Oath/Affirmation of Allegiance to a NON-existent "Queen of Australia" (Australian Citizenship Act 1973, No. 99 of 17th September 1973); their own private "Queen of Australia", a Statutory Instrument (Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973); had assent given from their own private "Governor-General" and "Governors" ("Letters Patent of 21st August 1984", "Letters Patent of 14th February 1986"); requested that consent be given to their private 17 Provisions contained in the Australia (Request and Consent) Act 1985, No. 143 of 4th December 1985; then when the consent was purportedly given with the Australia Act 1986 (UK) [1986 Ch. 2] of 17th February 1986; made their own Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985 of "Australia", with differences, insertions and omissions different to the consented definitions. This resulted directly from 24th June 1982, 25th June 1982, and 21st June 1984 Conferences held in Canberra, at which a Prime Minister and Premiers agreed:- "on the taking of certain measures to bring constitutional arrangements affecting the Commonwealth and the States into conformity with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia as a sovereign, independent and federal nation"; provisions which did not have approval of the people under entrenched Referendum, and private provisions which in fact are still in transition.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia" whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

“ This Bill flows from the Australia Bill 1986. By enacting this second Bill, the Australia (Request and Consent) Bill, this Parliament will declare that the Parliament and Government of the Commonwealth request, and consent to the enactment by the United Kingdom Parliament of an Act in the terms set out in the Schedule to the Australia (Request and Consent) Bill. That scheduled Act is in the same terms as the Australia Bill 1986 now before this House, except for some minor differences that are needed to take account of the fact that the scheduled Act will be an Act of the United Kingdom Parliament. ”

The following extract are from Provisions 1 to 12 as in the:-

Australia Act 1986 (UK) [1986 Ch. 2] of 17th February 1986

Australia (Request and Consent) Act 1985, No. 143 of 4th December 1985

as in its Schedule

Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985, (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985

as in its Schedule to the Second Schedule

1. Termination of power of Parliament of United Kingdom to legislate for Australia

No Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom passed after the commencement of this Act shall extend, or be deemed to extend, to the Commonwealth, to a State or to a Territory as part of the law of the Commonwealth, of the State or of the Territory.

(Note the insertion of the words “for Australia” and “passed after”, and the omission of the word “enacted” in Provision No. 1)

Note that the Single European Act which was signed on 17th February 1986, included the United Kingdom, and those Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, who sit inside the Parliament of the United Kingdom, are currently bound to the European Union (EU) which has its headquarters in Brussels, Belgium; so they may not pass any law “for Australia” which would extend to a “Law of the Commonwealth” or of “a State” or “Territory” “of the Commonwealth of Australia” as established and constituted under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted.

2. Legislative powers of Parliaments of States.

(1) It is hereby declared and enacted

that the legislative powers of the Parliament of each State include full power to make laws for the peace, order and good government of that State that have extra-territorial operation.

(2) It is hereby further declared and enacted that the legislative powers of the Parliament of each State include all legislative powers that the Parliament of the United Kingdom might have exercised before the commencement of this Act for the peace, order and good government of that State but nothing in this subsection confers on a State any capacity that the State did not have immediately before the commencement of this Act to engage in relations with countries outside Australia.

With respect to Provision 2—Legislative powers of Parliaments of States:-
[RE: Australia Acts 1986]

Note that the Australia Act 1986 did not appear to intend to remove legislative powers of the Parliaments of the States, powers which they already had before the commencement of the Australia Act 1986, with respect to extra-territorial operations and to relations with countries outside Australia.

Note that Provision 2(1) in the Australia Act 1986:-

(1) It is hereby declared and enacted
that the legislative powers of the Parliament of each State include full power to make laws for the peace, order and good government of that State that have extra-territorial operation.

is similar to Section 3—Power of Parliament of Dominion to legislate extra-territorially

3. It is hereby declared and enacted that the Parliament of a Dominion has full power to make laws having extra-territorial operation.

as in the Statute of Westminster 1931 (UK) [22 Geo. 5] [Ch. 4], adopted in the Statute of Westminster Adoption Act 1942, Act No. 56,
a “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”
given Royal Assent on 9th October 1942,
and to take effect from 3rd September 1939.

Note in Provision 2(1) and 2(2), the insertion of the word “enacted”, which purports that the Australia Act 1986, whether enacted in the United Kingdom or “Australia”, was given Royal Assent by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, Queen Elizabeth the Second, Heir and Successor to Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, and current holder of the Crown of the United Kingdom Empire.

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, in Her Coronation Oath – 2nd June 1953, in the Collegiate Church of St Peter at Westminster, answered the following question by the Archbishop of Canterbury:-

Archbishop. Will you solemnly promise and swear to govern the Peoples of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, Pakistan, and Ceylon, and of your Possessions and the other Territories to any of them belonging or pertaining, according to their respective laws and customs?

Queen. I solemnly promise so to do.

a “Queen of Australia” as created by Members of Political Parties,

each under their own Party's Constitution and policies,

created just because those inside their “Government of Australia”

considered it desirable to change the form of the Royal Style and Titles to be used in relation to “Australia” and its Territories?

3. Termination of restrictions on legislative powers of Parliaments of States.

(1) The Colonial Laws Validity Act 1865

shall not apply to any law

made after the commencement of this Act by the Parliament of a State.

(2) No law and no provision of any law

made after the commencement of this Act

by the Parliament of a State shall be void or inoperative on the ground that it is repugnant

to the law of England,

or to the provisions of any existing or future

Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, or to any order, rule or regulation made under any such Act,

and the powers of the Parliament of a State shall include the power to repeal or amend any such Act, order, rule or regulation

in so far as it is a part of the law of the State.

Note that Provision 3 of the Australia Act 1986, is similar to Section 2—Validity of laws made by Parliament of a Dominion 28 & 29 Vict. c. 63

as in the Statute of Westminster 1931 (UK) [22 Geo. 5] [Ch. 4], adopted in the Statute of Westminster Adoption Act 1942, Act No. 56,
a “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”
given Royal Assent on 9th October 1942,
and to take effect from 3rd September 1939,

with the exception that the word “State” has replaced the word “Dominion”

Provision 3(1) recognizes that each Colony became “a State” as defined in the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule:-

Clause 6—Definitions

6. “The States” shall mean such of the colonies of and each of such parts of the Commonwealth shall be called “a State”.

However Provision 3(2) refers to: the “Parliament of a State” as well as to the “law of the State” which raises the question: What is the difference between “a State” and “the State”? One answer will be seen later when referring specifically to Queensland.

In the Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, it is stated:-

¶ 41. “Definitions.”

“ The definitions in the Act are remarkably few, being confined to the words “Commonwealth” and “State”—both old English words which receive by this Act a new technical application—and the phrase “Original States.” Every other word and phrase of the Constitution is left to be construed from its natural meaning and its context. ”

“ A State is a collective body composed of a multitude of individuals united for their safety and convenience and intended to act as one man. Such a body can be only produced by a political union, by the consent of all persons to submit their own private wills to the will of one man or of one or more assemblies of men to whom the supreme authority is entrusted, and this will of that one man or one or more assemblies of men is, in different States, according to their different constitutions understood to be law. (Blackstone's Commentaries, I. 52.) ”

With respect to Provision 3—Termination of restrictions on legislative powers

Note that the heading in Provision 3 of the UK Act, refers to “1865 c. 63”
i.e. the Colonial Laws Validity Act 1865 [28 & 29 Vict.] [Ch. 63], which refers to Letters Patent as being under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom.
Refer: http://www.bailii.org/uk/legis/num_act/1865/ukpga_18650063_en.pdf

The “Letters Patent constituting the office of Governor-General, 29th October 1900”, show that the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, Queen Victoria, appointed a Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief for the Commonwealth of Australia, appointed by Commission under Her Majesty’s Sign Manual and Signet.

Refer: <http://www.foundingdocs.gov.au/item-did-13.html>

However, the Letters Patent 1984 of 21st August were issued under Sign Manual and under the Great Seal of Australia and under a “Queen of Australia”

The Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985 of “Australia” in its Provision 3(1) refers to:-

“The Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom known as Colonial Laws Validity Act 1865

In the Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, it is stated:-

¶ 7. “Under the Crown.”

The Colonial Laws Validity Act, 1865 was “ passed to remove doubts as to the validity of colonial laws; section 2 of which provides that any colonial law, repugnant to the provisions of any Act of Parliament extending to the Colony to which such law may relate, shall, to the extent of such repugnancy, but not otherwise, be absolutely void and inoperative. An amendment of the Constitution of the Commonwealth would of course be a colonial law within the meaning of this section. ”

“ Probably such a question would not be so far developed by legislative action as to assume a form capable of being discussed in the Federal High Court. Even if any amendment, to the effect under consideration, were carried by an absolute majority in both Houses of the Federal Parliament—even if it were approved of by a majority of the electors and a majority of the States—it would still have to be reserved for the Royal assent. It is not likely that such assent would be given without the authority of the Imperial Parliament. If that Parliament, which created the Commonwealth and the Constitution of the Commonwealth, consented to a form of legislative and executive government which ignored the Crown, no trouble would arise. It is not likely that such consent would either be asked for or given, except in a combination of circumstances and a revolution of ideas and sympathies of which we can now form no possible conception. ”

4. Powers of State Parliaments in relation to merchant shipping.

Sections 735 and 736 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1894, in so far as they are part of the law of a State, are hereby repealed.

Note: The heading in Provision 4 of the UK Act, refers to “1894 c. 60”
i.e. Merchant Shipping Act 1894 (UK) [57 & 58 Vict.] [Ch. 60] and the Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985 of “Australia” in its Provision 4 refers to:-

“Sections 735 and 736 of the Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom known as the Merchant Shipping Act 1894,”

5. Commonwealth Constitution, Constitution Act and Statute of Westminster not affected.

Sections 2 and 3(2) above—

- (a) are subject to
the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act
and to the Constitution of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) do not operate so as to give any force or effect to a provision of an Act of the Parliament of a State that would repeal, amend or be repugnant to
this Act,
the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act,
the Constitution of the Commonwealth
or the Statute of Westminster 1931
as amended and in force from time to time.

Provision 5 above has a double meaning. On one hand, the Australia Act 1986 is not to affect the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, nor the Statute of Westminster. On the other hand, the Australia Act 1986 is to make “The States”, each being “a State” “of the Commonwealth of Australia” as established and constituted on 1st January 1901, enable each of their Constitutions, despite their Referendum entrenched provisions, to be brought into conformity with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia as a sovereign, independent and federal nation

Oxford Dictionary:-

“ conformity n. compliance with conventions, rules or laws ”

“ status n. the official classification given to a person, country, etc. ”

With respect to Provision 5—Commonwealth Constitution, Constitution Act and [RE: Australia Acts 1986] Statute of Westminster not affected. [continued]

Note that the heading in Provision 5 of the UK Act, refers to "1900 c. 12" and to "1931 c. 4 (22 & 23 Geo. 5)", i.e.
Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act (UK) [63 & 64 VICT.] [CH. 12]
Statute of Westminster 1931 (UK) [22 Geo. 5] [Ch. 4]

Note that the Australia Acts 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985, when it suits, will recognize: "the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act,
the Constitution of the Commonwealth
or the Statute of Westminster 1931"

and yet in the unconstitutional "Australia" or "the Commonwealth" as created by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, under their Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, which particularly amended Section 17—Constitutional and official definitions, Acts Interpretation Act 1901-1966,

the people are NOT being governed under:-

the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, nor are the people being governed under the Westminster system.

Note that the Separation of Powers between: Legislature—Executive—Judiciary, as under the Westminster system of government, is entrenched in the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia" as established and constituted under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, but the people of the Commonwealth of Australia are NOT being governed according to its:-

Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws

5. This Act, and all laws
made by the Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Constitution,
shall be binding on the courts, judges, and people
of every State and of every part of the Commonwealth,
notwithstanding anything in the laws of any State)

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, sitting inside their own "Australia" or "the Commonwealth" from 1973, acted outside

the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia",
the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule,

particularly those sitting inside the Parliament of "Australia" from 1973, and in the Parliaments of "the State" from 1986.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia"
whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

6. Manner and form of making certain State laws.

Notwithstanding sections 2 and 3(2) above, a law made after the commencement of this Act by the Parliament of a State respecting the constitution, powers of procedure of the Parliament of the State shall be of no force or effect unless it is made in such manner and form as may from time to time be required by a law made by that Parliament, whether made before or after the commencement of this Act.

Refer: Provision 2—Legislative powers of Parliaments of States

Provision 3—Termination of restrictions on legislative powers of Parliaments of States

Note: Provision 2(2) refers to: “a State” as well as to “the State”

Provision 3(2) refers to: “Parliament of a State” as well as to “law of the State”

Provision 6 refers to: “Parliament of a State” as well as to “Parliament of the State”

again raising the question: What is the difference between “a State” and “the State”, particularly with respect to:- the constitution, powers of procedure of the “Parliament of the State”?

Research into State legislation reveals different enacting manner and forms of laws of “a State” compared with that of laws of “the State”, particularly in Queensland.

The Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, stated:-

¶ 11. “By the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty.”

“ The enacting words, showing the Authority by which the Commonwealth is created, are in the form in which Acts of Parliament have been framed from a remote period of English history. According to the theory of the Constitution the Queen is the source of law, the Queen makes new laws, the Queen alters or repeals old laws, subject only to the condition that this supreme power must be exercised in Parliament and not otherwise. Every Act of Parliament bears on its face the stamp and evidence of its royal authority. It springs from the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty. It is in the Crown, and not in Parliament, that legislative authority is, according to Constitutional theory, directly vested. Parliament is the body assigned by law to advise the Crown in matters of legislation, and the Crown could not legally legislate without the advice and consent of Parliament. ”

7. Powers and functions of her Majesty and Governors in respect of States.

- (1) Her Majesty's representative in each State shall be the Governor.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4) below, all powers and functions of Her Majesty in respect of a State are exercisable only by the Governor of the State.
- (3) Subsection (2) above does not apply in relation to the power to appoint, and the power to terminate the appointment of, the Governor of a State.
- (4) While Her Majesty is personally present in a State,
Her Majesty is not precluded from exercising any of Her powers and functions in respect of the State that are the subject of subsection (2) above.
- (5) The advice to Her Majesty in relation to the exercise of the powers and functions of Her Majesty in respect of a State shall be tendered by the Premier of the State.

Provision 7 refers to: "Premier", "a State", "the State", "Her Majesty". Which Queen is actually being referred to? What is the difference between "a State" and "the State"?

The word "Premier" does NOT appear anywhere in Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977, and NOT in the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, by creating their own "Australia" or "the Commonwealth" under their law of "Australia" Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, which particularly amended Section 17—Constitutional and official definitions, Acts Interpretation Act 1901-1966; and by creating their own "Queen of Australia" under their law of "Australia" Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973;

have, with their own Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985, made:- each of "The States", despite Constitutional Referendum entrenched provisions, enable each of their Constitutions to be brought into conformity with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia as a sovereign, independent and federal nation with a Governor to be appointed under Sign Manual and a Public Seal of "the State" by Commission by an unconstitutional Statutory Instrument, "Queen of Australia".

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia" whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Note:-

Our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God
of the United Kingdom, Australia and Her other Realms and Territories
Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith, has the Crown and Constitutional authority to appoint a Governor of "a State"
by Commission under Royal Sign Manual and Signet, whereas, particularly now in Queensland, an unconstitutional "Queen of Australia",

Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God
Queen of Australia and Her other Realms and Territories,
Head of the Commonwealth,
a Statutory Instrument created on 19th October 1973 to be used in relation to "Australia" and its Territories, appoints a Governor of "the State" by Commission under Sign Manual and the Public Seal of "the State".

8. State laws not subject to disallowance or suspension of operation.

An Act of the Parliament of a State that has been assented to by the Governor of the State shall not, after the commencement of this Act, be subject to disallowance by Her Majesty,
nor shall its operation be suspended pending the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon.

Provision 8 refers to "Parliament of a State", "Governor of the State", "Her Majesty"

9. State laws not subject to withholding of assent or reservation.

(1) No law or instrument shall be of any force or effect in so far as it purports to require the Governor of a State to withhold assent from any Bill for an Act of the State that has been passed in such manner and form in so far as it purports to require the reservation of any Bill for an Act of a State for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon.

Provision 9 refers to:

"law" or "instrument"
"purports"
"Governor of a State"
"withhold assent"
"Bill for an Act of the State"
"passed", "manner and form"
"Parliament of the State"
"reservation of" "for the signification"
"Bill for an Act of a State"

Note: Oxford Dictionary: " purport v. appear to be or do, especially falsely "

10. Termination of responsibility of United Kingdom Government in relation to State matters.

After the commencement of this Act
Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom shall have no responsibility for the government of any State.

Note: Isn't it actually the Parliament of the United Kingdom, consisting of: the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons,

that has responsibility under Imperial Acts with respect to the government of "a State" "of the Commonwealth of Australia" as established and constituted under the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia",
the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule;
i.e. "a State" such as Queensland which is also under Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977?

11. Termination of appeals to Her Majesty in Council.

Before going into the extracts and details of Provision 11 of the Australia Acts 1986, note that Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, with their own private "Governor-General" using a "Great Seal of Australia", created purported "laws of Australia", such as but definitely not limited to:-

Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973
 creating an unconstitutional "Australia" or "the Commonwealth"; Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973
 creating an unconstitutional "Queen of Australia";
Statute Law Revision Act 1973, No. 216 of 19th December 1973
Statute Law Revision Act 1974, No. 20 of 25th July 1974
 removing the constitutional "the Commonwealth of Australia"; Parliament Act 1974, No. 165 of 17th December 1974
 creating a new House for the unconstitutional "Parliament of Australia";
Privy Council (Appeals from the High Court) Act 1975, No. 33 30th April 1975
Privy Council (Limitations of Appeals) Act 1968, No. 36 of 1968
High Court of Australia Act 1979, No. 137 of 23rd November 1979
Judiciary Amendment Act (No. 2) 1979, No. 138 of 23rd November 1979
Evidence Amendment Act 1979, No. 139 of 23rd November 1979
culminating with the Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985
 creating an unconstitutional "Australian court" system in all "Australia".

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia"
whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.
(Page 140 of 442)

11. Termination of appeals to Her Majesty in Council.

- (1) Subject to subsection (4) below,
no appeal to Her Majesty in Council lies or shall be brought,
whether by leave or special leave of any court or of Her Majesty in Council or otherwise, and whether by virtue of any Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom,
the Royal Prerogative or otherwise, from or in respect of any decision of an Australian court.
- (2) subject to subsection (4) below—
- (a) the enactments specified in subsection (3) below
and any orders, rules, regulations or other instruments
made under, or for the purposes of, those enactments; and
- (b) any other provisions of Acts of the Parliament of the United Kingdom in force immediately before the commencement of this Act that make provision for or in relation to appeals to Her Majesty in Council from or in respect of decisions of courts,
and any orders, rules, regulations or other instruments
made under, or for the purposes of, any such provisions.
in so far as they are part of the law of the Commonwealth, of a State or of a Territory,
are hereby repealed.
- (3) The enactments referred to in subsection (2)(a) above are the following Acts of the Parliament of the United Kingdom or provisions of such Acts: [UK Refers]
- | | |
|---|--------------|
| The Australian Courts Act 1828, section 15 | [1828 c. 83] |

| The Australian Constitutions Act 1850, section 28 | [1850 c. 59] |
| The Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act 1890, section 6. | [1890 c. 27] |
- (4) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this section—
- (a) affects an appeal instituted before the commencement of this Act to Her Majesty in Council from or in respect of a decision of an Australian court; or
- (b) precludes the institution after that commencement of an appeal to Her Majesty in Council from or in respect of such a decision where the appeal is instituted—
- (i) pursuant to leave granted by an Australian court on an application made before that commencement; or
- (ii) pursuant to special leave granted by Her Majesty in Council on a petition presented before that commencement,
- but this subsection shall not be construed
as permitting or enabling an appeal to Her Majesty in Council to be instituted or continued that could not have been instituted or continued if this section had not been enacted.

Note that the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, states at:-

Clause 9—The Commonwealth of Australia, Chapter III—The Judicature,

Section 73—Appellate jurisdiction of High Court

73. The High Court shall have jurisdiction, with such exceptions and subject to such regulations as the Parliament prescribes, to hear and determine appeals from all judgments, decrees, orders, and sentences:

(i) of any Justice or Justices exercising the original jurisdiction of the High Court;

(ii) of any other federal court, or court exercising federal jurisdiction; or of the Supreme Court of any State, or of any other court of any State from which

at the establishment of the Commonwealth
an appeal lies to the Queen in Council;

(iii) of the Inter-State Commission, but as to questions of law only; and the judgment of the High Court in all cases shall be final and conclusive.

But no exception or regulation prescribed by the Parliament shall prevent the High Court from hearing and determining any appeal from the Supreme Court of a State in any matter in which at the establishment of the Commonwealth an appeal lies from such Supreme Court to the Queen in Council.

Until the Parliament otherwise provides, the conditions of and restrictions on appeals to the Queen in Council from the Supreme Courts of the several States shall be applicable to appeals from them to the High Court.

Section 74—Appeal to Queen in Council

74. No appeal shall be permitted to the Queen in Council from a decision of the High Court upon any question, howsoever arising, as to the limits inter se of the Constitutional powers of the Commonwealth and those of any State or States, or as to the limits inter se of the Constitutional powers of any two or more States, unless the High Court shall certify that the question is one which ought to be determined by Her Majesty in Council.

The High Court may so certify if satisfied that for any special reason the certificate should be granted, and thereupon a appeal shall lie to Her Majesty in Council on the question without further leave.

Except as provided in this section, this Constitution shall not impair any right which the Queen may be pleased to exercise by virtue of Her Royal prerogative to grant special leave of appeal from the High Court to Her Majesty in Council.

The Parliament may make laws limiting the matters in which such leave may be asked, but proposed laws containing any such limitation shall be reserved by the Governor-General for Her Majesty's pleasure.

With respect to Provision 11—Termination of appeals to Her Majesty in Council

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, and their Governor-General of Australia using a Great Seal of Australia, changed Constitutional and official definitions, created a "Queen of Australia", and thereby changed the interpretation by their "High Court of Australia" of all Sections of "The Constitution", particularly its Section 74—Appeal to Queen in Council.

- "1. This Court's power to grant a certificate under s.74 of the Constitution is the vestigial remnant of the hierarchical connection which formerly existed between Australian courts exercising federal jurisdiction and the Privy Council."
"5. Although the jurisdiction to grant a certificate stands in the Constitution, such limited purpose as it had has long since been spent. The march of events and the legislative changes that have been effected – to say nothing of national sentiment – have made the jurisdiction obsolete."

But how can the unconstitutional "High Court of Australia", in fact any court, make the jurisdiction between the Constitutional High Court and Privy Council, obsolete?

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia" whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Note: The decision made on 17th April 1985,

by Gibbs CJ, Mason, Wilson, Brennan, Deane and Dawson JJ.
in their Kirmani v Captain Cook Cruises Pty Ltd (No. 2) [1985] HCA 27, in the unconstitutional “High Court of Australia” created under and bound to:-
High Court of Australia Act 1979, No. 137 of 23rd November 1979
Judiciary Amendment Act (No. 2) 1979, No. 138 of 23rd November 1979
Evidence Amendment Act 1979, No. 139 of 23rd November 1979
(Note: Nos 137, 138 and 139 were purported to commence 21st April 1980), (Sir Zelman Cowen, Governor-General 8th December 1977 to 29th July 1982)

unconstitutionally assisted Members of Political Parties, under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, with the creation of their Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985, with which they brought:-

constitutional arrangements
affecting the Commonwealth and the States
into conformity with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia
as a sovereign, independent and federal nation.

Extracts: Law and Justice Legislation Amendment Act 1988,

No. 120 of 14th December 1988, amended Section 80 of the Judiciary Act 1903, No. 6 of 25th August 1903, as amended, and replaced “common law of England” with “common law in Australia”.

PART XIII-AMENDMENT OF THE JUDICIARY ACT 1903

Principal Act

40. In this Part, “Principal Act” means the Judiciary Act 1903.

Common law to govern

41. (1) Section 80 of the Principal Act is amended by omitting “common law of England” and substituting “common law in Australia”.

(2) The amendment made by subsection (1) applies for the purposes of proceedings instituted after the commencement of this section.

However, this “law of Australia” had NO Royal Assent, as it omitted the words
“the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty” from the unconstitutional enacting manner and form of Hawke’s Labor Government

“BE IT ENACTED by the Queen,
the Senate and the House of Representatives
of the Commonwealth of Australia”

which included the words “the Commonwealth” “Australia” unconstitutionally defined in the Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, therefore was only given assent by a private “Governor-General of Australia”
of the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution.

"The question in this appeal from an order of the New South Wales Court of Appeal is whether the Community Protection Act 1994 (NSW) ("the Act") is a valid law of the Parliament of New South Wales. In my opinion, the Act is invalid."

"State Supreme Courts cannot be abolished"

"8. Furthermore,

s 73 of the Constitution implies the continued existence of the State Supreme Courts by giving a right of appeal from the Supreme Court of each State to the High Court, subject only to such exceptions as the Commonwealth Parliament enacts.

Section 73(ii) gives this Court jurisdiction to determine appeals from the decisions of any "court exercising federal jurisdiction; or of the Supreme Court of any State, or any other court of any State from which at the establishment of the Commonwealth an appeal (lay) to the Queen in Council.

The right of appeal from a State Supreme Court to this Court, conferred by that section, would be rendered nugatory if the Constitution permitted a State to abolish its Supreme Court."

With respect to Provision 11—Termination of appeals to Her Majesty in Council
[RE: Australia Acts 1986]

- “9. It necessarily follows, therefore, that the Constitution has withdrawn from each State
the power to abolish its Supreme Court or to leave its people without the protection of a judicial system.

That does not mean that a State cannot abolish or amend the constitutions of its existing courts.

Leaving aside the special position of the Supreme Courts of the States,
the States
can abolish or amend the structure of existing courts and create new ones.

However, the Constitution requires a judicial system in and a Supreme Court for each State and, if there is a system of State courts in addition to the Supreme Court, the Supreme Court must be at the apex of the system.

With the abolition of the right of appeal to the Privy Council, therefore, this Court is now the apex of an Australian judicial system.”

“State courts are part of an Australian judicial system”

- “10. At federation each Colony had courts.
Each Colony had a Supreme Court from which an appeal could be taken to the Privy Council (190).
The right of appeal from the State Supreme Courts to the Privy Council

In addition, s 74 of the Constitution preserved the prerogative right of Her Majesty in Council to grant leave to appeal from decisions of the High Court subject to the obtaining of a certificate from this Court in respect of matters concerning “the limits inter se
of the Constitutional powers of the Commonwealth and those of any State or States, or as to the limits inter se
of the Constitutional powers of any two or more States.

However, s 74 also gave the Parliament power to “make laws limiting the matters” in which special leave to appeal to appeal from the High Court to the Privy Council could be asked.

That power extended to abolishing all matters in respect of which leave could be sought (191).”

“Nevertheless, until that power was exercised,
the Constitution intended that, subject to the grant of a certificate by the High Court
in respect of an inter se matter, Australia should have an integrated system of State and federal courts administering a single body of common law under the supervision of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council which stood at the apex of the system.”

- “11. Unlike the United States of America
where there is a common law of each State, Australia has a unified common law which applies in each State but is not itself the creature of any State (192).

Perhaps the validity of that proposition is not as readily apparent to a State judge bound by the authority of his or her own Full Court or Court of Appeal as it is to a judge of a federal court who must apply the common law.

In an extra-judicial paper published in 1957,
Sir Owen Dixon pointed out that,
if there is no statutory law in the case,
an Australian judge sitting in the original jurisdiction of the High Court “proceeds to administer the common law as an entire system.
He ascertains its content as best he may.
Among the judicial decisions to which he may turn those of the State whose law he finds that he must apply will have no higher authority than the decisions of any other State and the authority of the decisions will be persuasive only and not imperative. (193)

In an address to the Section of the American Bar Association for International and Comparative Law, made 14 years before the publication of the paper containing that statement,
his Honour had said (194):

“We therefore regard Australian law as a unit.
Its content comprises besides legislation the general common law which it is the duty of the courts to ascertain as best they may.
But subject always
to the binding authority of some disturbing precedent, we treat it as the duty of all courts to recognize that it is one system which should receive a uniform interpretation and application, not only throughout Australia
but in every jurisdiction of the British Commonwealth
where the common law runs.”

“Later his Honour referred to (195) :

“the reasons which make it possible for an Australian to regard his country as governed by a single legal system.

It is a system or corpus composed of the common law, modified by the enactments of various legislatures.” ”

- “12. The legal system adopted by the Constitution continued until the passing of the Privy Council (Limitation of Appeals) Act 1968 (Cth).

Upon the passing of the Privy Council (Appeals from the High Court) Act 1975 (Cth), an appeal could no longer be taken from the High Court to the Privy Council.

That meant that until the enactment of s 11 of the Australia Acts 1986, appeals could still be taken to the Privy Council from the State Supreme Courts.

From 1975 until 1986, therefore, the High Court and the Privy Council shared the function of declaring the law of Australia.

Moreover, as the Privy Council made plain in Australian Consolidated Press Ltd v Uren (196), the common law of Australia was not necessarily the common law of England or the British Commonwealth.

But that there is a common law of Australia as opposed to a common law of individual States is clear.

In so far as the remarks of Kitto J in Anderson v Eric Anderson Radio and TV Pty Ltd (197) suggest a contrary view, they cannot be regarded as representing the law (198).

Since 1986, this Court has been the ultimate appellate court of the nation.

The right of appeal to the Privy Council having been abolished, the High Court of Australia has the constitutional duty of supervising the nation's legal system and, subject to any relevant statutory or constitutional limitations, of maintaining a unified system of common law.”

In Kable v Director of Public Prosecutions (NSW) [1996] HCA 24,

Justice McHugh of the High Court “of Australia”, referred to the “law of Australia”. (Governor-General Sir Paul Hasluck referred to “laws of Australia” in October 1973) “laws of Australia” are NOT the same as “Laws of the Commonwealth” which are to be made according to the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which consists of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule.

Justice McHugh of the “High Court of Australia”, confirmed that under the Privy Council (Appeals from the High Court) Act 1975, No. 33 of 30th April 1975 and Provision 11 of the Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985, appeals could NO longer be taken to the Privy Council in the United Kingdom from the High Court from 1975, and from the State Supreme Courts from 1986;

and thereby also confirmed that the Justices of the High Court “of Australia”:-

NO longer acted as the Constitutional Guardians of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which consists of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule;

NO longer acted under Chapter III—The Judicature

at Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth; of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which consists of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule;

NO longer acted under Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted which consists of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule;

5. This Act, and all laws
made by the Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Constitution,
shall be binding on the courts, judges, and people
of every State and of every part of the Commonwealth,
notwithstanding anything in the laws of any State

NO longer acted according to the statement made by Viscount Haldane, as referred to in the High Court “of Australia” in:-

“ In Laurie v Carroll, Dixon CJ, Williams and Webb JJ quoted the statement of Viscount Haldane that

‘ [t]he root principle of the English law about jurisdiction is that the judges stand in the place of the Sovereign in whose name they administer justice, and that therefore whoever is served with the King's writ, and can be compelled consequently to submit to the decree made, is a person over whom the Courts have jurisdiction. ’ ”

In the Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, (Refer: <http://adc.library.usyd.edu.au/data-2/fed0014.pdf>), it is stated, with respect to: Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia

Chapter III—The Judicature, Judicial Power and Courts:

¶ 286. The Judicial Power.

SEPARATION OF POWERS.—The judicial power is the power appropriate to the third great department of government, and is distinct from both the legislative and the executive powers. The judicial function is that of hearing and determining questions which arise as to the interpretation of the law, and its application to particular cases. “The distinction between the departments undoubtedly is, that the legislature makes, the executive executes, and the judiciary construes, the law.”

¶ 288. The High Court of Australia.

“ The High Court is the crown and apex, not only of the judicial system of the Commonwealth, but of the judicial systems of the States as well. It is in the first place a court of original jurisdiction in certain enumerated matters of specially federal concern (sec. 75), and this jurisdiction may be extended by federal legislation to cover certain other enumerated matters of specially federal concern (sec. 76). In the next place, it is a court of appeal from federal courts and courts exercising federal jurisdiction (sec. 73); and this appellate power is of course confined within the same limits as the original jurisdiction in respect of which it exists—that is to say, within the matters enumerated in secs. 75 and 76. But in the third place, the High Court is a court of appeal from all decisions of the Supreme Courts of the States, utterly irrespective of the subject-matter of the suit or the character of the parties. ”

“ GUARDIAN OF THE CONSTITUTIONS.—*The High Court, like the Supreme Court of the United States, is the “guardian of the Federal Constitution;” that is to say, it has the duty of interpreting the Constitution, in cases which come before it, and of preventing its violation. But the High Court is also—unlike the Supreme Court of the United States—the guardian of the Constitutions of the several States; it is as much concerned to prevent encroachments by the Federal Government upon the domain of the States as to prevent encroachments by the State Governments upon the domain of the Federal Government. (See Notes on “Interpretation,” ¶ 330, infra.)*

¶ 330. Its Interpretation.

“ In the exercise of the duty of interpretation and adjudication not only the High Court, but every court of competent jurisdiction, has the right to declare that a law of the Commonwealth or of a State is void by reason of transgressing the Constitution. This is a duty cast upon the courts by the very nature of the judicial function. ”

“ The Federal Parliament and the State Parliaments are not sovereign bodies; they are legislatures with limited powers, and any law which they attempt to pass in excess of those powers is no law at all it is simply a nullity, entitled to no obedience. ”

In the Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, (Refer: <http://adc.library.usyd.edu.au/data-2/fed0014.pdf>), it is stated, with respect to: Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia

“The disability of a Federal Legislature to alter the Federal Constitution is one of the organic features and a prominent characteristic of every federal system. If the Federal Legislature could change the Constitution it might transform itself from a subordinate law-making body into an organ of sovereignty; it might destroy the federal system altogether, and substitute a consolidated form of government. A Federal Legislature is a mere creature of the Federal Constitution; it is mere instrument or servant of a federal community; it is an agent, not a master. The Constitution is the master of the legislature, and the community itself is the author of the Constitution.”

“In the Constitution of the Commonwealth of course there is no absolute sovereignty, but a quasi-sovereignty which resides in the people of the Commonwealth, who may express their will on constitutional questions through a majority of the electors voting and a majority of the States. No amendment of the Constitution can be made without the concurrence of that double majority—a majority within a majority. These are safeguards necessary not only for the protection of the federal system, but in order to secure maturity of thought in the consideration and settlement of proposals leading to organic changes. These safeguards have been provided, not in order to prevent or indefinitely resist change in any direction, but in order to prevent change being made in haste or by stealth, to encourage public discussion and to delay change until there is strong evidence that it is desirable, irresistible, and inevitable.”

“If therefore the Commonwealth were a sovereign and independent State, no amendment, duly passed in the prescribed form, would be beyond its powers; the amending power would have no limits. But the Commonwealth is only quasi-sovereign, and the amending power, though above the State Governments and above the Federal Government, is below the Imperial Parliament. The Commonwealth is a dependency of the Empire; and the amending power—the highest legislature of the Commonwealth—is a colonial legislature.”

“In particular, no law can be passed by the amending power which is repugnant to the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act—consisting of the preamble and the covering clauses to which the Constitution itself is annexed. The amending power can amend the Constitution, but the Constitution Act is above its reach. How far the scope of the amending power may be limited by the scope and intention of the Constitution Act, as gathered from the preamble, it is impossible to say; but it is certain that, if amendments were passed which were inconsistent with such words as “indissoluble,” “Federal Commonwealth,” or “under the Crown,” strong arguments would be available against their constitutionality. (See Notes on “Preamble,” supra.)”

“ III Foreign Power ”

- “47. At the material time, Mrs Hill was regarded as a British citizen by the statute law of the United Kingdom which is identified by Gaudron J in her reasons for judgment. In construing s 44(i) of the Constitution, the Court should apply the classification given to Mrs Hill under United Kingdom law[49]. The question then is whether, at the material time, the United Kingdom answered the description of “a foreign power” in s 44(i).”

“ A foreign power ”

- “48. The expression “a foreign power” in s 44 does not invite attention to the quality of the relationship between Australia and the power to which the person is said to be under an acknowledgment of allegiance, obedience or adherence or of which that person is a subject or a citizen or entitled to the rights and privileges of a subject or citizen. That is, the inquiry is not about whether Australia’s relationships with that power are friendly or not, close or distant, or meet any other qualitative description. Rather, the words invite attention to questions of international and domestic sovereignty[50].”

“United Kingdom institutions and the Constitution”

- “59. It may be accepted that the United Kingdom may not answer the description of “a foreign power” in s 44(i) of the Constitution if Australian courts are, as a matter of the fundamental law of this country, immediately bound to recognise and give effect to the exercise of legislative, executive and judicial power by the institutions of government of the United Kingdom. However, whatever once may have been the situation with respect to the Commonwealth and to the States, since at least the commencement of the Australia Act 1986 (Cth) (“the Australia Act”) this has not been the case. The provisions of that statute make it largely unnecessary to rehearse what are now the matters of history recounted in the judgments in New South Wales v The Commonwealth[69], Kirmani v Captain Cook Cruises Pty Ltd [No 1][70] and Nolan v Minister for Immigration and Ethnic Affairs[71].”

“Legislative power”

- “60. As to the further exercise of legislative power by the Parliament of the United Kingdom, s 1 of the Australia Act states:
- “No Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom passed after the commencement of this Act shall extend, or be deemed to extend, to the Commonwealth, to a State or to a Territory as part of the law of the Commonwealth, of the State or of the Territory.” ”
- “61. The recital to the Australia Act indicates that it was enacted in pursuance of s 51(xxxviii) of the Constitution, the Parliaments of all the States having requested the Parliament of the Commonwealth to enact the statute. Section 51(xxxviii) empowers the Parliament, subject to the Constitution, to make laws for the peace, order and good government of the Commonwealth with respect to:
- “[t]he exercise within the Commonwealth, at the request or with the concurrence of the Parliaments of all the States directly concerned, of any power which can at the establishment of this Constitution be exercised only by the Parliament of the United Kingdom or by the Federal Council of Australasia”.
- The Australia Act was enacted before s 51(xxxviii) had been construed in Port MacDonnell Professional Fishermen's Assn Inc v South Australia[72]. Apparently out of a perceived need for abundant caution, legislation of the Westminster Parliament was sought and passed as the 1986 UK Act 1973 [73].” [1973 ?]

- “62. The effect of s 51(xxxviii) is to empower the Parliament “to make laws with respect to the local exercise of any legislative power which, before federation, could not be exercised by the legislatures of the former Australian colonies”[\[74\]](#).

It represents an actual enhancement of the legislative powers of the States because “it confers, by implication, power upon the Parliament of a State to participate in the legislative process which the paragraph requires, namely request (or concurrence) by a State Parliament and enactment by the Commonwealth Parliament”[\[75\]](#).

There is a potential enhancement of State legislative powers because the Parliaments of the States are the potential recipients of legislative power under a law made pursuant to the paragraph[\[76\]](#).

Any room for an inhibition against giving to the grant in s 51(xxxviii) its full scope and effect by reason of what was once the status of the Commonwealth itself within the British Empire no longer applies[\[77\]](#).

- “65. It follows that, at least since 1986 with respect to the exercise of legislative power, the United Kingdom is to be classified as a foreign power.”

“Judicial power”

- “66. The Australia Act also provided, in s 11, for the termination of appeals from or in respect of any decision of an Australian court brought to the Privy Council, whether by virtue of any Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, the Royal Prerogative or otherwise. When this legislation is taken with the Privy Council (Limitation of Appeals) Act 1968 (Cth) and the Privy Council (Appeals from the High Court) Act 1975 (Cth), the result is to is to leave only that avenue for appeal to the Privy Council which is identified in s 74 of the Constitution. With a certificate from this Court, s 74 permits appeals from a decision of this Court upon any question as to the limits inter se of the constitutional powers of the Commonwealth and those of of any State or States or as to the limits inter se of the constitutional powers of any two or more States. The last in a series of unsuccessful applications for certificates appears to have been made in 1985[\[82\]](#). In refusing the certificate sought in Kirmani v Captain Cook Cruises Pty Ltd [No 2], the Court said in its joint judgment[\[83\]](#):

“Although the jurisdiction to grant a certificate stands in the Constitution, such limited purpose as it had has long since been spent. The march of events and the legislative changes that have been effected – to say nothing of national sentiment – have made the jurisdiction obsolete.”

In any event, before that date, it had become settled doctrine that the Privy Council was part of the judicial system of the country whence appeals came and that it was not an institution of the United Kingdom[\[84\]](#).

It follows that no institutions of government of the United Kingdom exercise any judicial powers with respect to this country.

12. Amendment of Statute of Westminster.

Sections 4, 9(2) and (3) and 10(2)
of the Statute of Westminster 1931,
in so far as they are part of the law
of the Commonwealth, of a state or of a Territory,
are hereby repealed.

Note that the heading in Provision 12 of the UK Act,

Australia Act 1986 (UK) [1986 Ch. 2] of 17th February 1986
http://www.bailii.org/uk/legis/num_act/1865/ukpga_18650063_en.pdf

refers to "1931 c. 4 (22 & 23 Geo. 5)" "1865 c. 63"

i.e. Statute of Westminster 1931 (UK) [22 Geo. 5] [Ch. 2]

which was given Royal Assent on 11th December 1931, and was "An Act to give effect to certain resolutions passed by Imperial Conferences held in the years 1926 and 1930."

Preamble

WHEREAS the delegates of His Majesty's Governments in the United Kingdom, the Dominion of Canada,
the Commonwealth of Australia, the Dominion of New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, the Irish Free State and Newfoundland, at Imperial Conferences holden at Westminster in the years of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty-six and nineteen hundred and thirty did concur in making the declarations and resolutions set forth in the Reports of the said Conferences :

And whereas it is meet and proper to set out by way of preamble to this Act that, inasmuch as the Crown is the symbol of the free association of the members of the British Commonwealth of Nations, and as they are united by a common allegiance to the Crown,
it would be in accord with the established constitutional position of all the members of the Commonwealth in relation to one another that any alteration in the law touching the Succession to the Throne or the Royal Style and Titles [1973?]
shall hereafter require the assent
as well of the Parliaments of all the Dominions
as of the Parliament of the United Kingdom

And whereas it is in accord with the established constitutional position that no law hereafter made by the Parliament of the United Kingdom shall extend to any of the said Dominions as part of the law of that Dominion otherwise than at the request and with the consent of that Dominion :

With respect to Provision 12—Amendment of Statute of Westminster [continued]
[RE: Australia Acts 1986]

The Preamble of the Statute of Westminster 1931 (UK) [22 Geo. 5] [Ch. 2] includes:-

“that any alteration in the law touching the Succession to the Throne or the Royal Style and Titles shall hereafter require the assent
as well of the Parliaments of all the Dominions
as of the Parliament of the United Kingdom”

raising the question:-

why is there NO Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom equivalent to the Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973 in “Australia”?

And whereas it is necessary for the ratifying, confirming and establishing of certain of the said declarations and resolutions of the said Conferences that a law be made and enacted in due form
by authority of the Parliament of the United Kingdom :

And whereas the Dominion of Canada, the Commonwealth of Australia, the Dominion of New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, the Irish Free State and Newfoundland have severally requested and consented to the submission of a measure to the Parliament of the United Kingdom for making such provision with regard to the matters aforesaid as is hereafter in this Act contained :

Statute of Westminster 1931 (UK) [22 Geo. 5] [Ch. 2] [Enacting manner and form]

Now, therefore, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty
by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons,
in this present Parliament assembled,
and by the authority of the same, as follows :-

Extracts of some sections:- (Note particularly Sections 4 and 9(2)(3) and 10(2))

Section 4—Parliament of United Kingdom
not to legislate for Dominion except by consent

- 4. No Act of Parliament of the United Kingdom passed after the commencement of this Act shall extend, or be deemed to extend,
to a Dominion as part of the law of that Dominion, unless it is expressly declared in that Act that that Dominion has requested, and consented to,
the enactment thereof.

Section 9—Saving with respect to States of Australia

9.(1) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to authorise the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia to make laws on any matter within the authority of the States of Australia, not being a matter within the authority of the Parliament or Government of the Commonwealth of Australia.

9.(2) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to require the concurrence of the Parliament or Government of the Commonwealth of Australia in any law made by the Parliament of the United Kingdom with respect to any matter within the authority of the States of Australia, not being a matter within the authority of the Parliament or Government of the Commonwealth of Australia, in any case where it would have been in accordance with the constitutional practice existing before the commencement of this Act that the Parliament of the United Kingdom should make that law without such concurrence.

9.(3) In the application of this Act to the Commonwealth of Australia the request and consent referred to in section four shall mean the request and consent of the Parliament and Government of the Commonwealth.

Section 10—Certain section of Acts not to apply to Australia, New Zealand or Newfoundland unless adopted

10.(2) The Parliament of any such Dominion as aforesaid may at any time revoke the adoption of any section referred to in subsection (1) of this section.

With respect to Provision 12—Amendment of Statute of Westminster [continued]
[RE: Australia Acts 1986]

Note again that Provision 12—Amendment of Statute of Westminster stated:-

12. Sections 4, 9(2) and (3) and 10(2)
of the Statute of Westminster 1931,
in so far as they are part of the law
of the Commonwealth, of a state or of a Territory,
are hereby repealed.

Note that the Statute of Westminster 1931 (UK) [22 Geo. 5] [Ch. 2] stated at:-

- 10.(1) None of the following sections of this Act, that is to say, sections two, three, four, five and six,
shall extend to a Dominion to which this section applies as part of the law of that Dominion unless that section is adopted by the Parliament of the Dominion, and any Act of that Parliament adopting any section of this Act
may provide that the adoption shall have effect either from the commencement of this Act or from such later date as is specified in the adopting Act.

The Statute of Westminster Adoption Act 1942, No. 56 of 9th October 1942, was a “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia” given Royal Assent, and was “An Act to remove Doubts

as to the Validity of certain Commonwealth Legislation, to obviate Delays occurring in its Passage, and to effect certain related purposes,
by adopting certain Sections of the Statute of Westminster, 1931,
as from the Commencement of the War between His Majesty the King and Germany.”

Section 3—Addoption of Statute of Westminster, 1931.

Sections two, three, four, five and six of the Imperial Act entitled the Statute of Westminster, 1931 (which Act is set out in the Schedule to this Act)
are adopted and the adoption shall have effect from the third day of September, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine.

created by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, with their Statutory Instrument “Queen of Australia”,

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia" whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

The “Signet” in Her Majesty’s Commission under “Royal Sign Manual and Signet”, gives Crown authority to a Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Commonwealth of Australia, to protect our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and Her subjects, by acting as “Commander-in-Chief” of the Defence Forces of the Commonwealth of Australia; as prescribed in the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, particularly at:-

Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth,

Chapter I—The Parliament, Part V—Powers of the Parliament,

Section 51—Legislative Powers of the Parliament

51. The Parliament shall, subject to this Constitution, have power to make laws for the peace, order, and good government of the Commonwealth with respect to:-

(vi.) The naval and military defence of the Commonwealth and of the several States, and the control of the forces

to execute and maintain the laws of the Commonwealth.

(xxxii.) The control of railways with respect to transport for the naval and military purposes of the Commonwealth

Chapter II—The Executive Government,

Section 68—Command of naval and military forces

68. The command in chief of the naval and military forces of the Commonwealth

is vested in the Governor-General as the Queen’s representative.

However, contra to Her Majesty’s Royal Warrant dated 16th February 1954 and Her Majesty’s Royal Warrant dated 19th October 1955, in which there were no statements to remove Her Signet from Commissions or to amend any Letters Patent; Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, sitting inside the Executive Government; by having Her Majesty’s “Signet” displaced with a Public Functionary seal from 2nd February 1960, removed Crown authority from the “Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Commonwealth of Australia”, thereby placing each Governor-General from 2nd February 1960 under their control.

In the Royal Warrant dated 16th February 1954, Her Majesty prescribed that the

Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief

in and over the Commonwealth of Australia

would receive a Great Seal for use by the Government to be used in sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass

the Great Seal of the Commonwealth or the Seal of the Commonwealth and that the old Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia was to be defaced by him in the Federal Executive Council and in the Royal Warrant dated 19th October 1955, Her Majesty prescribed that the Great Seal granted in Her Royal Warrant 16th February 1954

(i.e. for use by the Government)

“be used as a Royal Great Seal in sealing all things whatsoever

(other than things that pass the said Great Seal)

that bear Our Sign Manual and the counter-signature of one Our Ministers of State for Our Commonwealth of Australia”.

When researching for the reasons why “Commander-in-Chief” was not bestowed on Governor-General William George “Bill” Hayden in his 4th January 1989 Commission it must be remembered that he was also appointed under the Australia Act 1986 and its Letters Patent of 21st August 1984 in which there is NO Commander-in-Chief.

That research also led to the publication on the Governor-General’s website <http://www.gg.gov.au/about-governor-general/governor-general-commander-chief> of a lengthy Address entitled “The Governor-General as Commander-in-Chief” given by former Governor-General Sir Ninian Stephen on the occasion of the Graduation of Course No. 27/83 of the Joint Services Staff College in Canberra on Tuesday 21st June 1983. and address which included references to Section 68 of the Constitution, including:-

“ It is useful to sum up this aspect by citing what those great contemporary commentators on the Constitution, Dr John Quick and Sir Robert Garran, wrote at the time in their landmark commentary published in 1901. They said of s.68 that the command-in-chief is “one of the oldest and most honoured prerogatives of the Crown, but it is now exercised in a constitutional manner”, that is “with the advice of his Ministry having the confidence of Parliament”. [26] ”

“ The final transformation, this century, of Empire into Commonwealth served only to underline what had long been obvious and well-accepted about the role of Governor-General as Commander-in-Chief. It was at the Imperial Conference of 1926 that the full equality of status of each of the members of the British Commonwealth of Nations was recognised, as was the consequence that, in the words of one of the resolutions passed at that Conference, Governors-General, representing the Crown, held “in all essential respects the same position in relation to the administration of public affairs in the Dominion as is held by His Majesty the King in Great Britain ...”. And you will recall what Alpheus Todd, some thirty years earlier, had said about the British Sovereign having already by then relinquished any independent control over the armed forces. ”

“Once Australia became a co-equal member of the Commonwealth of Nations, with no vestige of colonial status, there remained no remnant of responsibility upon the Governor-General towards an Imperial government to exercise any particular role in relation to Australia’s armed forces. These forces had long ceased to be Imperial and now the Governor-General had also ceased to have special links with the British, and formerly Imperial, government. ”

“It seems clear that no question of any reserve power lurks within the terms of s.68 and practical considerations make it essential, even were constitutional ones not also to require it, that the Governor-General should have no independent discretion conferred upon him by that section; as Professor Richardson points out:

“For example, the command of the armed forces, vested in the Governor-General under section 68, if exercised by him without, or contrary to, advice, could result in the non-observance of an Act of Parliament dealing with defence or be rendered ineffective in appropriate instances because Parliament had not voted the necessary moneys under sections 81 and 83 of the Constitution to support the activity embarked on by the Governor-General.” [27] ”

“ For reasons which Quick and Garran describe as “historical and technical, rather than practical or substantial,” [28] and which were much discussed both in the Convention debate to which I have already referred and ever since, [29] s.68, unlike many other references to the Governor-General in our Constitution, makes no reference to the Federal Executive Council. One may regret that considerations of elegance of drafting and, perhaps, fear of being regarded in Whitehall as constitutionally naïve led to this omission and thus left room for misconceptions about the effect of s.68. ”

In the Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, it is stated with respect to

Clause 2—Act to extend to the Queen’s successors:-

2. The provisions of this Act referring to the Queen¹⁹ shall extend to Her Majesty's heirs and successors²⁰
in the sovereignty²¹ of the United Kingdom.

¶ 19. “Referring to the Queen.”

“ PREROGATIVES LIMITED By The CONSTITUTION.—In the course of these Notes attention will be drawn to clauses and sections which apparently contract the prerogatives of the Crown; foremost amongst them may be here generally indicated four of special importance:—

- (1.) Section 1 of the Constitution, providing that the legislative power shall be vested in a Federal Parliament consisting of the Queen, the Senate, and the House of Representatives.
- (2.) Section 59, restricting the period within which the Queen may disallow laws assented to by the Governor-General.
- (3.) Section 62, creating an Executive Council to advise the Governor-General as the Queen's Representative.
- (4.) Section 74, limiting the right of appeal to the Queen in Council. ”

“ PREROGATIVES CONFIRMED BY THE CONSTITUTION.—Certain well-known and long-established powers of the Crown instead of being negatived are confirmed by the Constitution, such as:—

- (1.) Section 5.—The Governor-General may convene, prorogue, and dissolve the Federal Parliament.
- (2.) Section 62.—The Governor-General may choose and summon members of the Executive Council to advise him.
- (3.) Section 64.—The Governor-General may appoint officers to administer such Departments of State as the Governor-General in Council may establish.
- (4.) Section 68.—The Governor-General shall be the Commander-in-Chief of the naval and military forces of the Commonwealth.

“ No doubt most or the whole of these and other powers vested in the Governor-General will, in accordance with what have been elsewhere referred to as the “Understandings and Conventions of the Constitutions,” ¶ 18, be exercised by the Queen's Representative in a Constitutional manner, that is, on the advice of responsible Ministers. (See ¶ 271, “Executive Government.”) ”

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia” whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

The Letters Patent constituting the Office of Governor-General of 29th October 1900 may not be revoked, altered, or amended by anyone else other than the holder of the Crown of the United Kingdom, Her Majesty Queen Victoria and Her heirs and successors in the sovereignty of the United Kingdom.

The Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which consists of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, prescribes at Clause 2—Act to extend to the Queen's successors:-

2. The Provisions of this Act referring to the Queen shall extend to Her Majesty's heirs and successors in the sovereignty of the United Kingdom.

Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws

5. This Act, and all laws made by the Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Constitution, shall be binding on the courts, judges, and people of every State and of every part of the Commonwealth, notwithstanding anything in the laws of any State.

Clause 6—Definitions

6. “The Commonwealth” shall mean the Commonwealth of Australia as established under this Act.

With respect to Provision 13 and Provision 14 of the Australia Acts 1986:-

Note that in

Provision 13—Amendment of Constitution Act of Queensland, and Provision 14—Amendment of Constitution Act of Western Australia;

the amendments made by the Australia Acts 1986, i.e. the

Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985 (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985,
Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985 (WA) No. 65 of 6th November 1985,
Australia (Request and Consent) Act 1985, No. 143 of 4th December 1985, Australia Act 1986 (UK) [1986 Ch. 2] of 17th February 1986, and the Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985 of “Australia”,

to the respective

Constitution Act 1867-1978 in Queensland, and the Constitution Act 1889 in Western Australia;

are very similar, especially with respect to:-

the removal from those Constitutions of the “Signet”, meaning the seal commonly used for the sign manual of the Sovereign, or the seal with which documents are sealed
by the Secretary of State in the United Kingdom on behalf of the Sovereign;

the removal of the Crown and Constitutional authority of our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch;

the removal of the authority of the Parliament of the United Kingdom;

the removal of the Constitutional Governor to be appointed by Commission under Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, thereby placing the Governor inside the corporate Australian system of government.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, have created their “Australia” or “the Commonwealth” under their law of “Australia”

the Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973,

which particularly amended Section 17—Constitutional and official definitions,
of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901-1966;

have created their “Queen of Australia” under their law of “Australia”

the Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973;

and have, with their Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985, made each of “The States”, despite Constitutional Referendum entrenched provisions, enable each of their Constitutions to be brought into conformity with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia as a sovereign, independent and federal nation with a Governor to be appointed under Sign Manual and a Public Seal of “the State” by Commission by an unconstitutional Statutory Instrument, “Queen of Australia”.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia”
whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

The Australia Act 1986 (UK) [1986 Ch. 2] of 17th February 1986, was
“to give effect to a request
by the Parliament and Government of the Commonwealth of Australia”

The 24th February 1986 Statutory Instrument

Australia Act 1986 (Commencement) Order 1986 (UK) [319 C.8]
by the Principal Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs, stated that “the Australia Act 1986 shall come into force on 3rd March 1986, at five o’clock, Greenwich mean time, in the morning”.

To fully understand the unconstitutional effect on Queensland, of the requests by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, sitting in the respective purported Parliaments and Governments “of Australia”, one needs first to look back into some of Queensland’s Constitutional history, particularly why reference is always made in this research document to Queensland’s Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977.

The Conferences held on 24th June 1982, 25th June 1982, and 21st June 1984, resulted in a Prime Minister and six Premiers agreeing “on the taking of certain measures
to bring constitutional arrangements
affecting the Commonwealth and the States
into conformity with
the status of the Commonwealth of Australia
as a sovereign, independent and federal nation”

Note: Oxford Dictionary:

“conformity n. compliance with conventions, rules or laws ”
“status n. the official classification given to a person, country, etc.”

However, the words “Prime Minister” and “Premier” do NOT appear anywhere in Queensland’s Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977, and NOT in the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule.

The Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985, (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985 is contra to Queensland’s Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977 and is contra to the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule.

The Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985, (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985,

to enable the constitutional arrangements
affecting the Commonwealth and the States
to be brought into conformity with
the status of the Commonwealth of Australia
as a sovereign, independent and federal nation;

was one step taken in Queensland by those Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, sitting as elected purported Members of the "Legislative Assembly of Queensland in Parliament assembled"; to conform to the agreements made by a Prime Minister and six Premiers at the Conferences held on 24th June 1982, 25th June 1982, and 21st June 1984,

on the taking of certain measures
to bring the constitutional arrangements
affecting the Commonwealth and the States
into conformity with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia
as a sovereign, independent and federal nation.

In 1985, the elected purported Members of the Legislative Assembly of Queensland, deceived the people in Queensland, "a State" as constituted and established under the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia",
the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, by making the Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985, (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985, so as to conform to agreements between a "Prime Minister" and "Premiers" who are NOT in Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977.

Sir Walter Campbell, Queensland Governor from 22nd July 1985 to 28th July 1992, was paid in "Australian currency" in "Australian Dollars", "not Pounds" and deceived the Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and the people, by sealing the Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985, (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985 with the Royal Coat of Arms "for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the Seal", when that Act consisted of unconstitutional provisions that would NOT pass the Seal.

From 1973, the elected purported Members of the House of Representatives and Senate of "Australia" also deceived the people in Queensland by changing the Constitutional and official definitions in legislation, introducing into legislation, words in the common vernacular, thereby changing meanings and interpretation of words;
with Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution,
sitting inside their own "Australia" or "the Commonwealth", with their
"Australian Government Gazette", "Government Printer of Australia",
"Land for Australia", "Australian Citizens" making Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance to a "Queen of Australia", and with their own private
"Governor-General of Australia" using a "Great Seal of Australia"
and their: "Federal Court of Australia" from 9th December 1976
"Australian Federal Police" from 15th June 1979
"High Court of Australia" from 21st April 1980

From 1973, any reference to the words “Australia” and “the Commonwealth”, is to the unconstitutional “Australia” or “the Commonwealth”, as created by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, with their Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, which amended the Acts Interpretation Act 1901-1966, with:-

Constitutional and official definitions

4.(1) Section 17 of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by omitting paragraphs (a) and (b) from Section 17,
and substituting the following paragraph:-

“(a) ‘Australia’ or ‘the Commonwealth’ means
the Commonwealth of Australia
and, when used in a geographical sense,
does not include an external Territory;”;

No contrary intention, has been shown since, in any “laws of Australia”

by Members of Political Parties,
each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies,

to the meaning of their own created “Australia” or “the Commonwealth”, as can be seen in Sections 1A, 2B and 15B of their own corporate Acts Interpretation Act 1901, Compilation 29 Registered 7th March 2016.

Also, its Endnote 4—Amendment history shows that their Acts Interpretation Amendment Act 2011, No. 46 of 27th June 2011, repealed Section 17,

so there are NO “Constitutional and Official definitions” since,
in any of the “laws of Australia” by Members of Political Parties,
each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies.

Acts Interpretation Act 1954 [3 Eliz. 2 No. 3] of 27th April 1954,
as amended and Current as at 22nd March 2016

“An Act to assist in the shortening and interpretation of Queensland Acts”

Part 3—General provisions applying to Acts

9A—Declaration of validity of certain laws

Each provision of an Act

enacted, or purporting to have been enacted,
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
has (and always has had) the same effect as it would have had,
and is (and always has been) as valid as it would have been,
if the Australia Acts had been in operation
at the time of its enactment or purported enactment.

Explanation:-

Each provision of an Act enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
or each provision of an Act purporting to have been enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
has the same effect (and always has had the same effect)
if the Australia Acts had been in operation
at the time of enactment or purported enactment
of each of those provisions
enacted or purporting to have been enacted
and
each provision of an Act enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
or each provision of an Act purporting to have been enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
is as valid (and always has been as valid)
if the Australia Acts had been in operation
at the time of enactment or purported enactment
of each of those provisions enacted or purporting to have been enacted

Oxford Dictionary: purport v. appear to be or do, especially falsely

Because Section 9A—Declaration of validity of certain laws
infers that some Acts have been enacted falsely and only appear to be Acts,
then the Australia Acts have no effect, and never had any effect, on the validity
of any provision of any Act enacted, or purporting to have been enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts.

Queensland – Orders in Council, Letters Patent, Governors, etc. [continued]

In the controversial book named “1984” which was published in 1949, George Orwell predicted books would be replaced by “Big Brother” with its “Newspeak” language. Those predictions are not so farfetched, as research into history is becoming very restricted, especially when searching for previous legislation and Letters Patent etc. Books are disappearing off University shelves, and what once could be found “online”, is there no more. It is too easy to destroy digital documents with one “click”.

For example, the Letters Patent constituting the Office of Governor of Queensland proclaimed 6th March, 1986, which revoked the earlier Letters Patent and the Royal Instructions to the Governor dated 10th June 1925, can no longer be “downloaded”.

However, a previously downloaded copy shows that the:-

Letters Patent of 14th February 1986

were Proclaimed on 6th March 1986,
were Gazetted on 8th March 1986, revoked the 1925 Letters Patent,
removed the “Signet” from Governor Commissions and affixed the “Public Seal of the State” to Governor Commissions.

13.(4) Section 14 of the Principal Act is amended in subsection (2)
by omitting
“ subject to his performing his duty prescribed by section 11B, ”.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, sitting inside Parliaments and Governments "of Australia" with their "Prime Minister" and "Premiers", used Provision 13—Amendment of Constitution Act of Queensland of their Australia Acts 1986:-

Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985 (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985,
Australia (Request and Consent) Act 1985, No. 143 of 4th December 1985, Australia Act 1986 (UK) [1986 Ch. 2] of 17th February 1986, and the Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985 of "Australia",

to amend Sections 11A, 11B and 14(2) of Queensland's Constitution Act 1867-1978.

but they had NO Crown and Constitutional authority to do so under the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which consists of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule;

Queensland's Constitution Act Amendment Act 1977, No. 9 of 5th April 1977 [cont'd]

7. New s. 53. The Principal Act is amended by inserting after section 52 the following heading and section:—

" REQUIREMENT FOR REFERENDUM "

53. Certain measures to be supported by referendum

- (1) A Bill that expressly or impliedly provides for the abolition of or alteration in the office of Governor or that expressly or impliedly in any way affects any of the following sections of this Act namely—sections 1, 2, 2A, 11A, 11B, 14; and
this section 53
shall not be presented for assent
by or in the name of the Queen unless it has first been approved by the electors in accordance with this section and a Bill so assented to consequent upon its presentation in contravention of this subsection shall be of no effect as an Act.
- (2) On a day not sooner than two months after the passage through the Legislative Assembly of a Bill of a kind referred to in subsection (1) the question for the approval or otherwise of the Bill shall be submitted to the electors qualified to vote for the election of members of the Legislative Assembly according to the provisions of the Elections Act 1915–1973 and of any Act amending the same or of any Act in substitution therefor.
Such day shall be appointed by the Governor in Council by Order in Council.
- (3) When the Bill is submitted to the electors the vote shall be taken in such manner as the Parliament of Queensland prescribes.
- (4) If a majority of the electors voting approve the Bill, it shall be presented to the Governor for reservation thereof for the signification of the Queen's pleasure.
- (5) Any person entitled to vote at a general election of members of the Legislative Assembly is entitled to bring proceedings in the Supreme Court for a declaration, injunction or other remedy to enforce the provisions of this section either before or after a Bill of a kind referred to in subsection (1) is presented for assent by or in the name of the Queen.
- (6) Act 24 Geo. 5 No. 35 preserved. The provisions of this section shall in no way affect the operation of The Constitution Act Amendment Act of 1934. ”.

Queensland's Constitution Act Amendment Act 1977, No. 9 of 5th April 1977 [cont'd]

The Australia Acts (Request) Bill 1985, (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985, expressly or impliedly,

provided for the abolition of or alteration in the office of Governor;
and affected Sections: 1, 2, 2A, 11A, 11B, 14 and 53

of Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977;
and was NOT first approved by the electors in accordance with Section 53.

Therefore that Bill could not have been presented for assent by or in the name of the Queen, our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch,

the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty,

"Elizabeth the Second by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom
of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Our other Realms & Territories
Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith"

as referred to on 9th March 1977, by Herself in Her Majesty's Royal Warrant granting and assigning Supporters of a Red Deer and a Brolga to the
to the Armorial Ensigns granted under the Royal Warrant of 29th April 1893,
by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, Queen Victoria;

and that Bill so assented to consequent upon presentation is in contravention to Section 53, shall be of no effect as an Act, therefore "NULL AND VOID".

Therefore each of the Australia Acts 1986 may have NO effect as an Act, and as such have NO effect over the people of Queensland, "a State" as established under the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia",
the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which consists of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule; the people bound to Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977.

Subsequently, the Australia Acts 1986 are unconstitutional laws made under a Queen created for the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, along with their "Prime Minister" and "Premiers":-

to give effect" to a request by them
to bring constitutional arrangements
affecting the Commonwealth and the States
into conformity with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia
as a sovereign, independent and federal nation

under their own private "Governor-General" using "Great Seal of Australia", and their own "Queen of Australia" to be used in relation to "Australia" and its Territories created under their Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973, with no equivalent legislation in the United Kingdom.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia"
whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

the question for the approval or otherwise of the Bill

Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977 by Queensland's Constitution Act Amendment Act 1977, No. 9 of 5th April 1977 stated that: any Bill that expressly or impliedly in any way affects sections 1, 2, 2A, 11A, 11B, 14; and 53 may NOT be presented for assent by or in the name of the Queen, unless the electors in Queensland have given their approval first by Referendum,

Section 53—Certain measures to be supported by referendum, includes:-

(6) Act 24 Geo. 5 No. 35 preserved. The provisions of this section shall in no way affect the operation of The Constitution Act Amendment Act of 1934.

The Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985, (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985, was an unconstitutional law by Members of Political Parties in Queensland, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, with the intention:- to conform to the agreements made by a Prime Minister and six Premiers at Conferences held on 24th June 1982, 25th June 1982, and 21st June 1984, on the taking of certain measures

to bring the constitutional arrangements
affecting the Commonwealth and the States
into conformity with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia as a sovereign, independent and federal nation.

Acts Interpretation Act 1954 [3 Eliz. 2 No. 3] of 27th April 1954,
as amended and Current as at 22nd March 2016

“An Act to assist in the shortening and interpretation of Queensland Acts”

Part 3—General provisions applying to Acts

9A—Declaration of validity of certain laws

Each provision of an Act

enacted, or purporting to have been enacted,
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
has (and always has had) the same effect as it would have had,
and is (and always has been) as valid as it would have been,
if the Australia Acts had been in operation
at the time of its enactment or purported enactment.

Explanation:-

Each provision of an Act enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
or each provision of an Act purporting to have been enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
has the same effect (and always has had the same effect)
if the Australia Acts had been in operation
at the time of enactment or purported enactment
of each of those provisions
enacted or purporting to have been enacted
and
each provision of an Act enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
or each provision of an Act purporting to have been enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
is as valid (and always has been as valid)
if the Australia Acts had been in operation
at the time of enactment or purported enactment
of each of those provisions enacted or purporting to have been enacted

Oxford Dictionary: purport v. appear to be or do, especially falsely

Because Section 9A—Declaration of validity of certain laws
infers that some Acts have been enacted falsely and only appear to be Acts,
then the Australia Acts have no effect, and never had any effect, on the validity
of any provision of any Act enacted, or purporting to have been enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts.

“Australian Dollars”, (as well as the Governors in all States receiving same),

THE GOVERNOR

19. No part of public revenue to be issued except on warrants from Governor
[Schedule to 18 and 19 Vic. c. 54]

No part of Her Majesty's revenue in the said colony arising from any of the sources hereinafter mentioned shall be issued or shall be made issuable except in pursuance of warrants under the hand of the Governor of the colony directed to the public treasurer thereof.

The Governor who swears/affirms an Oath of Office and an Oath of Allegiance to the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, has the Crown and Constitutional authority – to direct revenue arising from sources such as from the management and sale of Crown Land belonging to our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch – to the public treasurer in Queensland, but a Governor from 1986 who swears/affirms Oaths to a Statutory Instrument, a “Sovereign of Australia”, a “Queen of Australia”, does NOT.

The Financial Administration and Audit Act and Another Act Amendment Act 1988 has taken that revenue and placed it into the hands of the Treasurer in Queensland, who is NO longer a Minister of the Crown, but is a private Treasurer bound to the corporate Queensland Treasury Corporation, created on 1st July 1988.

(1) There must be and continue to be a system of local government in Queensland under which duly elected local government bodies are constituted, each being charged with the good rule and government of that part of Queensland from time to time subject to that system of local government and committed to the jurisdiction of that local government body.....”

but was contra to

which stated that any Bill for any purpose of establishing another legislative body, “shall not be presented to the Governor for the reservation thereof for the signification of His Majesty’s pleasure, or for the Governor’s Assent, or be in any other way assented to, until the Bill has been approved by the electors”.

The Corporations (Queensland) Act 1990, No. 98 of 12th December 1990, was “to apply certain provisions of laws of the Commonwealth relating to corporations, the securities industry and the futures industry as laws of Queensland and for other purposes”, and stated:-

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and purposes.

(1) This Act may be cited as the Corporations (Queensland) Act 1990.

(2) The purposes of this Act are—

(a) to apply certain provisions of the Corporations Act 1989 of the Commonwealth and the Australian Securities Commission Act 1989 of the Commonwealth and of regulations under those Acts as laws of Queensland; and

(b) to apply certain other laws of the Commonwealth as laws of Queensland for the purpose of the administration and enforcement of the law relating to corporations, the securities industry, the futures industry and some other matters.

3. Definitions. (1) In this Act, except where a contrary intention appears—

“Commonwealth law” means any of the written or unwritten laws of the Commonwealth, including laws about the exercise of prerogative powers, rights and privileges, other than the Corporations Law of the Capital Territory, the ASC Law of the Capital Territory or provisions prescribed, for the purposes of the definition of “Commonwealth law” in section 4 of the Corporations Act, by regulations under section 73 of the Corporations Act.

With NO Crown and Constitutional authority, Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, under a progressive evolutionary process under an "Australian" system of government commencing after the Election held on 2nd December 1972, with their own private "Governor-General of Australia" using a "Great Seal of Australia", made purported "laws of Australia".

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, with their objectives to reform the Australian Constitution towards the existence of Australia as an independent republic, under a progressive evolutionary process, proceeded from 24th June 1982, 25th June 1982, and 21st June 1984 Conferences held in Canberra, at which a Prime Minister and Premiers agreed:-

"on the taking of certain measures to bring constitutional arrangements affecting the Commonwealth and the States into conformity with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia as a sovereign, independent and federal nation", called "Australia";

to have those purported elected Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, sitting in purported Parliaments of the States, all being paid in "Australian Currency" in "Australian Dollars", to make in each of those States, "laws of the State" under a "Sovereign of Australia", "Queen of Australia", with a "Governor of the State" using a "Public Seal of the State", in order to conform to the objectives of the Constitutions and policies of the Political Parties.

However those "laws of the State", particularly in Queensland are contra to the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, and contra to Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, sitting as elected purported Members of the Legislative Assembly in a unicameral Parliament in Queensland, deceived our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and us, Her subjects, the people of Queensland and of the Commonwealth of Australia;

by having Sir Walter Campbell, Governor from 22nd July 1985 to 28th July 1992, who was paid in "Australian currency" in "Australian Dollars", "not Pounds", seal the Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985, (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985 with the Royal Coat of Arms "for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the Seal", when that Act consisted of unconstitutional provisions that would NOT pass the Seal;

by having all future Governors in Queensland take Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance and Office to a Statutory Instrument, "Sovereign of Australia", "Queen of Australia";

by altering all "laws of Queensland" as well as reprinting, resealing and copyrighting them to become "laws of the State" in Queensland;

by using words in the "Australian" vernacular to make those changes under an "oligarchy" unicameral purported Parliament of Queensland, then creating their own "Queensland Government"—"Queensland Parliament"—"Queensland Courts", with NO Separation of Powers as required under the Westminster system of government; contra to Section 53—Certain measures to be supported by referendum, under Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia" whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

On Commonwealth Day 2013, the Charter of the Commonwealth was signed by Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth the Second, Head of the Commonwealth, and at VI referred to the Separation of Powers, with the Legislature, Executive and Judiciary being:

"the guarantors in their respective spheres of the rule of law,
the promotion and protection of fundamental human rights
and adherence to good governance".

The Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which includes its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9, and the Schedule, prescribes that only provisions in Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth may be altered, and must be done only by means of a Referendum of the people of the whole of the Commonwealth of Australia, the people living under a Constitutional Monarchy, and Referendum as is required under Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth, Chapter VIII—Alteration of the Constitution, Section 128—Mode of altering the Constitution

The Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which includes its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9, and the Schedule, also prescribes that any alterations to Boundaries of the States and Territories "of the Commonwealth" must be done only by means of a Referendum of the people of the whole of the Commonwealth of Australia, the people living under a Constitutional Monarchy, and Referendum as is required under Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth, Chapter VI—New States, Section 123—Alteration of limits of States.

Under Queensland's Constitution Act Amendment Act 1977, No. 9 of 5th April 1977, Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] was amended to 5th April 1977, to include a Requirement for Referendum with the following extract from Section 53:-

53. Certain measures to be supported by referendum

- (1) A Bill that expressly or impliedly provides for the abolition of or alteration in the office of Governor or that expressly or impliedly in any way affects any of the following sections of this Act namely—
sections 1, 2, 2A, 11A, 11B, 14; and this section 53
shall not be presented for assent by or in the name of the Queen unless it has first been approved by the electors in accordance with this section and a Bill so assented to consequent upon its presentation in contravention of this subsection shall be of no effect as an Act.

Those people eligible to vote in 1900, voted to unite in one indissoluble Federal Commonwealth under the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and under the Constitution thereby established, to live and to be governed under that Constitutional Monarchy, as prescribed inside the Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", commencing under Crown and Constitutional authority on 1st January 1901.

The “Australian Electoral Commission” (AEC), an independent Statutory Authority established by the “Australian Government” on 21st February 1984, following major amendments to the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918, refers to a CD-Rom named “Australian Referendums from 1906 to 1999”, but does not illustrate how it can be downloaded or purchased. It does however, illustrate that the people were asked to vote YES or NO to the following, in the Referendum held on 6th November 1999:-

1. To alter the Constitution to establish the Commonwealth of Australia

as a republic with the Queen and Governor-General being replaced by a President appointed by a two-thirds majority of the members of the Commonwealth Parliament.

2. To alter the Constitution to insert a preamble.

Both Question No. 1 and Question No. 2 were not carried http://www.aec.gov.au/Elections/referendums/Referendum_Dates_and_Results.htm

The above illustrates that it was the will of the people in this country to remain living under a Constitutional Monarchy, NOT under a Republic as presented by the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies.

The people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” and “of Queensland” were deceived by the “Australian Electoral Commission” (AEC) established in 1984, and by the “Electoral Commission of Queensland” (ECQ) established in 1992, under the Electoral Act 1992, No. 28 of 1st June, commencing 19th June 1992,

as the people were coerced into registering on Australian and State Electoral Rolls, to be eligible to vote in Referendums and to vote in Elections for their choice of those who nominated to sit as their purported representatives in Parliaments “of “Australia”; and had not been informed that everything changed from December 1972, and were actually voting for individuals to sit in Parliaments “of Australia”, individuals who as Members of Political Parties, are bound to the Constitutions and policies of those Political Parties, and as such, do not represent those people who voted for them.

Our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch, the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, “Elizabeth the Second by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom
of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Our other Realms & Territories
Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith”
as referred to on 9th March 1977, by Herself in Her Majesty’s Royal Warrant for Queensland, granting Supporters of a Red Deer and a Brolga

to the Armorial Ensigns granted under the Royal Warrant of 29th April 1893,
by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, Queen Victoria.

(Refer Section 41 of the Evidence Act 1977, No. 47 of 3rd October 1977, at Part IV—Judicial Notice of Seals, Signatures and Legislative Enactments stating the Seal of Queensland is to be judicially noticed in all courts.

is NOT the same as the “Sovereign of Australia”, “Queen of Australia” that with the 14th February 1986 Letters Patent (proclaimed 6th March)(gazetted 8th March), (which unconstitutionally revoked the 10th June 1925 Letters Patent which had appointed a Governor by Commission under “Royal Sign Manual” and “Signet”), appointed a “Governor of the State” by Commission under a Queen’s “Sign Manual” and gave unconstitutional authority for a “Public Seal of the State” to be used to appoint Members of the Executive Council of Queensland and a Deputy Governor.

From 1985, laws in Queensland did NOT have Crown and Constitutional authority to have been sealed with the Royal Coat of Arms, including but not limited to:-

However, from the Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985, No. 69 of 16th October 1985, all Queensland Legislation would have been unconstitutionally assented to by a Governor in Queensland, bound to all Letters Patent from 14th February 1986, and who would have had NO Crown and Constitutional authority to place the seal of the Royal Coat of Arms on any legislation that would NOT pass the Royal Coat of Arms, i.e. Private Acts made by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, bound to the sovereign, independent and federal nation called "Australia".

The Acts Interpretation Amendment Act 1991, No. 30 of 12th June 1991, which was: "to amend the Acts Interpretation Act 1954 to facilitate Plain English drafting and the reprinting of legislation, and for other purposes", again brings to mind the progressive replacing of historical data with edited digital reprints, similar to the predictions George Orwell's book "1984", and brings us back to Australia's Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, made by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, to create their own "Australia" or "the Commonwealth" by altering the Constitutional and official definitions in the Acts Interpretation Act 1901-1966, culminating with being registered in Washington D.C. (District of Columbia).

The Acts Interpretation Amendment Act 1991, No. 30 of 12th June 1991, “to amend the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, to facilitate Plain English drafting and the reprinting of legislation, and for other purposes”, was shown “online” as not being sealed with the Royal Coat of Arms, but was sealed with a blurred picture purporting to be the “Seal of Queensland”, was copyrighted “© The State of Queensland 1991” and made numerous amendments to Queensland’s Acts Interpretation Act 1954, including, but not limited to:-

Provision 13.(4) Section 14 of the Principal Act is amended in subsection (2)

by omitting

The omissions made by the Australia Acts 1986 are bolded and underlined in the following Sections 11A and 11B of Queensland's Constitution Act 1867:-

THE GOVERNOR

11A. Office of Governor

- (1) The Queen's representative in Queensland is the Governor who shall hold office during Her Majesty's pleasure.
- (2) Abolition of or alteration in the office of Governor shall not be effected by an Act of the Parliament except in accordance with section 53.
- (3) In this Act and in every other Act a reference to the Governor shall be taken—
 - (a) to be a reference to the person appointed for the time being by the Queen by Commission under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual and Signet to the office of Governor of the State of Queensland constituted under Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom; and
 - (b) to include any other person appointed by dormant or other Commission under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet to administer the Government of the State of Queensland whenever and so long as the office of Governor is vacant or the Governor is incapable of discharging the duties of administration or has departed from Queensland.

the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure
Bills to be passed by the Legislative Assembly.
- (2) In this section and in section 11A
the expression "Royal Sign Manual"

and the expression "Signet"

commonly used for the sign manual of the Sovereign
or the seal
with which documents are sealed
by the Secretary of State in the United Kingdom
on behalf of the Sovereign.

The omissions made by the Australia Acts 1986 are bolded and underlined in the following Section 14 of Queensland's Constitution Act 1867:-

THE GOVERNOR

Appointment to offices under the Government of the colony
to be vested in the Governor in Council or alone

14. (1) The appointment of all public offices
under the Government of the colony hereafter to become vacant or to be created whether such offices be salaried or not shall be vested in the Governor in Council with the exception of the appointments of the officers
liable to retire from office on political grounds which appointments shall be vested in the Governor alone.

Exceptions

Provided always that this enactment shall not extend to minor appointments which by Act of the Legislature or by order of the Governor in Council may be vested in heads of departments or other officers or persons within the colony.

- (2) Officers liable to retire from office on political grounds shall hold office at the pleasure of the Governor who in the exercise of his power to appoint and dismiss such officers,
subject to his performing his duty prescribed by section 11B,

nor be limited as to his sources of advice.

Section 53—Certain measures to be supported by referendum of Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977, states: A Bill that expressly or impliedly provides for the abolition of or alteration in the office of Governor or that expressly or impliedly in any way affects any of the following sections of this Act namely—

sections 1, 2, 2A, 11A, 11B, 14; and this section 53
shall not be presented for assent by or in the name of the Queen unless it has first been approved by the electors in accordance with this section and a Bill so assented to consequent upon its presentation in contravention of this subsection shall be of no effect as an Act **.

By altering the office of Governor, and by amending Sections 11A, 11B and 14, Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, acted contra to Section 53—Certain measures to be supported by referendum of Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977, and contra to the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, by removing from the people, the Separation of Powers between Parliaments, Governments and Courts.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia" whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Acts Interpretation Act 1954 [3 Eliz. 2 No. 3] of 27th April 1954,
as amended and Current as at 22nd March 2016

“An Act to assist in the shortening and interpretation of Queensland Acts”

Part 3—General provisions applying to Acts

9A—Declaration of validity of certain laws

Each provision of an Act

enacted, or purporting to have been enacted,
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
has (and always has had) the same effect as it would have had,
and is (and always has been) as valid as it would have been,
if the Australia Acts had been in operation
at the time of its enactment or purported enactment.

Explanation:-

Each provision of an Act enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
or each provision of an Act purporting to have been enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
has the same effect (and always has had the same effect)
if the Australia Acts had been in operation
at the time of enactment or purported enactment
of each of those provisions
enacted or purporting to have been enacted
and
each provision of an Act enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
or each provision of an Act purporting to have been enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
is as valid (and always has been as valid)
if the Australia Acts had been in operation
at the time of enactment or purported enactment
of each of those provisions enacted or purporting to have been enacted

Oxford Dictionary: purport v. appear to be or do, especially falsely

Note that because Section 9A—Declaration of validity of certain laws
infers that some Acts have been enacted falsely and only appear to be Acts,
then the Australia Acts have no effect, and never had any effect,
on the validity of any provision of any Act enacted,
or purporting to have been enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts.

Therefore, since the Australia Acts 1986 which commenced 3rd March 1986, all of our Constitutional Laws of Queensland are sitting sine die, waiting to be returned to the people of Queensland, “a State” of “the Commonwealth of Australia”.

Note again that resulting from the Australia Acts 1986, the Letters Patent 1986, the Constitution (Office of Governor) Act 1987, No. 73 of 1st December 1987 and Constitution (Office of Governor) Act Amendment Act 1989, No. 71 24th August and many other “laws of the State” which amended Constitutional Statutes;

a “Governor of the State” appointed by Commission under Sign Manual of a Statutory Instrument, “Sovereign of Australia”, named “Queen of Australia” under the Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973, created by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies;

a “Governor of the State” with the unconstitutional authority to keep and use a “Public Seal of the State” for sealing all public instruments made and passed in the name of a “Sovereign of Australia”, a Statutory Instrument “Queen of Australia”;

was to take the following Oath of Allegiance and Office and to administer the same to elected Members of Political Parties before they sat in the purported Parliament:-

“I, . . . (name of member) . . . do sincerely promise and swear
that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her (or His) Majesty . . . (name of Sovereign) . . . as lawful Sovereign of Australia and Her (or His) other Realms and Territories, and to Her (or His) Heirs and Successors, according to law.
So help me God.”

whereas the Constitutional Governor appointed by Commission under Letters Patent under Royal Sign Manual and Signet, had the Crown and Constitutional authority to take the following Oath of Allegiance and Office and to administer the same to Constitutionally elected representatives of the people, before they sat in the Constitutional Legislative Assembly of the Parliament of Queensland, as under Section 4, Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 as amended to 5th April 1977:-

No member of the Legislative Assembly shall be permitted to sit or vote therein until he shall have taken and subscribed the following oath before the Governor of the colony or before some person or persons authorized by such Governor to administer such oath

“I A.B. do sincerely promise and swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria as lawful Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of this Colony of Queensland dependent on and belonging to the said United Kingdom
So help me God”.

In "Australia", "Bill" Hayden was Governor-General from 16/02/1989 to 16/02/1996, with Paul Keating as unconstitutional Prime Minister from 20/12/1991 to 11/03/1996.

In Queensland, Sir Walter Campbell was Governor from 22/07/1985 to 28/07/1992, with Wayne Goss as unconstitutional Premier from 02/12/1989 to 20/02/1996.

- a cooperative national approach to the environment;
- a better definition of the roles of the respective governments;
- a reduction in the number of disputes between the Commonwealth and the States and Territories on environment issues;

"Within the policy, legislative and administrative framework applying in each State, the use of natural resources and land, remain a matter for the owners of the land or resources, whether they are Government bodies or private persons";

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, sitting inside their own created corporate Parliaments "of Australia" under their ideals and progressive evolution to have "Australia as an independent republic".

proceeded, purportedly to "protect the environment" in the "interest of the public", to make legislation detrimental to the Constitutional rights, liberties and privileges of the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" and Constitutional rights to property, particularly land held in an Estate in fee simple under the Real Property Act 1861.

"fee simple" Law a permanent and absolute tenure of an estate in land with freedom to dispose of it at will

Refer: <http://www.austlii.edu.au/au/cases/cth/HCA/1923/34.html>

In the High Court's Commonwealth v New South Wales [1923] HCA 34;

9 August 1923; (1923) 33 CLR 1;

(Knox C.J., Isaacs, Higgins, Gavan Duffy and Starke JJ.)

Justice Isaacs stated:-

"..... the highest estate known to the law is a fee simple"

"..... In Challis's Real Property, 3rd ed., p. 218, it is stated with perfect accuracy:—

' A fee simple is the most extensive in quantum, and the most absolute in respect to the rights which it confers,
of all estates known to the law.'

It confers, and since the beginning of legal history it always has conferred, the lawful right to exercise over, upon, and in respect to, the land, every act of ownership which can enter into the imagination, including the right to commit unlimited waste;

and, for all practical purposes of ownership,
it differs from the absolute dominion of a chattel,
in nothing except the physical indestructibility of its subject.

Besides these rights of ownership, a fee simple at the present day confers an absolute right, both of alienation inter vivos and of devise by will. ' "

"..... Haldane also speaks of a case where 'the title of the Sovereign is a pure legal estate, to which beneficial rights may or may not be attached'"

"..... The same learned Lord, again for the Privy Council, had already in Smith v. Vermillion Hills Municipality recognized the principle when he spoke of certain land 'the fee of which is in the Crown'. "

1st January 1973 the United Kingdom joined the European Economic Market (EEC).

17th February 1986 the United Kingdom was a signatory to the Single European Act.

3rd March 1986 the Australia Acts 1986 purportedly commenced.

7th February 1992 the United Kingdom was a signatory to the Maastricht Treaty which created the European Union (EU).

1st May 1992 the Intergovernmental Agreement on the Environment (IGAE) was signed in "Australia". (Also formed in May 1992 was COAG).

13th May 1992 the Queensland Government (Land Holding) Amendment Act 1992 amended the Land Act 1962 and the Real Property Act 1861, the corporate "Queensland Government",

a signatory to the IGAE

(Intergovernmental Agreement on the Environment)

and a member of COAG created in May 1992,

(Council of Australian Governments)

took over the ownership of all land in Queensland.

A Certificate of Title to an Estate in fee simple of land alienated from the Crown by the Crown within the said State of Queensland, with reservations to the Crown as shown on the Deed of Grant granted by a Governor who was appointed by Commission under Letters Patent under Royal Sign Manual and Signet, should show the Royal Coat of Arms with the Lion and the Unicorn, e.g.:-

Certificate of Title.

However, the corporate "Queensland Government" has taken ownership of land by placing its corporate seal on a landowner's Certificate of Title to land, and by unconstitutionally authorising its Minister, or a person authorised by its Minister, to deal with land held under the name "Queensland Government", e.g.:-

CERTIFICATE OF TITLE QUEENSLAND

and has therewith enabled further constitutional arrangements affecting the Commonwealth and the States to be brought into conformity with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia as a sovereign, independent and federal nation" as intended under the Australia Acts 1986 by Members of Political Parties each under their own Party's Constitution and policies.

The corporate “Queensland Government” “of the State” “in Queensland”, is NOT the same as the Constitutional “Government of Queensland”, “of a State” “of Queensland” defined in the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, stating at:-

Clause 6—Definitions

6. “The Commonwealth” shall mean
the Commonwealth of Australia as established under this Act.
“The States” each of the Commonwealth be called “a State”

Clause 2—Act to extend to the Queen’s successors.

2. The provisions of this Act referring to the Queen shall extend to Her Majesty’s heirs and successors
in the sovereignty of the United Kingdom”.

On 8th February 1952, the heir and successor to
the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, Queen Victoria, was Her Royal Highness Princess Elizabeth, was daughter of King George the Sixth, and who on 2nd June 1953 at Her Coronation, after swearing an Oath in front of Almighty God, and the Archbishop of Canterbury and other witnesses in the Church of England’s Collegiate Church of St Peter Westminster, became:-

our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch,
the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty,
holder of the “Crown” of the United Kingdom Empire, and holder to the allodial title to all land in the Queen’s Dominions, and in this instance the land in “a State” named “Queensland”.

However, our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and Her subjects have been deceived by a “Queensland Government” taking ownership of land in Queensland, resulting in the everlasting, detrimental and unlawful effect on the personal and real property of Her Majesty, Her Majesty’s heirs and successors, and Her subjects.

The “Queensland Government”, “Queensland Parliament”, “Queensland Courts” then proceeded to take further control over the people and land in Queensland, with Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, making further “laws of the State”, including but not limited to the following:-

*Nature Conservation Act 1992, No. 20 of 22nd May 1992

Note: The Intergovernmental Agreement on the Environment (IGAE)
was signed on 1st May 1992, after which in May 1992
the Council of Australian Governments (COAG) was formed, and the Queensland Government (Land Holding) Amendment Act 1992 was made on 13th May 1992, taking ownership of the land.

On 23rd October 1974, the Property Law Bill 1974, No. 76, was introduced into the Legislative Assembly, as written in Hansard Pages 1560 to 1566. Extracts:-

"Property law in Queensland is at present stated in numerous Queensland Acts, some Acts inherited from New South Wales on separation, approximately 45 old Imperial Acts dating back to the year 1266 and many common law rules and judicial decisions. The Property Law Bill is designed to codify and reform all of the laws relating to property rights and liabilities and to provide a permanent code of principles of property law, simplified and expressed modern language all in the one statute. The Bill will commence on 1 December 1975."

The Real Property Acts provide the method of registration of title to freehold land known as the "Torrens System". This system has greatly simplified transfers and other dealings with land and today almost all freehold land in Queensland has been registered under it. However, it has been estimated that there still remain approximately 1200 parcels of unregistered land scattered throughout the State.

The ultimate objective is to have all freehold land registered under the Torrens system within a foreseeable period of time and provisions have been included in the Bill to achieve this objective.

The Constitution Act Amendment Act 1989, No. 93 of 10th October 1989 created a system of unconstitutional corporate local government in Queensland, whereby the registered owners of indefeasible Titles to Estates in fee simple of land, have been and are still being burdened, as to the use of that land, by having the policies of the corporate “Queensland Government” enforced upon them as to the use of that land, and by having their land compulsorily auctioned for any non-payment of government fees, charges and rates, despite that land having been alienated from the “Crown” by the “Crown” within the said State, as is written in the “Crown” contract with registered owners under Queensland’s Real Property Act 1861.

The words “Australia” and “the Commonwealth” and their “Australian” vernacular use, are the “Keys” to the deception used by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies.

The Australian Citizenship Act 1973, No. 99 of 17th September 1973,
by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution,
sitting inside their own "Australia" or "the Commonwealth", with their
"Australian Government Gazette" and "Government Printer of Australia"

Oath/Affirmation of Allegiance to a NON-existent "Queen of Australia"
with their numerous amendments to the Citizenship Act 1948-1969
including the repealing of the Second and Third Schedules
and the substituting of new Schedule 2 and Schedule 3
with new Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance, such as:-

that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to
Her Majesty Elizabeth the Second,
Queen of Australia, Her heirs and successors according to law,

Research reveals that in the majority of the Constitutions of Political Parties in "Australia", the objectives include to reform the Australian Constitution and other political institutions, to ensure that they reflect the will of the majority of the Australian citizens and the existence of Australia as an independent republic.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, must, at the time of joining or transferring to the branch or sub-branch which has geographical coverage, either be correctly enrolled with the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) to vote in a federal election at their stated address or not be so entitled because they are under 18 years of age or not an Australian citizen. The conferral of Australian citizenship is a critical part of encouraging participation by new migrants in the Australian community.

The "Australian Electoral Commission" (AEC), an independent Statutory Authority was established by the "Australian Government" on 21st February 1984, following major amendments to the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918.

The people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" and "of Queensland" were deceived by the "Australian Electoral Commission" (AEC) established in 1984, and by the "Electoral Commission of Queensland" (ECQ) established in 1992, under the Electoral Act 1992, No. 28 of 1st June, commencing 19th June 1992.

The people coerced into registering on Australian and State Electoral Rolls, in order to vote in Referendums and in Elections for their choice of those people who nominated to sit as their purported representatives in “Parliaments “of “Australia””; had not first been informed that everything changed from December 1972, and were actually to vote for individuals to sit in “Australian Parliaments”, individuals who as Members of Political Parties, are bound to the Constitutions and policies of those Political Parties, and as such, do not represent those people who voted for them.

Our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch, the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty,

“Elizabeth the Second by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom
of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Our other Realms & Territories
Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith”

as referred to on 9th March 1977, by Herself in Her Majesty’s Royal Warrant for Queensland, granting Supporters of a Red Deer and a Brolga
to the Armorial Ensigns granted under the Royal Warrant of 29th April 1893,
by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, Queen Victoria; (Refer Section 41 of the Evidence Act 1977, No. 47 of 3rd October 1977, at

Part IV—Judicial Notice of Seals, Signatures and Legislative Enactments stating the Seal of Queensland is to be judicially noticed in all courts;

is NOT the same as the “Sovereign of Australia”, “Queen of Australia” that with the 14th February 1986 Letters Patent (proclaimed 6th March)(gazetted 8th March), (which unconstitutionally revoked the 10th June 1925 Letters Patent which had appointed a Governor by Commission under “Royal Sign Manual” and “Signet”), appointed a “Governor of the State” by Commission under a Queen’s “Sign Manual” and gave unconstitutional authority for a “Public Seal of the State” to be used to appoint Members of the Executive Council of Queensland and a Deputy Governor.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, under a systematic progressive evolution after the Elections in December 1972, and sitting inside their own created “Australia” or “the Commonwealth”, created their own “Australian Government Gazette”, “Government Printer of Australia”,
“Land for Australia”, “Australian Citizens” making Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance to a Queen of Australia, and with their own private “Governor-General of Australia” using a “Great Seal of Australia”, and with their “Federal Court of Australia”, “Australian Federal Police”, “High Court of Australia”, “Letters Patent of 21st August 1984”,

and receiving from 1966 “Australian currency” in “Australian Dollars”, (as well as the Governors in all States receiving same);

deceived our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and Her subjects, with creations contra to the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule;

and deceived our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and Her subjects with their constitutional arrangements to have each of the States conform to the “laws of Australia”, contra to the Constitutions of each State, i.e. each being “a State” “of the Commonwealth of Australia” as established on 1st January 1901, and with their constitutional arrangements to particularly have Queensland conform, with their Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985 No. 69 of 16th October 1985, and Letters Patent of 14th February 1986, Proclaimed and Gazetted 6th and 8th March 1986, contra to Queensland’s Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No. 38] as amended to 5th April 1977.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, acting as a Prime Minister "of Australia" and Premiers in the States "of Australia", agreed at Conferences on 24th June 1982, 25th June 1982, and 21st June 1984,

“on the taking of certain measures to bring constitutional arrangements
affecting the Commonwealth and the States
into conformity
with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia
as a sovereign, independent and federal nation”;

[Refer Oxford Dictionary:-

“conformity n. compliance with conventions, rules or laws ”
“status n. the official classification given to a person, country, etc. ”
“constitutional adj. relating to or in accordance with a constitution ”
“arrangement n. a plan for a future event ”
“sovereign adj. possessing supreme or ultimate power ”
“independent adj. free from outside control; not subject to another's authority ”]

and consequently took certain measures to have those Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, who were purportedly elected into each of the Parliaments of the States, to make constitutional arrangements to have laws "of the State" conform to the constitutions of the Political Parties, including to reform the Australian Constitution and the Constitutions of the States, towards the existence of Australia as an independent republic;

with some of those measures of constitutional arrangements to also include the:-

Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985 (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985
Australia Act 1986, No. 142 of 4th December 1985 of “Australia”

The Real Property Acts and Other Acts Amendment Act 1986,
No. 26 of 8th April 1986,

was “to amend the Real Property Act 1861-1985,
the Real Property Act 1877-1981 and other specified Acts, to facilitate the computerization of the office of the Registrar of Titles,
to make other amendments and for related purposes”

but was also part of those measures of constitutional arrangements, because just as with the predictions by George Orwell in his book named “1984” (later made into a movie called “Big Brother”), it actually set the stage to replace “books” with “digital reprints”, as under the Reprints Act 1992, No. 27 of 1st June 1992

“relating to reprints of legislation and for other purposes related to legislation”, sealed with a blurred picture purporting to be a “Seal of Queensland”, that would no doubt have represented a “Public Seal of the State”, and copyrighted “© The State of Queensland 1992”.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia" whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.
(P. 292, §118)

The Queensland's Government's Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel under "Acts as passed", currently lists Links to Queensland Legislation enacted by the Parliament for each year from 1963 to 2016, as updated on 04.01.2016, and there are 85 "Acts as passed" in 1993, but there are differences between them.

Each of Nos 1 to 9 purport to have the Constitutional enacting manner and form:-

"BE IT ENACTED

by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty,
by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Queensland in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows",

but are sealed with a blurred picture purporting to be a "Seal of Queensland", but would no doubt have represented a "Public Seal of the State", and are copyrighted "© The State of Queensland 1993", so Nos 1 to 9 therefore, are contra to the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia",

the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule; and are contra to Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977, and to the Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, who stated:-

¶ 11. "By the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty."

" The enacting words, showing the Authority by which the Commonwealth is created, are in the form in which Acts of Parliament have been framed from a remote period of English history. According to the theory of the Constitution the Queen is the source of law, the Queen makes new laws, the Queen alters or repeals old laws, subject only to the condition that this supreme power must be exercised in Parliament and not otherwise. Every Act of Parliament bears on its face the stamp and evidence of its royal authority. It springs from the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty. It is in the Crown, and not in Parliament, that legislative authority is, according to Constitutional theory, directly vested. Parliament is the body assigned by law to advise the Crown in matters of legislation, and the Crown could not legally legislate without the advice and consent of Parliament."

¶ 7. "Under the Crown."

" It is a concrete and unequivocal acknowledgment of a principle which pervades the whole scheme of Government; harmony with the British Constitution and loyalty to the Queen as the visible central authority uniting the British Empire with its multitudinous peoples

In fact, after – the Australia Acts 1986, purportedly commencing 3rd March 1986;
and under a corporate "Queen of Australia" the 14th February 1986 Letters Patent, which was Proclaimed 6th March 1986 and Gazetted 8th March 1986, which revoked the 10th June 1925 Letters Patent, and which in Queensland, removed the "Signet" from Governor Commissions to which the "Public Seal of the State" was affixed – all laws in Queensland, irrespective of their seals and enacting manner and form, are NULL and VOID. Those Governors have NO Crown and Constitutional authority to give Royal Assent on behalf of the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, to any law consisting of unconstitutional provisions; NO Crown and Constitutional authority to seal with the Royal Coat of Arms any law that would NOT pass the Seal of the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, sitting as elected purported Members of the Legislative Assembly in a unicameral Parliament in Queensland, deceived our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and us, Her subjects, the people of Queensland and of the Commonwealth of Australia;

by having Sir Walter Campbell, Governor from 22nd July 1985 to 28th July 1992, who was paid in "Australian currency" in "Australian Dollars", "not Pounds", to seal the Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985, (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985 with the Royal Coat of Arms "for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the Seal", when that Act consisted of unconstitutional provisions that would NOT pass the Seal;

by having all future Governors in Queensland take Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance and Office to a Statutory Instrument, "Sovereign of Australia", "Queen of Australia";

by altering all "laws of Queensland" as well as reprinting, resealing and copyrighting them to become "laws of the State" in Queensland;

by using words in the "Australian" vernacular to make those changes under an "oligarchy" unicameral purported Parliament of Queensland,

then creating their own

"Queensland Government"—"Queensland Parliament"—"Queensland Courts", with NO Separation of Powers as required under the Westminster system of government;

all done contra to Section 53—Certain measures to be supported by referendum, of Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977.

In the Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, it is stated with respect to Chapter III—The Judicature, Judicial Power and Courts:-

¶ 286. The Judicial Power.

“ SEPARATION OF POWERS.—The judicial power is the power appropriate to the third great department of government, and is distinct from both the legislative and the executive powers. The judicial function is that of hearing and determining questions which arise as to the interpretation of the law, and its application to particular cases. “The distinction between the departments undoubtedly is, that the legislature makes, the executive executes, and the judiciary construes, the law.”

Mr Fitzgerald:

I was rather bemused by section 8 of the Supreme Court Act of 1867, which, under this Bill, is to be omitted.

Of course, it is interesting to note that a couple of days ago, this House resolved to change the wording of our Acts.

We wanted to get rid of the Crown, and we wanted to get rid of—

Mr Beanland: Originally, get rid of Parliament.

Mr Fitzgerald:

Of course, originally it was to get rid of Parliament, but it now reads, “The Government enacts”.

An honourable member interjected.

Mr Fitzgerald:

That was the statement that was made by the Premier.

There is no doubt about that; that was his original intention.

Pages 2542 to 2552 of Hansard dated 11th May 1993 show that the motion, without notice, by the Premier Wayne Goss,

“That the House resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole to consider a proposed amendment to Rule of Practice No. 10 of the Standing Rules and Orders of the Legislative Assembly”, was agreed to and in Committee, the Premier then moved:-

“(1) That Rule of Practice No. 10 of the Standing Rules and Orders of the Legislative Assembly be amended by omitting ‘Be it enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Queensland in Parliament assembled,
and by the authority of the same, as follows’
and inserting ‘The Parliament of Queensland enacts’.

“ This morning, I wrote to the Speaker, the Leader of the Opposition and other members of the Standing Orders Committee, giving notice of this proposal. Of course, members had been aware of it for some time, because it has been approximately a month since I announced on behalf of the Government the proposal to move in this direction in respect of the drafting of Queensland legislation as part of a general review of Queensland legislation and oaths of allegiance to remove references to the Queen and the Crown and to replace them with more modern and Australian language. ”

“ This motion is about the need to move away from some of the mumbo jumbo of Queensland’s colonial past, and to adopt a more modern and Australian identity and character. ”

“ There is no requirement for an amendment to an Act of Parliament to bring this into effect. Lest there be any doubt, I point out that there is no requirement for a referendum on the matter. ”

“ Just as Australia has evolved and changed, members should also appreciate the significance of the fact that England has also changed. England has moved in the direction of Europe, in search of a more European identity. England has turned away from Australia, New Zealand and the Commonwealth in pursuit of a European identity. England has also turned away from the Commonwealth in pursuit of its own economic interests. ”

And what a difference it has made! No doubt every Queenslander today feels that this is the dawning of a new era for the State and that everything will all be all right; everyone will have a job; no-one will be unhappy; and the world will be a better place because the Government changed five words in the preamble so that it reads, “The Parliament of Queensland enacts”.

Page 5986, where Mr Mackenroth was quoted in Hansard as saying:-

“The only general limitation on a local government in the exercise of its jurisdiction is that a council has no power to make a local law which the State Parliament could not make or attempts to limit the future lawmaking role of the local government.
Where any inconsistency occurs between a State law or a local law,
the State law would prevail over the local law
to the extent of the inconsistency.

This is the same philosophy in the Australian Constitution that applies to Commonwealth and State laws.

This is an extraordinarily wide charter for local government and represents the most autonomy and the broadest general competence power granted to any local government system in Australia.”

The Third Reading and Debate on 30th November 1993 are on Pages 6184 to 6263

“I want to follow the sequence that the Minister adopted in his second-reading speech and begin with the role of local government in general.

I note that the oath of allegiance has been removed from the Local Government Act. A declaration now applies.

I view that with some sadness.

If we truly believe that local government is an important tier of Government in this country, it should be treated in the same way as the other two tiers.

I regard local government as the most important tier,
followed by the State and Federal Governments.

In a constitutional monarchy,
the monarch is the head of all Governments.

I believe that the oath of allegiance
should not have been removed from the Act.”

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia”
whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, with their intention “to facilitate Plain English drafting and the reprinting of legislation” and to conform to the existence of “Australia” as an independent republic and to conform to “the status of the Commonwealth of Australia as a sovereign, independent and federal nation” called “Australia”;

created in Queensland, their own entities of “the State” including their own:- “Queensland Parliament” — “Queensland Government” — “Queensland Courts”, to operate under a corporate Australian system of government and in conformity with the “Australian Government” — “Parliament of Australia” — “Australian Courts”, with Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance and Office to a “Sovereign of Australia”, a Statutory Instrument “Queen of Australia” under the Royal Style and Titles Act 1973, No. 114 of 19th October 1973;

with their own private “Governor in Council” using a “Public Seal of the State”, as referred to in the Constitution (Office of Governor) Act Amendment Act 1989, No. 71 of 24th August 1989; and with their own “Consolidated Fund” by replacing the “Consolidated Revenue Fund” in the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977, with their own Financial Administration and Audit Amendment Act 1991, No. 37 of 12th June 1991; and with the Appropriation Act 1991-1992 (No. 1) 1991, No. 39 of 5th August 1991, showing with respect to public accounts, distribution in Dollars not Pounds; and with their own Courts, with their own Judges appointed by their own “Governor in Council” under their Supreme Court of Queensland Act 1991, No. 68 of 24th October 1991;

and with their

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No. 2) 1992 No. 68, 7th December 1992 made numerous amendments, including, but not limited to:-

Queensland’s Property Law Act 1974, Act No. 76 of 1st November 1974, which was “An Act to consolidate, amend, and reform the law relating to Conveyancing, Property, and Contract, and to terminate the application of certain statutes”, and sealed with the Royal Coat of Arms to give Royal Assent on behalf of the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch, amendments which included but are not limited to:-

omitting “Her Majesty” (wherever occurring) and inserting “the State” in Section 20(6), (7)(b), (8A) and Schedule 1, clause 7;

omitting “Her Majesty in right of the Crown” (wherever occurring) and inserting “the State” in Schedule 1, Clauses 1 and 2;

omitting “Her Majesty’s” and inserting “the State’s” in Schedule 1, Clause 7; omitting “Crown” (wherever occurring) and inserting “State” in Section 20(11);

omitting “the fee simple or other” (wherever occurring) from Section 29(1) and (2).

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, then created their own “Automated Titling System” (ATS) for land, and replaced the Real Property Acts with their Land Title Act 1994, No. 11 of 7th March 1994, and replaced the Land Act 1962 with their Land Act 1994, No. 81 of 1st December 1994, thereby deceiving our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch with respect to the Crown’s rights to Her Majesty’s allodial title to land in Queensland.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia” whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Section 5—Act binds all persons

5. This Act binds all persons, including the State and, so far as the legislative power of the Parliament permits, the Commonwealth, the other States and the Territories.

However, the “Queensland Parliament” does NOT have the legislative power or Crown and Constitutional authority to have the Land Title Act 1994 bind any person, or State under the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, which states:-

Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws

5. This Act, and all laws made by the Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Constitution, shall be binding on the courts, judges, and people of every State and of every part of the Commonwealth, notwithstanding anything in the laws of any State.

The Parliament, Government, Courts and people in Queensland are also bound to Queensland’s Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977, and anything not granted to them under the Commonwealth and State Constitutions, is denied them.

Extracts from Part 3—Freehold Land Register

Division 2—Indefeasible title

Section 37—Creation of indefeasible title

37. An indefeasible title for a lot is created on the recording of the particulars of the lot in the freehold land register.

Division 3—Certificates of title

Section 42—Issuing of certificates of title

- 42.(1) The Registrar may issue a certificate containing the indefeasible title for a lot (the “certificate of title”) at the written request of the registered owner.
- (2) However, the Registrar must not issue the certificate of title for the lot if the lot is subject to a registered mortgage.
- (3) Also, if an instrument has been lodged to register an interest in the lot, the Registrar may refuse to issue the certificate of title until the instrument has been registered.
- (4) The Registrar may give the certificate of title to the registered owner—
- (a) by posting it to the owner or to someone else specified in the owner’s request, at the address specified in the request; or
 - (b) by personally giving it to the owner or someone else specified in the request.

Extracts from Part 4—Registration of Land

Division 1—Alienation of State land

Section 47—Alienated State land to be registered

- 47.(1) If land is alienated from the State, the deed of grant for the land must be lodged in the land registry.
- (2) The Registrar must register the deed of grant by recording the particulars of the grant in the freehold land register.

Division 2—Land held by State

Section 48—Land held by the State

48. The State may, under this Act, acquire, hold and deal with lots.

Note: A Certificate of Title to an Estate in fee simple of land alienated from the Crown by the Crown within the said State of Queensland, with reservations to the Crown as shown on the Deed of Grant granted by a Governor who was appointed by Commission under Letters Patent under Royal Sign Manual and Signet, should show the Royal Coat of Arms with the Lion and the Unicorn.

However, the corporate “Queensland Government” has unconstitutionally taken ownership of all land in Queensland, and places its corporate seal on a landowner’s Certificate of Title to land, and by unconstitutionally authorising its Minister, or a person authorised by its Minister, deals with land held under the name “Queensland Government”.

Extract from Pages 6904 to 6906 of Hansard dated 16th February 1994, of the First and Second Readings of the Land Title Bill:-

“This Bill seeks to consolidate the existing Real Property Acts, particularly the Real Property Act 1861 and the Real Property Act 1877, and it will allow reforms of land titling legislation as well as updating and streamlining the process of registration of interests in land. The Bill is based substantially on a draft Bill which was included in the Law Reform Commission’s Report No. 40 on the consolidation of the Real Property Acts. Additions and alterations have been made to the Law Reform Commission Bill in consultation with that commission to allow for the introduction of what is known as the Automated Titling System. The additions and alterations will reform the land titling legislation, simplify the administration of the land titling function and allow a simpler operation of the Torrens system of registration of interests in land. It is appropriate at this time to give to the Parliament a brief outline of what constitutes the Automated Titling System. Currently, the Land Titles Register in this State is maintained in a paper format with some 1.7 million “live” Certificates of Title stored in the department’s land registries in Brisbane, Rockhampton and Townsville. The Automated Titling System, or ATS as it is commonly known, will involve the conversion of that information currently stored in a paper form into an electronic format. The end result will be that the entire history of each lot of freehold land in this State will, during a period of approximately two years, be captured into an electronic record. It is this entire history which will still constitute the Land Titles Register. In the capture process, each lot will retain its own title to be known as an indefeasible title. This indefeasible title will show the current registered particulars in relation to that lot; for example, the registered owner of the lot and all other registered interests in the land including, as appropriate, mortgages, leases, easements, etc. A printed version of that information to be known as a Certificate of Title will be supplied to the registered owners of the land if requested by them.”

ACTS INTERPRETATION ACT 1954

Amendments

1. After section 15D—

insert—

‘Automatic commencement of postponed law

‘15DA. (1) In this section—

“assent day” means the date of assent of—

(a) if the postponed law is an Act—the Act; or

(b) if the postponed law is a provision of an Act—the Act that enacts the provision;

“postponed law” means an Act or provision of an Act that does not commence on the assent day because a provision of an Act postpones its commencement until a day fixed under an instrument.

‘(2) If a postponed law has not commenced

within 1 year of the assent day,

it automatically commences on the next day.

- ‘(3) However, within 1 year of the assent day, a regulation may extend the period before commencement under subsection (2) to not more than 2 years of the assent day.
- ‘(4) The regulation mentioned in subsection (3) may be made under—
 - (a) the Act that is the postponed law; or
 - (b) the Act of which the postponed law is a provision; or
 - (c) an Act that the postponed law amends;
 - as if the Act mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) included a provision that had commenced and authorised the regulation to be made.
- ‘(5) This section—
 - (a) only applies to a postponed law enacted after 31 December 1994; and
 - (b) applies to a postponed law unless an Act expressly states it does not apply.

Example—

The Hypothetical Act 1995 was assented to on 5 April 1995 and was expressed to commence on a day to be fixed by proclamation. If the Act was not commenced by 5 April 1996, it would commence on 6 April 1996 under subsection (2) unless a regulation had been made under subsection (3) extending time for commencement.’.

Extract from Schedule 1—Explanatory Note—Section 5:-

Explanatory note

Automatic commencement of postponed law—amendment 1

A Bill often provides that the Act or provision of the Act is to commence on a day fixed by an instrument such as a proclamation. This allows flexibility about when the Act or provision will commence. Flexibility is particularly useful if preparation (for example, conducting community information programs or making a regulation) is necessary before the legislation operates and preparation length is uncertain.

Section 15D deals with commencement by proclamation or other instrument. Proposed section 15DA reinforces Parliament’s control by setting an outer limit for commencement. To allow ample time for the integration of this new limit into the legislation’s administrative implementation, the limit only applies to Acts enacted from 1 January 1995—proposed subsection (5)(a).

Proposed subsection (2) automatically commences an uncommenced Act or provision of an Act 1 year after the Act receives assent. Proposed subsection (3) then allows the outer limit to be extended to 2 years by regulation. Proposed subsection (4) deals with the situation where there would otherwise not be power to make a regulation.

This automatic commencement applies unless the Act itself expressly states that it does not—see proposed subsection (5)(b).

The Opposition spokesman was recorded as saying in Hansard dated 25th November 1994:-

“As Opposition spokesman, I can find no good reason why the Opposition should oppose this piece of legislation. It is an extremely large piece of legislation. I asked the shadow Ministers to peruse the parts of the Bill that related to their portfolios and to raise any concerns with me. Some of the shadow Ministers have been through this legislation line by line, and they have not come back to me with any good reasons why the Opposition should oppose this legislation. A number of Imperial Acts are in force in this State. We are not repealing the Acts themselves; we are just repealing those parts that affect Queensland. Five New South Wales Acts are also in force in this State, but we are not really repealing the New South Wales Acts; we are only repealing those parts that affect Queensland. We are repealing about 630 Acts. I do not know why on earth they have remained on the statute book for so long. They include Appropriation Acts from the last century. The Opposition does not oppose the repeal of all these Acts. The minor amendments to the other Acts appear to us to be of a minor nature. I certainly hope they are.”

“One issue which has been dealt with in this legislation is the operation of section 14(1) of the Constitution Act 1867. This section was purportedly entrenched in 1977 by means of section 53. The Government has accepted the advice given by successive Crown solicitors, the Solicitor-General and Professor John Finnis of Oxford University, that this provision is not validly entrenched. Whilst there is a place for entrenching core provisions in our constitution, anybody who has read section 14(1) would see that it is written in archaic language, its effect is so vague as to be almost meaningless, and it has nothing whatsoever to do with the Constitution, powers or procedures of this Parliament. It is not in the public interest that our Constitution becomes so rigid and uncertain that proper public administration could be impaired. Therefore, it is the intention of the Government to proceed with practical constitutional reform either by seeking a declaration from the Supreme Court on the legality of the entrenchment of section 14(1) or, if this proves impractical, simply proceeding with the repeal in this Bill. The latter option is, from legal advice provided, open to the Government and most probably the appropriate way to go. In making a determination the Government will, of course, seek the expert advice of the Crown’s legal advisers. Until a determination is made on which course to adopt, all senior executive appointments will continue to be made by the Governor in Council and the provisions allowing chief executives to appoint senior executives and the repeal of section 14(1) shall remain unproclaimed.”

“The State Government has drawn together the fragmented and archaic Queensland Constitution into two Bills written in plain English which will be presented to Parliament. I table a copy of the Government’s Consolidation of the Queensland Constitution—Discussion Drafts—

Constitution of Queensland Bill and Parliament of Queensland Bill.

The discussion drafts represent the Government’s response to the Legal, Constitutional and Administrative Review Committee’s Final Report on Consolidation of the Queensland Constitution. The discussion drafts also address recommendations included in the Parliamentary Members’ Ethics and Parliamentary Privileges Committee’s first report on the powers, rights and immunities of the Legislative Assembly, its committees and members.”

Pages 3715 to 3718 in Hansard dated 9th November 2001, state that the Bills, Explanatory Notes, and First and Second Readings of the Constitution of Queensland and Parliament of Queensland Bill were presented by Premier Peter Beattie, who was recorded as saying:-

“Today is an historic day for Queensland. It represents a significant milestone of which this parliament can be rightly proud.”

“It is with pleasure that I introduce the Constitution of Queensland 2001, which substantially consolidates Queensland’s constitutional legislation, and its companion bill, the Parliament of Queensland Bill 2001, which brings together the laws concerning the operation of this Legislative Assembly.”

“On its face, the Constitution of Queensland 2001 could be any other act of parliament; it provides for matters including the operation of various entities and the appointment of various office holders. But this act is much more; it is the fundamental law of Queensland that underpins our system of government.”

“The entities it provides for include this parliament, the Supreme and District Courts of this state and the system of local government that we know in Queensland.”

“The office holders under this act include the Governor of Queensland, the ministers of the Crown and the judges of the Supreme and District Courts.”

This law is of supreme importance.

“On 11 September, we watched in horror as one of the strongest symbols of freedom and democracy in our world, the United States of America, was attacked by terrorists. If anything positive is to come from this tragedy, it is that we know that we can no longer afford to take our way of life for granted, that we need to take the time to cherish the great democracy we live in.”

“Our identity as a sovereign state, the democratic ideals on which our state is built, rest on our Constitution. The introduction of these bills gives all of us, as members of this House and democratically elected representatives of the people of Queensland, the opportunity to reaffirm the democratic ideals that underpin our system of government. It also provides us with an important opportunity to make this fundamental law broadly accessible to its citizens.”

“The Constitution of Queensland 2001 represents the first time in our history that a single act containing the most comprehensive statement of Queensland’s constitutional arrangements will be passed by a parliament of Queensland as a state legislature, rather than by the colonial legislature that passed the Constitution Act 1867.”

“But, more than that, by bringing substantially all of our constitutional legislation into the one act and by presenting it in modern language, this parliament will be making our Constitution more accessible and easier for all to understand. It is fitting, then, that I introduce these bills towards the close of a year of celebrations commemorating Australia’s Centenary of Federation.”

“While the focus of this year’s celebrations has been on Australia’s birth as a nation, 2001 also marks the centenary of Queensland’s coming of age, our maturing from a British colony into an Australian state. The endorsement of the Constitution of Queensland 2001 by this House will enhance Queensland’s identity as a state.”

“This leads me to the importance of all Queenslanders knowing about their Constitution and system of government. In the course of its public consultation campaign, the Queensland Constitutional Review Commission observed that ‘the Queensland Constitution is not only largely unknown, but it is to a considerable extent unknowable’.”

“My government is committed to addressing the observation that our Constitution is largely unknown. Leading into the last election, I made a commitment to deliver a civics education program to improve everyone’s understanding of our system of government and their ability to participate. The government has also accepted recommendations of the Legal, Constitutional and Administrative Review Committee to improve the civic education of Queenslanders and, in particular, the level of awareness and understanding of the Queensland Constitution. There are some people who do not even know that Queensland has a Constitution.”

“To this end, the commencement of our new Constitution on Queensland Day next year, which will symbolically commemorate our state’s colonial beginnings, will be accompanied by the launch of a broad range of constitutional resource materials to be used in schools and adult civic education programs. The centrepiece of this package will be an annotated Constitution which will provide a plain English explanation of our constitutional arrangements.”

“The bills I am introducing today are the first step—a very significant first step in making our Constitution more accessible to all Queenslanders by bringing it all together in the one place and in language that we can all understand. And it is the first step towards building a civics education program to improve Queenslanders’ knowledge of our system of government. It is also the first step towards the future—towards informed debate about the need for our Constitution to evolve as we move into the 21st century, towards building a Constitution that is more relevant to Queensland today and that reflects the aspirations of Queenslanders.”

“I will turn now to the two bills—the Constitution of Queensland 2001 and the Parliament of Queensland Bill 2001—in a little more detail.”

“Broadly, the Constitution of Queensland 2001 deals with the three arms of our government—the parliament, the executive and the judiciary.”

“This bill also contains an important statement that recognises the democratic and representative nature of this Assembly.”

“Clauses 10 to 13 of the Constitution of Queensland 2001 provide for the members of this Legislative Assembly to be directly elected by the voters of Queensland and to each represent a part of this state through the division of Queensland into electoral districts.”

“While one of the major objectives of the Constitution of Queensland 2001 is to consolidate our existing constitutional laws, this opportunity has been taken to enhance some aspects of our constitutional arrangements. For the first time, our Constitution will recognise the Queensland cabinet and use the terms ‘Premier’ and ‘Ministers’ in a constitutional context.”

“The bill also enhances the independence of the judiciary by clearly establishing the only means by which a judge might be removed from office and by including a provision to protect judges from the abolition of a judicial office, either directly or through the abolition of a court or a part of a court.”

“Further, on the recommendation of two committees of this House—
the Members' Ethics and Parliamentary Privileges Committee from its Report on a Code of Ethical Standards for Members of the Queensland Legislative Assembly; and the Legal, Constitutional and Administrative Review Committee from its report on a Review of the Members' Oath or Affirmation of Allegiance—

the Constitution of Queensland 2001 will require members to take an oath or affirmation of office on assuming their seat in this House after an election. This oath will serve to remind each of us of the integral role that we as members of this Assembly play in our democracy and to reinforce our responsibilities to serve the people we represent. Making provision for an oath or affirmation of office for members in the bill that I have introduced is the government’s response to LCARC’s report No. 31 on the committee’s Review of the Members' Oath or Affirmation of Allegiance.”

“The Constitution of Queensland 2001 does not include a statement of executive power vesting in the sovereign as recommended by LCARC.”

“The government is of the view that LCARC’s recommended expression of executive power is too narrow and does not adequately reflect the democratic convention that requires the Governor to act in accordance with advice from his or her ministers. The government will refer this matter back to LCARC for further consideration.”

“I turn now to the Parliament of Queensland Bill 2001. This bill has been developed as a companion bill to the Constitution of Queensland 2001 and consolidates into one act the laws that deal with the Legislative Assembly, its members and committees.”

“In particular, the bill provides for the powers, rights and immunities of the Legislative Assembly, its members and committees, the offices of Speaker and Chairperson of Committees, contempt of the Assembly, eligibility and disqualification of candidates and members of the Legislative Assembly and members’ salaries.”

“The provisions relating to the disqualification of candidates for election and members of the Legislative Assembly will be further enhanced when a package of electoral reforms based around the Restoring Integrity plan I launched in Barcaldine last year is introduced into this House.”

“These two bills are the culmination of years of work at the independent commission and parliamentary committee level and of course by the government. The bills have also been developed in consultation with the community since the consolidation exercise began. The government is proud of its record of community consultation for constitutional review. It is only right and proper that in a democratic society the people of Queensland be given every opportunity to contribute to the fundamental law of the state.”

Those provisions that are said to be referendum entrenched remain untouched in the shells of their current acts.

“Specifically, on behalf of all members I commend the members and staff of the Legal, Constitutional and Administrative Review Committees of the 48th, 49th and 50th Parliaments for their invaluable contribution to this consolidation exercise.”

“The bills introduced today are, to a very large extent, modelled on bills prepared and unanimously adopted by the various members of the committee since 1996. Significantly, the bills represent the considerable achievements possible when a genuine, bipartisan approach is adopted to deal with matters of state importance.”

“I have ensured that the opposition and anyone else who wants to be has been appropriately briefed on this bill. Indeed, no less should be expected when it comes to re-enacting our fundamental law, Queensland’s Constitution.”

“The Constitution of Queensland 2001 and the Parliament of Queensland Bill 2001 consolidate and modernise our current constitutional provisions and are the first important step, the springboard, to future constitutional reform.”

“I underline that this is step 1. Step 2 is reforms, and that includes a range of things. One of them I put on notice today is four-year terms. We are the only state in Australia which does not have four-year terms. It is long overdue. I urge all parties in this House to give bipartisan support to four-year terms in the interests of good government. We need to put aside party considerations and put Queensland first.”

“With an accessible Constitution, we look forward to the Legal, Constitutional and Administrative Review Committee’s report on constitutional reform issues so that we might all engage in debating key questions of constitutional reform, key questions about our future.”

“The government aspires to a constitution that not only reflects modern language of the 21st century but also reflects public attitudes in the 21st century.”

“Indeed, the government foresees a day when an Australian head of state is popularly elected by the people of this state and this nation. We would like to see the President of Australia elected by the people.”

“I foreshadow that this government will embrace the task of constitutional reform. We should have a Queensland Constitution which is genuinely democratic in its foundations. The path of constitutional reform is not without difficulty, but it is vital to our future as a free people in a Smart State.”

Premier Peter Beattie's Second Reading Speech – Hansard 9th November 2001

"I thank the members of the opposition for the supportive and cooperative approach they have taken to the consolidation exercise over the years under both the former Leader of the Opposition, Mr Borbridge, and the current Leader of the Opposition, Mike Horan."

"I have already offered the Leader of the Opposition a briefing on the bills from officers of my department, and I understand that has been done. I take this opportunity to extend an offer to any member of this House who would like a similar briefing."

"This legislation will lie on the table for two weeks while the parliament is in recess. I say this to any member of this parliament who wants a brief in relation to these bills: the door is open. Constitutional reform is never easy. It is complicated and difficult. Therefore, every member should be given appropriate briefings. I offer that today. I commend these very important bills to the House."

Peter Beattie as Leader of the Opposition in the Queensland Parliament was recorded in Hansard as saying:-

"When Labor has re-earned the Government benches in Queensland, it will move to ensure that Queensland is restored to being a modern, accountable and well-managed State that respects the rights of its citizens and remains open to searching scrutiny from the public, the media and the Parliament. The Labor Government that I will lead will entrench those accountability measures into the fundamental law of the State.
As Premier, I will convene a widely consultative process of constitutional review and reform culminating in opportunities for Queenslanders to vote on a new and comprehensive State Constitution. The result will be the first modern State Constitution in Australia—one that entrenches a commitment to democracy and open accountability.
We will not cling to the Union Jack and have a longing for the past. We will plan for the future."

Ministerial Statement on the Constitution

Premier Peter Beattie is recorded in Hansard as saying:-

“This parliament can claim a rare title—it was the one that brought it all together—the Constitution, that is.

On 3 June—as a Queensland Week event—I formally launched the promotion of our state's new-look Constitution.

The consolidation of Queensland's Constitution is a significant achievement of which all in this House—and all Queenslanders—can rightly be proud.”

“On 3 June I launched two civics education initiatives.

The initiatives are designed to better inform Queenslanders of our Constitution and our system of government.”

“From 6 June 2002—Queensland Day—the Constitution of Queensland 2001 became law.”

“For the first time in over 130 years the 10 or more pieces of legislation which comprised the Constitution were brought into one act and made more relevant by being rewritten in modern language.

So in a smart way we have taken that commitment made before the last election to enhance civics education for all

In keeping with that smart way we have taken a jumble of old-fashioned hard-to-find elements and turned them into one easily read and easily accessed informative document—and with an attached self-help guide.”

“This government is committed to ensuring all Queenslanders know and understand our system of government and that they are fully equipped to better engage with the government to meet the challenges of the 21st century. The initiatives launched comprise Queensland's Constitution: Educational Resource Kit and a Queensland Arts Council on tour in-schools theatre production entitled Citizen Jane. I table a copy of the kit. I also want to highlight that this year Queensland enjoyed a week-long program of celebrations from 2-9 Jun to mark Queensland Week. Because of time, I seek leave to incorporate the rest of my ministerial statements in Hansard.”

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, with their Australia Acts 1986, enabled bringing:-

"constitutional arrangements affecting the Commonwealth and the States into conformity with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia as a sovereign, independent and federal nation".

On 9th November 2001, Premier Peter Beattie, in his Second Reading Speech for the "Constitution of Queensland and Parliament of Queensland Bill", stated:-

"The Constitution of Queensland 2001 represents the first time in our history that a single act containing the most comprehensive statement of Queensland's constitutional arrangements

These notes have been prepared to explain Queensland's constitutional arrangements as clearly as possible to people accompanied by a range of constitutional resource materials to be used in schools and adult civic education programs

Extracts Page 5 with respect to Chapter 1—Preliminary:-

"The Constitution, in contrast to most laws passed by the Parliament, does not include the word "Act" in its title.

This reflects the Constitution's status as the fundamental law in the State of Queensland. It establishes the framework for governing the State Queensland's Constitution was previously spread over a number of Acts, laws and documents, many of which were drafted more than a century ago. This made it difficult for members of the community to understand or appreciate the State's constitutional arrangements. That is why the Constitution has been consolidated and modernised. The provisions listed in the note are "entrenched", which means that they cannot be altered without the approval of at least 50% of voters at a referendum (see Introduction, "The changing Constitution").

As a referendum has not been held, they remain in their original Acts, and have not been relocated into the Constitution of Queensland 2001.

"Signpost" provisions have been inserted into the Constitution to refer to these entrenched provisions in their original Acts.

These provisions have been reproduced in Attachments 1–4 to the Act.

A sovereign is a king, queen or other monarch.

At present Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II is the Queen of Australia."

Note—

The Constitution Act 1867, sections 11A and 11B are subject to section 53 (Certain measures to be supported by referendum) of that Act.¹¹

“ When Queen Elizabeth II succeeded her father, King George VI, as Sovereign on 6 February 1952, her description in the Proclamation of Accession was (translated from the Latin):

“Queen Elizabeth II by the Grace of God,
Queen of this Realm and of Her other Realms and Territories,
Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith”.

The Queen signs formal and official documents and messages using an abbreviated form of her full title: “Elizabeth R”. (“R” stands for the Latin Regina, meaning “Queen”.) ”

“ Queensland is a constitutional monarchy with the Queen as head of state, and the Governor is the Queen’s representative in Queensland. The Queen must personally sign the Governor’s document of appointment, and this document—the Governor’s commission—is sealed with the Public Seal of the State (see section 37). ”

Note: The above is evidence that Premier Peter Beattie admits that Queenslanders are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy with a Constitutional Sovereign with the Royal Style and Title as under the Royal Style and Titles Act 1953. Yet Premier Peter Beattie with NO Crown and Constitutional authority, made his Constitution of Queensland 2001 and Parliament of Queensland Act 2001 to include an unconstitutional “Sovereign of Australia”, “Queen of Australia”, as under the Royal Style and Titles Act 1973

“Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God

“ While one of the major objectives of the Constitution of Queensland 2001 is to consolidate our existing constitutional laws, this opportunity has been taken to enhance some aspects of our constitutional arrangements. For the first time, our Constitution will recognise the Queensland cabinet and use the terms ‘Premier’ and ‘Ministers’ in a constitutional context.”

OF QUEENSLAND

Note: The following 2 images of the casting on the belt of the statue of Themis reveal that "The Seal of the Supreme Court of Queensland" includes the Royal Coat of Arms with the Lion and the Unicorn and are NOT used by anyone in the corporate "Queensland Courts".

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia" whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

The “Public Seal of the State”,

i.e. “Arms of the State” with its “Badge of the State” and “Royal Crown” with dipped arches, (St Edward's crown), as in Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1997, No. 81, 5th December 1997

“On a roundel Argent a Maltese Cross Azure surmounted with a Royal Crown” is to be judicially noticed in “all courts”

as in the Evidence Act 1977-2001, Section 41—Public Seal of the State—All courts shall take judicial notice

i.e. in “Queensland Courts”, “Australian Courts”, or any person acting judicially, as in the Australia Act 1986 No. 142 of 4th December 1985 “of Australia”
Provision 16—Interpretation—
“court” includes a judge, judicial officer or other person acting judicially.

is therefore also to be judicially noticed by any “other person acting judicially”

such as those persons sitting in a Coram in the High Court “of Australia”

e.g. as in “A record of recent High Court of Australia cases:

decided, reserved for judgment, awaiting hearing
in the Court’s original jurisdiction, granted special leave to appeal, refused special leave to appeal and not proceeding or vacated.”

Coram /kɔrəm/ /lat – in the presence of: before

Coram non judice – in the presence of a person not a judge

Those persons sitting in a Coram in the High Court “of Australia”, make Oaths/Affirmations of Allegiance and Office to a “Queen of Australia”;
are appointed by a “Governor-General of Australia” using a “Great Seal of Australia”;
are paid in “Australian currency” in “Australian Dollars” NOT “Pounds”; so those persons have NO Crown and Constitutional authority to act judicially, and do NOT sit in place of the Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch in whose name they are supposed to administer justice.

The “Public Seal of the State” in Queensland is affixed to Commissions appointing a “Governor of the State”; is sealed on laws of “the State” made by the corporate “Queensland Parliament”;

is sealed by the “Queensland Government” on “Certificates of Title” to land;
is used by the Governor of “the State”; and is used to appoint MPs (Members of Parliament) into the “Queensland Parliament”;
to appoint Members of the Executive into the “Queensland Government”;
to appoint Members of the Judiciary and Legal Profession into “Queensland Courts”;
and is used to deceive the people who think it looks like the “Seal of Queensland”.

The corporate “Public Seal of the State” is NOT the “Seal of Queensland” which was granted by our respective Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch in 1893 and 1977.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia”
whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

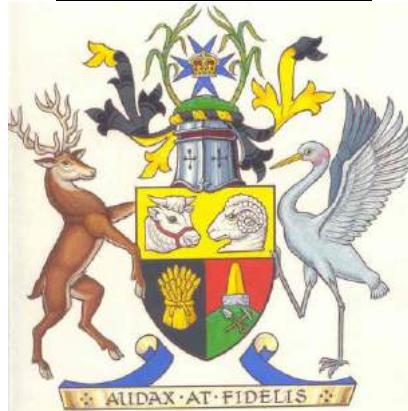

CORPORATE SEALS

“Queensland Government”

This corporate Seal has been used on laws since 1991 and described in laws from 5th December 1997 (with its “Royal Crown” with dipped arches) as a “Public Seal of the State” and is used by the corporate “Queensland Government” “Governor of the State” “Queensland Parliament”

CROWN’S SEALS

Government of Queensland

(Seal granted under Royal Warrants)
(Queen Victoria 29th April 1893)
(Queen Elizabeth II 9th March 1977)

This Seal of Queensland is for use by Public Functionaries of the Government of Queensland but NOT for use to seal laws under a Constitutional Monarchy

“Fundamentally, it is the executive which in this democracy appoints the Judges.”

Note: The Constitution of Queensland 2001, No. 80 of 3rd December 2001, with Schedule 2—Amendments—Constitution Act 1867, omitted Sections 14-16, contra to the entrenched Constitutional Requirement for Referendum, and contra to the Letters Patent of 10th June 1925 which stated:-

“VI. Appointment of Judges, Justices, &c.

The Governor may constitute and appoint,
in Our name and on Our behalf,

all such Judges, Commissioners, Justices of the Peace,
and other necessary Officers and Ministers of the State,
as may be lawfully constituted or appointed by Us.

The Constitution of Queensland 2001, No. 80 of 3rd December 2001, with its Schedule 2, made Amendments to the Constitution Act 1867, but had NO Crown and Constitutional authority to do so, and had NO consent of the people of Queensland to do so under the people's Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977, at Section 53, inserted under Crown and Constitutional authority with Section 7 of Queensland's Constitution Act Amendment Act 1977, No. 9 of 5th April 1977, stating:

REQUIREMENT FOR REFERENDUM

53. Certain measures to be supported by referendum

- (1) A Bill that expressly or impliedly provides for the abolition of or alteration in the office of Governor or that expressly or impliedly in any way affects any of the following sections of this Act namely—
sections 1, 2, 2A, 11A, 11B, 14; and
this section 53
shall not be presented for assent
by or in the name of the Queen unless it has first been approved by the electors in accordance with this section and a Bill so assented to consequent upon its presentation in contravention of this subsection shall be of no effect as an Act.
- (2) On a day not sooner than two months after the passage through the Legislative Assembly of a Bill of a kind referred to in subsection (1) the question for the approval or otherwise of the Bill shall be submitted to the electors qualified to vote for the election of members of the Legislative Assembly according to the provisions of the Elections Act 1915–1973 and of any Act amending the same or of any Act in substitution therefor.
Such day shall be appointed by the Governor in Council by Order in Council.
- (3) When the Bill is submitted to the electors the vote shall be taken in such manner as the Parliament of Queensland prescribes.
- (4) If a majority of the electors voting approve the Bill, it shall be presented to the Governor for reservation thereof for the signification of the Queen's pleasure.
- (5) Any person entitled to vote at a general election of members of the Legislative Assembly is entitled to bring proceedings in the Supreme Court for a declaration, injunction or other remedy to enforce the provisions of this section either before or after a Bill of a kind referred to in subsection (1) is presented for assent by or in the name of the Queen.
- (6) Act 24 Geo. 5 No. 35 preserved. The provisions of this section shall in no way affect the operation of The Constitution Act Amendment Act of 1934. ”.

Under a progressive evolutionary process, the Constitutional Separation of Powers between the Parliament, Executive and Judiciary, NO longer exists in this country, contra to the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule; contra to Queensland’s Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977; contra to The Charter of the Commonwealth, signed Commonwealth Day 2013, by Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth the Second, Head of the Commonwealth, with Paragraph VI referring to the Separation of Powers, with the Legislature, Executive and Judiciary being:

the promotion and protection of fundamental human rights
and adherence to good governance”.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, have removed themselves, their entities, “laws of Australia” and laws of “the State”, outside of the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which includes its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, particularly outside of being bound at Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws

5. This Act, and all laws made by the Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Constitution,
shall be binding on the courts, judges, and people
of every State and of every part of the Commonwealth,
notwithstanding anything in the laws of any State

being bound to the Requirement for Referendum at

Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth,
Chapter VIII—Alteration of the Constitution,
Section 128—Mode of altering the Constitution
Chapter VI—New States,
Section 123—Alteration of limits of States and being bound to Section 53. Certain measures to be supported by referendum of Queensland’s Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, after the Federal Election held 2nd December 1972, deceived the people living under a Constitutional Monarchy in “the Commonwealth of Australia” from 1st January 1901, and deceived their Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch, by altering the “Constitutional and official definitions” with NO Crown and Constitutional authority, with their Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, thereby creating for themselves, their own “Australia” or “the Commonwealth”, meanings for which can change and have changed, depending on the “geographical sense” used when referring to their unconstitutional “Australia” or “the Commonwealth”.

The words “Australia” and “the Commonwealth” and their “Australian” vernacular use, are some of the major “Keys” to the deception used by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia” whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Part 3—General provisions applying to Acts

9A—Declaration of validity of certain laws

Each provision of an Act

enacted, or purporting to have been enacted,
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
has (and always has had) the same effect as it would have had,
and is (and always has been) as valid as it would have been,
if the Australia Acts had been in operation
at the time of its enactment or purported enactment.

Explanation:-

Each provision of an Act enacted

each provision of an Act enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts

before the commencement of the Australia Acts
is as valid (and always has been as valid)
if the Australia Acts had been in operation
at the time of enactment or purported enactment
of each of those provisions enacted or purporting to have been enacted

Note: Oxford Dictionary: purport v. appear to be or do, especially falsely

Note: Because Section 9A—Declaration of validity of certain laws
infers that some Acts have been enacted falsely and only appear to be Acts, then the Australia Acts have no effect, and never had any effect, on the validity
of any provision of any Act enacted,
or purporting to have been enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts.

Section 37—Power of Governor—public seal

37. The Governor may keep and use the Public Seal of the State for sealing all instruments made or passed in the Sovereign's name.

The former Premier Peter Beattie made very unconstitutional conflicting remarks, as our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch is NOT the Sovereign at Section 37, and the “Public Seal of the State” with the “Royal Crown”, “St Edward’s Crown”, is NOT the “Seal of Queensland” with an Imperial Crown with raised arches.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, with NO Crown and Constitutional authority, created the “Public Seal of the State” for their own constitutional arrangements for their “Queensland Government”, “Queensland Parliament”, “Queensland Courts”, with the Executive Government (the “State”) which only “has all the powers, and the legal capacity, of an individual”.

The Right Honourable Sir Robin Janvrin KCVO CB
Private Secretary to Her Majesty The Queen
Buckingham Palace, LONDON SW1A 1AA, UNITED KINGDOM

Dear Sir Robin

I wrote to Her Majesty The Queen on 19 December 2002 informing Her Majesty the appointment of Major General Peter Arnison AC CVO as Governor of Queensland will end on 29 July 2003.

Since I wrote to Her Majesty I have taken the opportunity of having discussions with Ms Quentin Bryce AO. Ms Bryce has a long and distinguished legal, academic and community advocacy record, in particular, championing the rights of women and children.

Ms Bryce was born in 1942 and educated at the Moreton Bay College in Brisbane and at the University of Queensland where she graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Arts with a Bachelor of Laws. She was one of the first Queensland women to be admitted to the Queensland Bar in 1965. In 1997, she was awarded an Honorary Doctorate of Laws at Macquarie University and an Honorary Doctorate of Letters by Charles Sturt University in 2002.

In 1978, she was appointed to the National Women's Advisory Council where she played an important role redefining the relationship between government, bureaucracy, women's groups and the community, and highlighting the concerns of Aboriginal women and women who live in remote areas.

She was the Founding Director of the Queensland Women's Information Service and then Queensland Director of the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission. In 1988, she became the Federal Sex Discrimination Commissioner where she distinguished herself in the evolution of human rights law and the resolution and abolition of discriminatory practices.

She has been a member of an Australian delegation to the United Nation's Human Rights Commission and has held numerous other high profile government and community positions. In 1988, she was made an officer of the Order of Australia in recognition of her contribution to the community.

Ms Bryce is married and has five adult children. Ms Bryce has been an outstanding community leader over many years and, I believe, is eminently suited to the role of Governor of Queensland. I am very confident that her appointment will be welcomed by all Queenslanders.

Ms Bryce has indicated to me that she would accept appointment as Governor of Queensland should Her Majesty choose to offer it to her.

Accordingly, I shall be grateful if you would raise the question of Ms Bryce's appointment with Her Majesty on an informal basis to ascertain if she would be acceptable to Her Majesty as her personal representative in Queensland.

Yours sincerely

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Subject

Authority to affix the Public Seal of the State to The Queen's Commission appointing Ms Quentin Bryce AO to be the next Governor of Queensland.

Legislative Provision

Constitution of Queensland 2001

Background

Her Majesty The Queen has approved the appointment of Ms Quentin Bryce AO as the next Governor of Queensland.

In relation to the Commission of appointment, constitutional practice provides that the following steps occur—

- i) Commission to be signed by the Queen;
- ii) Commission to be counter-signed by the Premier; and
- iii) Governor in Council approval be obtained to affix the Public Seal of the State of Queensland to the Commission.

Her Majesty signed the Commission on 4 March 2003 and the Premier has counter-signed the Commission.

The Commission does not become effective until the requirements of s.31 of the Constitution of Queensland 2001 have been observed, ie. the Commission is read and published at the Seat of Government and the prescribed oaths or affirmations of allegiance and office are taken.

In accordance with constitutional practice it is now necessary to seek approval of the Governor in Council for the Public Seal of the State of Queensland to be affixed to the Commission.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia" whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Consultation

Procedures adopted for the appointment are in accordance with those recommended previously by the Crown

Solicitor.

Date 10-3-03

On 11th March 2003 in Hansard Pages 369-373, Premier Peter Beattie was also reported as saying:-

“ I also believe it is appropriate that with the first appointment of a Queensland Governor in the 21st century we acknowledge the right of electors to play an ever greater role in our democracy and our democratic institutions. Our institutions have to be alive. They need vibrancy. That vibrancy means change from time to time. What I am proposing in this motion today is a tentative step to involve the people in the selection of the Governor, and I think in any true democracy that is a very important even though tentative step. The first stage in this process is to place this appointment before the people’s forum—that is, the parliament—so that elected members have the opportunity of giving the decision parliamentary recognition.”

“ I have asked that parliament’s support for this appointment should be clearly demonstrated by two-thirds of members voting in favour of the motion. I would hope that this in fact would be a unanimous motion of the parliament, but I certainly seek two-thirds of members voting in favour of my motion. ”

“ This debate is an important one not just for this parliament but also for the future. There has been a republican debate in this country in recent times. When the issue was put to a referendum, Queenslanders voted overwhelmingly to retain the current system. In other words, they voted for the retention of the monarchy. ”

“ That is one of the reasons that, in the reappointment of the current Governor, I followed the tradition that existed and that had been followed by my predecessors. It was followed by Rob Borbridge when he appointed Peter Arnison. ”

“ When I re-appointed the current Governor, Peter Arnison, I followed the same tradition for that year’s extension. Wayne Goss followed this procedure when he appointed Leneen Forde. However, I wanted to add a new dimension, but I wanted to do it in a tentative way. I have done that to respect the result of the referendum, because Queenslanders expressed their view. ”

“ It is well known that I am a republican. I have always been committed to republican ideals. Having said that, I am also a servant of the people. Therefore, I have to respect the people and their will. A very clear message came out of that referendum. Queenslanders were opposed to a republic. Therefore, I have respected the will of the people. The appointment of the governor has been made in accordance with the traditions I inherited. However, I do believe that in the 21st century—Ms Bryce will be the first governor appointed in this century—we should involve the people and we should involve the parliament. ”

“ The motion I have moved is a sensitive one. As I indicated yesterday to the Leader of the Opposition, the Leader of the Liberal Party and the Leader of One Nation, it has been a cautious, tentative move and it seeks to get the parliament to give recognition to the appointment. I have done that in a clear bid to get bipartisanship and a unanimous decision today. ”

“ This is a tentative step today—I do not present it to be anything other than a tentative step—but a very important tentative step for the first time that we appoint a governor in this century. ”

Oxford Dictionary: tentative adj. provisional, hesitant.

On 11th March 2003 in Hansard Page 374, Premier Peter Beattie was also reported as saying:-

“ As I have already indicated—it will be contained in the documents—on 4 March 2003 Her Majesty the Queen signed the commission appointing Quentin Bryce to become the 24th Governor of Queensland from 29 July 2003.

Yesterday the Governor in Council—

it was attended by the Deputy Premier, Terry Mackenroth; the Leader of the House and Minister for Education, Anna Bligh; and me—approved that the public seal of the state be affixed to the commission. ”

[The former Leader of the House and Minister for Education, Ms Anna Maria Bligh was Premier of the State from 13th September 2007 to 26th March 2012.]

On 11th March 2003 in Hansard Page 377, Lawrence Springborg, Leader of the Opposition, was reported as saying:-

“ The Queensland National Party supports absolutely the right of the Premier as laid down by convention as exercised over a century or more now to make recommendations to the Queen and for Her Majesty the Queen to accept the recommendation which is made to the Queen by the Premier. That is something which has served the state and its institutions very well without controversy over a long period of time. If one looks at section 7.15 of the Australia Act 1986 one can see that it lays out quite specifically that the power for the recommendation for appointment of governor rests with the state Premier, and that in this case is Premier Beattie. ”

“ When I met with the Premier yesterday in the company of Mr Flynn and Mr Quinn, I indicated that I felt that that was his prerogative and that I have always felt that that is the case. I will continue to respect the prerogative of the Premier of the day to appoint the representative that he sees fit and to make that nomination to the Queen for appointment. ”

On 11th March 2003 in Hansard Page 382, Mr Purcell (Bulimba—ALP), was reported as saying:-

“ The Premier has, for the first time, brought the appointment of Governor of Queensland before this House to be debated. It is moving Queenslanders and ultimately Australians forward in the 21st century with an opportunity to discuss the appointment and support the nomination of the people’s representative as governor. I see this as the first step towards Queensland selecting a governor for Queensland by ballot. We need to give people the opportunity to choose. Queenslanders and Australians are in general a very conservative people and this is another small step along the road to Australia becoming a republic. The monarchy serves England very well. Over the years it has served Australians very well. People in public life in Queensland would realise what an arduous job the Queen has, and she is never off duty. She is required at all times to remember that she is the representative of her country and the monarchy—a role she conducts with distinction and decorum. As I said, she is never off duty. I do not think there would be too many people who could do that job. It is a very tough job. While the general population of many other countries throughout the Commonwealth already make the decision as to the appointment of governor, I am sure that one day not too far away Queenslanders and Australians will also be making this decision at the ballot box. I support the appointment of Ms Quentin Bryce as Governor of Queensland. ”

In Queensland, after the 22nd October 1983 election held under the Writ by Commodore Sir James Ramsay, Queensland Governor from 22nd April 1977, Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, sitting as MLAs in Parliament as purported elected representatives of the people, deceived our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and Her subjects, by passing in our Constitutional Legislative Assembly of Queensland, the Australia Acts (Request) Bill 1985, (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985.

Sir Walter Campbell, Queensland Governor from 22nd July 1985, although appointed by Commission under Royal Sign Manual and Signet, as prescribed under Letters Patent of 10th June 1925, deceived our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and Her subjects, by assenting to that Bill, then sealing the Australia Acts (Request) Act 1985, (QLD) No. 69 of 16th October 1985, with the Royal Coat of Arms, despite the fact that Seal is to be used only "for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the Seal", and Sir Walter Campbell did so despite No. 69 of 16th October 1985 consisting of provisions that would NOT pass the Seal, consisting of provisions amending referendum entrenched sections of Acts. and he therefore acted, as being bound to the "laws of Australia" made from 1973 by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, sitting inside their Parliaments "of Australia", and making Oaths of Allegiance and Office to a "Sovereign of Australia", a "Queen of Australia" as created under the Royal Style and Titles Act 1973 No. 114 of 19th October 1973.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, acting as a Prime Minister "of Australia" and Premiers in the States "of Australia", agreed at Conferences on 24th June 1982, 25th June 1982, and 21st June 1984, "on the taking of certain measures to bring constitutional arrangements affecting the Commonwealth and the States into conformity with the status of the Commonwealth of Australia as a sovereign, independent and federal nation"; constitutional arrangements as referred to by former Premier Peter Beattie in his 9th Nov. 2001 Second Reading Speech for the Constitution of Queensland 2001 and 11th March 2003 in his speech welcoming Ms Quentin Bryce as 24th Governor, displacing the Signet of Our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and affixing the "Public Seal of the State" to Commissions of Queensland Governors, thereby removing the Crown and Constitutional authority from Governors, just as Her Majesty's Signet was displaced with a Public Functionary seal in Commissions of Governor-Generals "of Australia" from 2nd February 1960.

Section 9A of the Acts Interpretation Act 1954 tells us that laws made from 1986 for "the Sovereign State" in Queensland, are only purported enactments.

The people voted in the 1999 Referendum to stay under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts "of Australia" whereas from 1st January 1901, the people "of the Commonwealth of Australia" are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

9A—Declaration of validity of certain laws

Each provision of an Act

enacted, or purporting to have been enacted,

has (and always has had) the same effect as it would have had,
and is (and always has been) as valid as it would have been,

at the time of its enactment or purported enactment.

Explanation:-

Each provision of an Act enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
or each provision of an Act purporting to have been enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts
has the same effect (and always has had the same effect)
if the Australia Acts had been in operation

and
each provision of an Act enacted

before the commencement of the Australia Acts
is as valid (and always has been as valid)
if the Australia Acts had been in operation
at the time of enactment or purported enactment
of each of those provisions enacted or purporting to have been enacted

Oxford Dictionary: purport v. appear to be or do, especially falsely

Note that because Section 9A—Declaration of validity of certain laws
infers that some Acts have been enacted falsely and only appear to be Acts,
then the Australia Acts have no effect, and never had any effect,
on the validity of any provision of any Act enacted,
or purporting to have been enacted
before the commencement of the Australia Acts.

Therefore, since the Australia Acts 1986 which commenced 3rd March 1986,
all of our Constitutional Laws of Queensland are sitting sine die, waiting to be returned to the people of Queensland, “a State” of “the Commonwealth of Australia”.

Centenary of Bar Association of Queensland Ceremonial Sittings, Banco Court

“ The Association’s insignia incorporates the Queensland State badge, a light blue Maltese cross with St Edward's crown at the centre, embellished by a contemporary representation of the scales of justice. ”

Research was carried out into the seal illustrated below:-

Research Finding No. 1:-

The former Governor-General Ms Quentin Bryce was asked if the seal as shown above was the seal referred to in the Commission given by Queen Elizabeth II to Ms Quentin Bryce, to which an administrative assistant from Government House in Canberra replied that the seal as shown above:-

“is the same seal as the one that is on the Governor-General’s Commission”

Research Finding No. 2:-

The Garter King of Arms at the College of Arms in London was asked if the seal as shown above, which has been described as the Great Seal of Australia, is recognized in British law and can be used by the Queen of the United Kingdom, to which The Garter King of Arms of the College of Arms stated:-

“The devise submitted does not incorporate any Royal Arms.

These are the Armorial Bearings of the Commonwealth of Australia.

Her Majesty is described

as Queen of Australia on the seal and not Queen of the United Kingdom.”

“I do not have any relevant record in my office.”

“There are scores if not hundreds of Letters Patent of Armorial Bearings that have been issued to Australian citizens or Australian corporate bodies of which The Queen is described as Queen of Australia.”

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia” whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

Those people living in Queensland, “a State” “of the Commonwealth of Australia are to live and to be governed – under a Constitutional Monarchy; under the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule; under Queensland’s Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977; and under the Crown and Constitutional authority of the “Separation of Powers” between the Constitutional members of the Legislatures, Executives and Judiciary.

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, have deceived our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and Her subjects, by committing treason, treachery and sabotage under an evolutionary process, creating their own private “Australian” Parliaments, Governments and Courts, which are NOT the Constitutional Parliaments, Governments and Courts of the Commonwealth of Australia as established on 1st January 1901.

Oxford Dictionary of Law:-

“misprision n. Failure to report an offence. The former crime of misprision of felony has been replaced by the crime of compounding an offence. However the common-law offence of misprision of treason still exists; this occurs if a person knows or reasonably suspects that someone has committed treason but does not inform the proper authorities within a reasonable time. The punishment for this offence is forfeiture by the offender of all his property during his lifetime. ”

Under an “Australian” system of government with NO Crown and Constitutional authority as required under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, those Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, sitting inside their own “Parliament of Australia”, have made “laws of Australia” under which their corporate entities and public officials, have unlawfully taken control over the constitutional rights, liberties, privileges and property of the people of the Commonwealth of Australia, along with those of our Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch, such as taking control of all Land “acquired” “for Australia”; with the “Queensland Government” with its “Queensland Parliament”, having taken ownership of all Land in Queensland.

Research leads one to evidence giving one the Constitutional rights to have these matters brought before a Judge of a Court of Competent Jurisdiction. However, thus far, no one has been able to find a Court of Competent Jurisdiction that will preside over these matters, nor has anyone ever been advised as to where there is that Court of Competent Jurisdiction. Also, a person who has been detrimentally affected with respect to these matters, does not have the ability to write up these matters in the correct format required by anyone acting judicially under an “Australian” court, and would not have sufficient funds to pay anyone under the legal profession to present these matters in order to obtain natural justice and relief for us, the people of the Commonwealth of Australia as established on 1st January 1901.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia” whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

There is NO Court in “Australia” that will help the people, as all “Australian” Courts, which include “Queensland Courts” of the “Queensland Government”, are controlled by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies.

Justices of the High Court “of Australia” have subtly been explaining that they are NOT operating under the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted and are NOT applying the “Common Law of England”.

Therefore these Justices of the High Court “of Australia” are admitting that they have NO Crown or Constitutional authority to make decisions detrimental to the people of the Commonwealth of Australia and their property, leaving them, along with their Constitutional Sovereign and Monarch and Her property, with NO Human Rights.

Those inside “Australian” Parliaments, Governments and Courts, DO NOT operate under the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, particularly at:-

Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws

5. This Act, and all laws
made by the Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Constitution,
shall be binding on the courts, judges, and people
of every State and of every part of the Commonwealth,
notwithstanding anything in the laws of any State

The words “Australia” and “the Commonwealth” and their “Australian” vernacular use, are the Keys to the deception used by Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, because commencing with their Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, they have actually admitted that inside their created “Australian” system of government created after the 1972 Election, they have removed themselves and their entities and “laws of Australia” outside of the “Laws of Commonwealth” enacted inside “The Commonwealth” and Constitutional “Australia” as in Section 17—Constitutional and official definitions of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, Act No. 2 given Royal Assent on 12th July 1901. Therefore Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, have removed themselves and their entities and “laws of Australia” outside of the Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which includes its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule;

and removed themselves and their entities and “laws of Australia”, outside the binding as prescribed at Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws;

and also removed their judges and courts outside of that binding, thereby giving NO Crown or Constitutional authority Justices of the High Court “of Australia”.

Corporations made by Members of Political Parties control all sections of Parliaments, Governments and Courts “of Australia” whereas from 1st January 1901, the people “of the Commonwealth of Australia” are to live under a Constitutional Monarchy.

In the Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, (<http://adc.library.usyd.edu.au/data-2/fed0014.pdf>) it is stated with respect to Covering Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws:-

¶ 36. “The Laws of Any State.”

“ The laws of the States will comprise the following classes:—

- (i.) Imperial Acts relating to the Constitution and government of the colonies when they become States:
- (ii.) Imperial Acts relating to matters of ordinary legislation expressly applicable to the colonies when they become States:
- (iii.) The Common law so far as applicable and not modified by colonial or State legislation:
- (iv.) Laws of the realm of England made applicable to some colonies by the general terms of the Act of 9 George IV. c. 83, and not since repealed or amended by colonial legislation:
- (v.) Acts relating to constitutional matters as well as to matters of ordinary legislation passed by the colonial or State legislatures in the exercise of Statutory authority conferred by Imperial law.”

with respect to Covering Clause 6—Definitions:-

¶ 444. “The States.”

“ The States are parts of the Commonwealth; this is one of the basic principles in the structure and organization of the federated community. ”

“ Attention is particularly drawn to this definition of Commonwealth, which is clear and unchallengeable, according to the express wording of the Preamble and the first six clauses of the Imperial Act. ”

with respect to the “Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act”

¶ 32. “This Act.”

“ The expression “This Act” occurs in Clauses 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 8. The Act consists of Clauses 1 to 9 inclusive, and Clause 9 enacts the Constitution; so that the Constitution is unquestionably a part of the Act. ”

The Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which consists of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, prescribes at:-

Clause 6—Definitions:

6. “The Commonwealth” shall mean

the Commonwealth of Australia as established under this Act.

“The States” shall mean such of the colonies of New South Wales, New Zealand, Queensland, Tasmania, Victoria, Western Australia, and South Australia, including the northern territory of South Australia, as for the time being are parts of the Commonwealth, and such colonies or territories as may be admitted into or established by the Commonwealth as States; and each of such parts of the Commonwealth shall be called “a State.”

“Original States” shall mean such States

as are parts of the Commonwealth at its establishment.

The intention and meaning of Constitutional Definitions in the Preamble and Clauses 1 to 8 of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, particularly as in Clause 6—Definitions, may not be altered, not even by Referendum. Only provisions in Clause 9 may be altered but only by Referendum.

The Founding and Primary “Law of the Commonwealth of Australia”, the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, prescribes that the provisions in Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth only may be altered, but has to be done by means of a Referendum of the people of the whole of the Commonwealth of Australia living under a Constitutional Monarchy, Referendum as is required under Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth, Chapter VIII—Alteration of the Constitution,

Section 128—Mode of altering the Constitution

If any Boundaries of the States and Territories “of the Commonwealth” are to be altered, a Referendum of the people of the whole of the Commonwealth of Australia living under a Constitutional Monarchy is required, Referendum as is required under Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth, Chapter VI—New States,

Section 123—Alteration of limits of States.

However, Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party’s Constitution and policies, created for themselves, their own “Australia” or “the Commonwealth” as under their Acts Interpretation Act 1973, No. 79 of 19th June 1973, meanings which can change and have changed, depending on the “geographical sense” used when referring to their unconstitutional “Australia” or “the Commonwealth”.

Whereas, under our Constitutional Monarchy in the Commonwealth of Australia, the Constitutional and official definitions remain constant, as prescribed in the:-

Acts Interpretation Act 1901, Act No. 2 given Royal Assent on 12th July 1901,

The people of the Commonwealth of Australia are to live and to be governed under a Constitutional Monarchy inside the Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and Schedule of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted:-

Preamble

Whereas the people
of New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia, Queensland, and Tasmania,
humbly relying on the blessing of Almighty God,
have agreed to unite in one indissoluble Federal Commonwealth under the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland,

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the admission into the Commonwealth of other Australasian Colonies and possessions of the Queen:
Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal,
and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled,
and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

in the sovereignty of the United Kingdom.

and the Constitution of the Commonwealth shall take effect,
on and after the day so appointed.

Clause 5—Operation of the Constitution and laws

5. This Act, and all laws made by the Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Constitution,
shall be binding on the courts, judges, and people
of every State and of every part of the Commonwealth,
notwithstanding anything in the laws of any State;

Clause 6—Definitions

6. "The Commonwealth" shall mean
the Commonwealth of Australia as established under this Act.
"The States" each of the Commonwealth be called "a State"

Clause 7—Repeal of Federal Council Act

Clause 8—Application of Colonial Boundaries Act

Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth

Chapters I to VIII (Sections 1 to 128), and Schedule—Oath/Affirmation

The Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which consists of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, includes in its Clause 9—The Constitution of the Commonwealth:-

Chapter I—The Parliament
 Part I—General
 Part II—The Senate
 Part III—The House of Representatives
 Part IV—Both House of the Parliament
 Part V—Powers of the Parliament
Chapter II—The Executive Government
Chapter III—The Judicature
Chapter IV—Finance and Trade
Chapter V—The States
Chapter VI—New States
Chapter VII—Miscellaneous
Chapter VIII—Alteration of the Constitution
The Schedule—Oath/Affirmation

In the Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, it is stated that:-

“ The expression “This Act” occurs in Clauses 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 8. The Act consists of Clauses 1 to 9 inclusive, and Clause 9 enacts the Constitution; so that the Constitution is unquestionably a part of the Act.”

“ The Federal Parliament is a legislative body capable only of exercising enumerated powers. Its powers are determined and limited by actual grants to be found within the Constitution. Anything not granted to it is denied to it.”

“ The Federal Parliament and the State Parliaments are not sovereign bodies; they are legislatures with limited powers, and any law which they attempt to pass in excess of those powers is no law at all it is simply a nullity, entitled to no obedience.”

“ The States are parts of the Commonwealth; this is one of the basic principles in the structure and organization of the federated community.”

“ Attention is particularly drawn to this definition of Commonwealth, which is clear and unchallengeable, according to the express wording of the Preamble and the first six clauses of the Imperial Act.”

“ In the exercise of the duty of interpretation and adjudication not only the High Court, but every court of competent jurisdiction, has the right to declare that a law of the Commonwealth or of a State is void by reason of transgressing the Constitution. This is a duty cast upon the courts by the very nature of the judicial function.”

Refer: <http://adc.library.usyd.edu.au/data-2/fed0014.pdf>

Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies, by constantly changing the "geographical sense" of their "Australia" created in 1973, have removed the Constitutional Separation of Powers between the Legislature, Executive and Judiciary; with the Justices of the High Court "of Australia" – falling under the supremacy of the "Parliament of Australia" of the Members of Political Parties, each under their own Party's Constitution and policies – making different judgments based on different "laws of Australia" for each "geographical sense" of the unconstitutional "Australia" and – NO longer being the Constitutional Guardians at Chapter III—The Judicature, of the Constitution of the Commonwealth, as under Clause 9 of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, which consists of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule.

On the subject of "The Common Law and the Protection of Human Rights" in Sydney at a meeting of the Anglo Australasian Lawyers Society on 4th September 2009, the former Chief Justice French of the High Court "of Australia" said:-

" We do so against the backdrop of the supremacy of Parliament which can, by using clear words for which it can be held politically accountable, qualify or extinguish those rights and freedoms except to the extent that they may be protected by the Constitution. For, subject to the Constitution, the Commonwealth Parliament can legislate to change the common law just as it can legislate to change its own statute law. "

However, under a Constitutional Monarchy, the Crown and Constitutional authority of the Founding and Primary "Law of the Commonwealth of Australia", the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, consisting of its Preamble, Clauses 1 to 9 and the Schedule, and of Queensland's Constitution Act 1867 [31 Vic. No.38] as amended to 5th April 1977, there is to be Separation of Powers between Parliaments, Governments, Courts.

In the Commentaries on the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, by Quick and Garran, it is stated with respect to the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901, as Proclaimed and Gazetted, Chapter III—The Judicature, Judicial Power and Courts:-

¶ 286. "The Judicial Power."

" SEPARATION OF POWERS.—The judicial power is the power appropriate to the third great department of government, and is distinct from both the legislative and the executive powers. The judicial function is that of hearing and determining questions which arise as to the interpretation of the law, and its application to particular cases. "The distinction between the departments undoubtedly is, that the legislature makes, the executive executes, and the judiciary construes, the law. "

Preamble

WHEREAS the Universal Declaration of Human Rights recognizes as fundamental the principle that everyone is entitled in full equality to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal, in the determination of rights and obligations and of any criminal charge.

WHEREAS the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights guarantees that all persons shall be equal before the courts, and that in the determination of any criminal charge or of rights and obligations in a suit at law, everyone shall be entitled, without undue delay, to a fair and public hearing by a competent, independent and impartial tribunal established by law.

WHEREAS the foregoing fundamental principles and rights are also recognized or reflected in regional human rights instruments, in domestic constitutional, statutory and common law, and in judicial conventions and traditions.

WHEREAS the importance of a competent, independent and impartial judiciary to the protection of human rights is given emphasis by the fact that the implementation of all the other rights ultimately depends upon the proper administration of justice.

WHEREAS a competent, independent and impartial judiciary is likewise essential if the courts are to fulfil their role in upholding constitutionalism and the rule of law.

WHEREAS public confidence in the judicial system and in the moral authority and integrity of the judiciary is of the utmost importance in a modern democratic society.

WHEREAS it is essential that judges, individually and collectively, respect and honour judicial office as a public trust and strive to enhance and maintain confidence in the judicial system.

WHEREAS the primary responsibility for the promotion and maintenance of high standards of judicial conduct lies with the judiciary in each country.

AND WHEREAS the United Nations Basic Principles on the Independence of the Judiciary are designed to secure and promote the independence of the judiciary, and are addressed primarily to States.

THE FOLLOWING PRINCIPLES are intended to establish standards for ethical conduct of judges. They are designed to provide guidance to judges and to afford the judiciary a framework for regulating judicial conduct. They are also intended to assist members of the executive and the legislature, and lawyers and the public in general, to better understand and support the judiciary. These principles presuppose that judges are accountable for their conduct to appropriate institutions established to maintain judicial standards, which are themselves independent and impartial, and are intended to supplement and not to derogate from existing rules of law and conduct which bind the judge.

Value 1: INDEPENDENCE

Principle:

Judicial independence is a pre-requisite to the rule of law and a fundamental guarantee of a fair trial. A judge shall therefore uphold and exemplify judicial independence in both its individual and institutional aspects.

Value 2: IMPARTIALITY

Principle:

Impartiality is essential to the proper discharge of the judicial office. It applies not only to the decision itself but also to the process by which the decision is made.

Value 3: INTEGRITY

Principle:

Integrity is essential to the proper discharge of the judicial office.

Value 4: PROPRIETY

Principle:

Propriety, and the appearance of propriety, are essential to the performance of all of the activities of a judge.

Value 5: EQUALITY

Principle:

Ensuring equality of treatment to all before the courts is essential to the due performance of the judicial office.

Value 6: COMPETENCE AND DILIGENCE

Principle:

Competence and diligence are prerequisites to the due performance of judicial office.

IMPLEMENTATION

By reason of the nature of judicial office, effective measures shall be adopted by national judiciaries to provide mechanisms to implement these principles if such mechanisms are not already in existence in their jurisdictions.
